McGriff,1998 Preachers must understand the teaching techniques of parable and hyperbole not to mention having a good background in systematic theology in order to understand what the Bible s writers really meant But our responsibility is also to reduce the complexities of Bible study to such simplicities that our many listeners ranging from busy young professional people to aging men and women of failing health to youngsters facing a variety of new temptations can take away a saving word from the Preface E Carver McGriff provides the tools preachers need for their daunting task with some of the most timely and thought provoking research on the lectionary texts ever made available Included for each scriptural lesson in the lectionary are A listing of the applicable Revised Common Roman Catholic and Episcopal lectionary texts A description of the Psalm of the day A prayer for the day Commentary that is more than academic exegesis McGriff brings to the forefront those points in the lessons that relate most poignantly to our contemporary reality Suggested sermon titles for each of the three texts for each Sunday Themes and suggested directions for preaching on each text Several additional illustrations to enliven your preaching Known in the Indianapolis community as a preacher with extraordinary gifts it is no surprise at all that this work by Carver McGriff brings remarkable insights to those who look for integrity in their preaching Carver looks at the texts with a freshness that is sure to stimulate the thought process Careful use of these suggestions will bring serendipities to preacher and congregation George H Tooze Senior Minister First Baptist Church Indianapolis Indiana One of America s premiere preachers E Carver McGriff returned home after earning two Purple Hearts during World War II to earn a degree in business administration from Butler University Following a career as a salesman and business owner McGriff entered Garrett Theological Seminary where he was voted Best Preacher by the faculty and graduated with distinction During his 26 year ministry at St Luke s Methodist Church in Indianapolis McGriff spearheaded his congregation s remarkable growth in membership from 900 to 4 400 with average Sunday attendance increasing from 300 to over 1 850 McGriff received an honorary degree from the University of Indianapolis and the Outstanding Alumnus award from Butler University and was voted the Distinguished Alumnus of the year by Christian Theological Seminary McGriff was also honored in 1993 by the Governor of Indiana with the Sagamore of the Wabash His sermons have been distributed nationwide by the United Methodist Publishing House

Xueqin and Xakespeare Judith Forsyth,2024-03-19 This monograph offers a detailed consideration of the five volume novel written by Cao Xueqin and translated into English as The Story of the Stone when read through William Shakespeare s drama Hamlet Prince of Denmark A Tragedy in Five Acts The book builds on the superlative David Hawkes John Minford English language translation which is inspired by resonances between the English Shakespearean literary heritage and the dynasties old Chinese literary tradition inherited by Cao Xueqin The Introduction sets out the potential for the significant cultural exchange between these two great literary works each an inexhaustible inspiration of artistic and scholarly re interpretation Two chapters bring into consideration two universal literary themes patriarchy filial obedience and family honour and tragic romantic love These chapters are structured so that a key episode in Hamlet provides the initial perspective which is then carried through to an episode in The Story of the Stone which offers points of complementarity in depth interpretation draws on inter textual historical and contemporary contexts referenced from the immense body of scholarly research which has accumulated around these iconic works The third chapter proposes a new reading of the problematic shrew character in the novel Wang Xi feng through tracing the similarities of the structure of the narration of her life and death with a Shakespearean five act tragedy The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 international license

Love Anton Chekhov,2022-12-28 Love begins with the narrator writing a long poetic and lovelorn letter to the object of his affections Sasha It has to be absolutely perfect However her reply isn t exactly what he expected This superbly observed short story serves as an allegory to the trials and tribulations faced by those falling in love Wistful whimsical and funny it s an essential read for those who want to find out more about the man behind classic plays such as The Seagull Anton Pavlovich Chekhov 1860 1904 was born in Taganrog in Southern Russia The son of a grocer and the third of six children he was educated at the local Greek School After Chekhov's father became bankrupt the family lived in poverty before fleeing to Moscow to avoid debtor's prison However a man called Selivanov paid the debts for the price of the familial home and Chekhov was able to complete his education funding himself through working as a tutor and selling short stories to the local newspaper After writing a series of tales for various publications Chekhov started to gain critical attention However it was a trip to the Ukraine that put the literary wheels in motion After the publication of his novella The Steppe he was commissioned to write a play resulting in Ivanov Over the course of his career Chekhov wrote more than 200 short stories and 14 plays Works such as The Seagull The Cherry Orchard and Uncle Vanya have been performed on stages across the world
