outdated system affecting so many lives I've learned firsthand of this biased one-sided system that has stolen my firstborn away from me. My story of these events that has transpired throughout two decades has been well documented with the facts of my case in its entirety. The surrounding drama marked by family court and fueled by a relentless baby mama has led me on a journey for justice for a daughter I never knew. Just like so many others who have fought and lost the right to be a parent, my mission now is to change and expose the truth of this corrupt culture that touches across all racial barriers and wealth status. History has shown us that a father's love is one of the most important key figures in a child's life. To undertake that away purposely can be an atrocity affecting generations to come. But who knew the fight for my daughter would ultimately catapult my life into a direction for change and a front row seat to a new normal that affects us all. Blues Before

Sunrise Steve Cushing, 2010-01-15 This collection assembles the best interviews from Steve Cushing's long running radio program Blues Before Sunrise, the nationally syndicated award winning program focusing on vintage blues and R & B. As both an observer and performer, Cushing has been involved with the blues scene in Chicago for decades. His candid colorful interviews with prominent blues players, producers and deejays reveal the behind the scenes world of the formative years of recorded blues. Many of these oral histories detail the careers of lesser known but greatly influential blues performers and promoters. The book focuses in particular on pre World War II blues singers, performers active in 1950s Chicago and nonperformers who contributed to the early blues world. Interviewees include Alberta Hunter, one of the earliest African American singers to transition from Chicago's Bronzeville nightlife to the international spotlight and Ralph Bass, one of the greatest R & B producers of his era. Blues expert, writer, record producer and cofounder of Living Blues Magazine, Jim O'Neal provides the book's foreword. SPIN, 2007-09 From the concert stage to the dressing room, from the recording studio to the digital realm, SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting, provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear. With dynamic photography, bold graphic design and informed irreverence, the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds. Whether covering what's new or what's next, SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks.
