Loving God And Disturbing Men:

Loving God and Disturbing Men Donald A. Leggett, 2003 Loving God and Disturbing Men is an excellent resource for preachers and teachers that provides a balance between technical scholarly commentaries and popular devotional works. Its unique strength lies in the author's ability to show the relevance of the prophets for the contemporary church and its ministry. Readers will appreciate the detailed scholarly treatment of the prophetic literature the author provides. But equally important, the author demonstrates that what the prophets said about God, evil, repentance, history, social justice, and eschatology has the ring of immediacy for us. Moreover, the study is helpful in treating the lives of the prophets as models of spirituality in prayer, suffering, and preaching. While the book is primarily for those who preach from the prophets, it is suitable for a much wider audience. A book on preaching from the prophets is desperately needed today by the Christian audience if we are to be faithful in declaring the whole counsel of God to our contemporary generation. Professor Donald Leggett is to be commended on his desire to aid the Christian community and its proclaimers in advancing this cause. It is a pleasure to commend this work. Walter C. Kaiser Jr. Here is a pump primer and launch pad for preachers. Dr. Leggett's aim is to show us the wisdom of the prophets in a way that will excite us and enable us to share what we have seen. I appreciate this book for I think it will do its job. And the job is an important one. J. I. Packer. Donald A. Leggett, Th.D., Free University Amsterdam, is Professor Emeritus of Old Testament at Tyndale University College and Seminary in Toronto, Ontario. For 25 years he also served as a pastor and elder at Village Green Baptist Church in London, Ontario. So You Want to Go to Heaven? God Tells You How! Norman P.  Reproduction of the original Will Campbell, Preacher Man Kyle Childress, Rodney Wallace Kennedy, 2016-08-04 This collection of essays and sermons by Rodney Kennedy and Kyle Childress is focused on honoring the memory of Will Campbell the prophet from the South who made a vocation of destroying sacred cows The essays and sermons attempt to be true to the spirit of Will Campbell's devotion to the gospel above all else It should not be surprising that the essays and sermons are about the business of deconstructing more sacred cows while lifting up the truth claims of the gospel

Cultivating a People for God Enoch Kwan, 2019-04-09 This is not just another book It is a long but timeless message better described as a theology of Discipleship I wish God had used someone else who is smarter to write this book and it may have come out sooner It took God 25 years for me to capture the bits and pieces while God taught me in time This book will show you God's heart and get you excited about fulfilling His plan You will find the simple way of integrating spirituality and ministry while pleasing God in all areas of your life and ministry The wide Scripture supported fresh philosophy and framework presented in this book will help you feel God's heartbeat It will elevate your perspective and build a stronger motivation for your church to engage with Christ's Great Commission You will discover the God inspired strategy for discipleship in the Commandments for the Great Commission You will discover how we may effectively cultivate and offer daily to God a People God awaits Your congregation will have time to enjoy life and God while fulfilling the Great Commission and maturing as Christians in God's inspired ways You will be glad to allow this book to jump to the front of your reading list as it may inject transformational elements to your other reading It is possible that the message presented in this book will spark a new movement for God's people Come join me in fellowship through this book and decide for yourself to see if you can be a part of this new and exciting journey

Vol. 1- new* ,1879     Called by God's Name Linda Leggett,2012-12-20 When God named himself it was more than a label He stressed that his name represented his character and those who bore it must accurately display that character in their words and deeds Misunderstanding this basic biblical truth has led to the reduction of the third commandment to simply a language issue in popular culture However its correct understanding and preaching should be the start of knowing Gods dealings with his Old and New Testament people as well as the template for todays believers Initially establishing the consistency of the testamental record through themes and the use of the Old Testament by Jesus and the New Testament writers the author displays some of Gods characteristics found in both testaments which illustrate ethical requirements for his church and inspire the responses of his people The fruit of a lifetime of study of the Old Testament distilling biblical wisdom written concisely and understandable to the average church member though informed by much scholarly reading As a gifted biblical expositor and much loved classroom teacher Leggett again pushes us into Old Testament study to inform us of the New and inspires us to more whole hearted devotion to the God who has called us by his name Dr Terrance Tiessen emeritus professor of theology and ethics Providence Seminary Leggetts final work captures his love for Scripture as he carefully explores the theme of Christian identity drawing on his thorough familiarity with the biblical texts and his impressive knowledge of Old Testament scholarship Accessibility in style and practical insights make it a valuable resource for the lay person to deepen their understanding of the Scriptures and the God of whom they speak John Franklin IMAGO director adjunct at Tyndale Seminary and Trinity College Toronto With warmth and passion the author traces specific themes through both testaments illustrating their unity of witness to the character of God The The Man who Saw God Antony Linneweber, 1927 Toronto Journal of Theology , 1993 The Oxford Handbook of Theology and Modern European Thought Nicholas Adams, George Pattison, Graham Ward, 2013-02-28 Modern European thought describes a wide range of philosophies cultural programmes and political arguments developed in Europe in the period following the French Revolution Throughout this period many of the wide range of modernisms and anti modernisms had a distinctly religious and even theological character not least when religion was subjected to the harshest criticism Yet for all the breadth and complexity of modern European thought and in particular its relations to theology a distinct body of themes and approaches recurred in each generation Moreover many of the issues that took intellectual shape in Europe are now global rather than narrowly European and for good or ill they form part of Europe s bequest to the world from colonialism and the economic theories behind globalisation through to democracy to terrorism This volume attempts to identify and comment on some of the most important of these The thirty chapters are grouped into six thematic parts moving from questions of identity and the self through discussions of the human condition the age of revolution the world both natural and technological and knowledge methodologies concluding with a section looking explicitly at how major theological themes have developed in modern European thought The chapters engage with major thinkers including Kant Hegel Kierkegaard Heidegger Schleiermacher Nietzsche Dostoevsky Barth Rahner Tillich Bonhoeffer Sartre de Beauvoir Wittgenstein and Derrida amongst many others Taken together these new essays provide a rich and reflective overview of the interchange between theology philosophy and critical thought in Europe over the past two hundred years
