 The New City When Frank Algernon Cowperwood emerged from the Eastern District Penitentiary in Philadelphia he realized that the old life he had lived in that city since boyhood was ended His youth was gone and with it had been lost the great business prospects of his earlier manhood He must begin again It would be useless to repeat how a second panic following upon a tremendous failure that of Jay Cooke and Co had placed a second fortune in his hands This restored wealth softened him in some degree Fate seemed to have his personal welfare in charge He was sick of the stock exchange anyhow as a means of livelihood and now decided that he would leave it once and for all He would get in something else street railways land deals some of the boundless opportunities of the far West Philadelphia was no longer pleasing to him Though now free and rich he was still a scandal to the pretenders and the financial and social world was not prepared to accept him He must go his way alone unaided or only secretly so while his quondam friends watched his career from afar So thinking of this he took the train one day his charming mistress now only twenty six coming to the station to see him off He looked at her quite tenderly for she was the quintessence of a certain type of feminine beauty Poems George Edward Woodberry,1903 her poems gather in a whirlwind of expressive desires that can never be reached for a great timeless but unambiguous love

 The poetics of Angela Maria Tiberi is not recommended to all those who have cold hearts escaped the sense of love Failing to

Rousseau David Gauthier, 2006-04-24 Rousseau is often portrayed as an educational and social reformer whose aim was to increase individual freedom In this volume David Gauthier examines Rousseau s evolving notion of freedom where he focuses on a single quest can freedom and the independent self be regained Rousseau s first answer is given in Emile where he seeks to create a self sufficient individual neither materially nor psychologically enslaved to others His second is in the Social Contract where he seeks to create a citizen who identifies totally with his community experiencing his dependence on it only as a dependence on himself Rousseau implicitly recognized the failure of these solutions His third answer is one of the main themes of the Confessions and Reveries where he is made for a love that merges the selves of the lovers into a single psychologically sufficient unity that makes each better than free But is this response a chimaera Poet Lore ,1913 Life and Letters William Person, 1820
