Japan's Quest Warren S. Hunsberger, 1996-12-23 An international team of ten specialists in Japanese and American foreign relations address the crucial question what role should Japan play in international affairs This question has not found a fully satisfactory answer since the forced opening to foreign contacts in the mid nineteenth century Having copied foreign models and achieved a series of stunning successes and some failures in many aspects of private and public life Japan today stands at a pinnacle of economic power and affluence Despite this both economics and politics are undergoing major strains and changes during the 1990s and the quest for true internationalization is fraught with problems and only partially fulfilled This book is a joint project of the American University in Washington and Ritsumeikan University in Kyoto Modernities

Peter J. Taylor, 2013-05-02 Taylor develops a geohistorical argument which focuses on the periods and places of modernities offering a grounded analysis of what it is to be modern He identifies three prime modernities which have defined the development of our modern world today s consumer modernity preceded by the industrial modernity of the nineteenth century which was itself preceded by mercantile modernity Low Countries Yearbook 1994/95 Geert Van Istendael, Stichting Ons Erfdeel Vzw, Stichting ons erfdeel (Belgium / Rekkem), 1994-12-01 Illuminating the Renaissance Thomas Kren, Scot McKendrick, 2003-07-01 This comprehensive and richly illustrated catalogue focuses on the finest illustrated manuscripts produced in Europe during the great epoch in Flemish illumination During this aesthetically fertile period beginning in 1467 with the reign of the Burgundian duke Charles the Bold and ending in 1561 with the death of the artist Simon Bening the art of book painting was raised to a new level of sophistication Sharing inspiration with the celebrated panel painters of the time illuminators achieved astonishing innovations in the handling of color light texture and space creating a naturalistic style that would dominate tastes throughout Europe for nearly a century Centering on the notable artists of the period Simon Marmion the Vienna Master of Mary of Burgundy Gerard David Gerard Horenbout Bening and others the catalogue examines both devotional and secular manuscript illumination within a broad context the place of illuminators within the visual arts including artistic exchange between book painters and panel painters the role of court patronage and the emergence of personal libraries and the international appeal of the new Flemish illumination style Contributors to the catalogue include Maryan W Ainsworth curator of European paintings at the Metropolitan Museum of Art independent scholar Catherine Reynolds and Elizabeth Morrison assistant curator of manuscripts at the Getty Museum Illuminating the Renaissance is published in conjunction with an exhibition organized by the Getty Museum the Royal Academy of Arts London and the British Library to be held at the Getty Museum from June 17 to September 7 2003 and at the Royal Academy of Arts from November 25 2003 to February 22 2004 The Statesman's Yearbook 2016 Nick Heath-Brown, 2017-02-07 Now in its 152nd edition The Statesman s Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects complete The book places the adoption of new crafts and technologies in London within a broader European context and relates it to the phenomenal growth of the metropolis and technological developments within these specific trades It throws new perspectives on the movement of skills from Europe and the transmission of know how from the immigrant population to English artisans The book explores how through enterprise and persistence the immigrants contribution helped transform London from a peripheral and backward European city to become the workshop of the world by the nineteenth century By way of conclusion the book brings the current immigration debate full circle to examine the lessons we can draw from this early modern experience The Statesman's Yearbook 2014 B. Flemish and Dutch Artists in Early Modern England Mary Bryan H. Curd, 2017-07-05 By examining their production practices in a variety of genres including manuscript illustration glass painting and staining tapestry manufacture portrait painting and engraving this book explores how Netherlandish artists migrating to England in the early modern period overcame difficulties raised by their outsider status This study examines for the first time in this context the challenges of alien status to artistic production and the effectiveness of cooperation as a countermeasure The author demonstrates that collaboration was chief among the strategies that these foreigners chose to secure a position in London's changing art market Curd's exploration of these collaborations primarily follows Pierre Bourdieu's model of establishment and challenger in which dominance in a field of cultural production depends upon how much cultural political and economic capital can be accumulated and the effectiveness of the strategies used to confront competition The analysis presented here challenges received opinion that a collaborative work is only a joint effort of artists working together on a single monument by demonstrating that the participation of patrons and middlemen can also shape the final appearance of a work of art Furthermore this book shows that the strategic use of collaboration served the goal of competition by helping to establish foreign artists in the London art market and suggests that their coping strategies have implications for the study of immigrant behaviors today
