Lu Xun and Evolution James Reeve Pusey,1998-01-29 Lu Xun 1881 1936 China s greatest modern writer remains important today both as an official icon and a patron saint of dissent This book deals with Lu Xun s struggle to make sense of the Darwinian Revolution It illuminates not only Lu Xun s thought but also the current crisis in Chinese thought caused by the loss of faith in Marxism

Lu Xun and Evolution James Reeve Pusey,1998-01-01 Lu Xun 1881 1936 China s greatest modern writer remains important today both as an official icon and a patron saint of dissent This book deals with Lu Xun s struggle to make sense of the Darwinian Revolution It illuminates not only Lu Xun s thought but also the current crisis in Chinese thought caused by the loss of faith in Marxism

Lu Xun's Affirmative Biopolitics Wenjin Cui,2021-11-29 This book explores an extraordinary case of affirmative biopolitics through the study of Lu Xun 1881 1936 the most prominent cultural figure of modern China Diverging from the Enlightenment humanist framework in reference to which Lu Xun is commonly interpreted it demonstrates how his thinking is defined by a naturalistic conception of culture that is best understood in the global context of what Foucault defines as the biological turn of modernity In comparison to ontologically grounded modern Western theories of life it brings to light the deep connection between Lu Xun s affirmative biopolitics and the epistemic ground of Chinese tradition what is known as correlative thinking Combining close readings of literary texts with a theoretical consideration of broader issues of culture this book is an essential read for scholars and students who are interested in Lu Xun modern Chinese intellectual history comparative studies of Chinese and Western thought and the question of affirmative biopolitics

Lu Xun and His Legacy Leo Ou-fan Lee,1985-01-01

Zhuangzi and Modern Chinese Literature Jianmei Liu,2016 This is a powerful account of how the ruin and resurrection of Zhuangzi in modern China s literary history correspond to the rise and fall of modern Chinese individuality By examining the twentieth century reinterpretation and appropriation of Zhuangzi the author explores modern Chinese writers complicated relationship with tradition

Developmental Fairy Tales Andrew F. Jones,2011-05-02 Jones revises our understanding of modern China by tracing the ways that evolutionary works developed into a form of vernacular knowledge in modern Chinese literature From children s primers to print culture from fairy tales to filmmaking his analysis offers an innovative and interdisciplinary angle of vision on China s cultural evolution

The Specter of Materialism Petrus Liu,2022-12-09 In recent years queer theory appears to have made a materialist turn away from questions of representation and performativity to those of dispossession precarity and the differential distribution of life chances Despite this shift queer theory finds itself constantly reabsorbed into the liberal project of diversity management This theoretical and political weakness Petrus Liu argues stems from an incomplete understanding of capitalism s contemporary transformations of which China has been at the center In The Specter of Materialism Liu challenges key premises of classic queer theory and Marxism turning to an analysis of the Beijing Consensus global capitalism s latest mutation to develop a new theory of the political economy of sexuality Liu explores how relations of gender and sexuality get reconfigured to meet the needs of capital in new regimes of accumulation and dispossession demonstrating that evolving US Asian economic relations shape the emergence of new queer identities and academic theories In so doing he offers a new history of collective struggles that provides a transnational framework for understanding the nexus between queerness and material life

Politics of Art Zhiguang Yin, 2015-02-04 In Politics of Art Zhiguang Yin investigates members of the Creation Society and their social network while in Japan The study contextualises the Chinese left wing intellectual movements and their political engagements in relation with the early 20th century international political events and trends in both East Asia and Europe The Creation Society was largely viewed as a subject of literary studies This research however evaluates these intellectuals in the context of Chinese revolution and elaborates their theoretical contribution to the Chinese Communist Party's practice of theoretical struggle as a main driving force of ideological construction As this study tries to demonstrate theoretical struggle drives the ideological politics forward while maintaining its political vigour

A Modernity Set to a Pre-Modern Tune Haosheng Yang, 2016-03-11 In A Modernity Set to a Pre-Modern Tune Haosheng Yang provides an in depth study of the classical style poems of the most iconoclastic May Fourth Chinese writers Lu Xun Yu Dafu Zhou Zuoren Guo Moruo and Nie Gannu and highlights the five literary masters engagement with traditional lyricism as their critical response to the sociopolitical turbulence of twentieth century China This study challenges the bias against classical forms as allegedly outdated modes incapable of representing modern reality in current Chinese literary history Yang's fascinating book positions modern Chinese literature's formalistic nonlinearity representational experiences and aspiration for a new voice through an old form as factors that are all crucial to exploring more fully the blurred boundary between the traditional and the modern

Children's Lit in China, A history of children's literature in China set in the framework of China's revolution and modernization Lu Xun and his brother Zhou Zhuren were the founding fathers of the idea of the political importance of children and how that connected with literature tailored for them in the 20s and 30s

The Lure of the Modern Shumei Shi, 2001-04-20 Quite apart from her contributions as a literary critic Shu mei Shih is able to historicize literary developments of the period most persuasively Her analysis of Shanghai the city and the literary movement it spawned is crafted with great sensitivity to both history and literature In many ways it is the most inclusive historical study of modern Chinese literature in its formative period Prasenjit Duara author of Rescuing History from the Nation Tracing the spectral production of Chinese identity as it is disseminated globally Shih boldly moves away from using place ethnicity and the body race to anchor Chinese identity to argue that the visual film and the verbal language and linguistics are the most salient ones in the modern and contemporary historical formation She succeeds brilliantly David Palumbo Liu author of Asian American Historical Crossings of a Racial Frontier This is the most thoroughly researched study of Chinese modernism published to date The author's theoretical interventions greatly enrich our understanding of colonial modernity and the stakes of comparison in cross cultural studies The book is a major contribution to modern Chinese literary studies and comparative literature Lydia Liu editor of Tokens of Exchange Whither Class? Xueping Zhong, 2025-02-24 This book argues that the revolutionary anti revolutionary counter revolutionary and post revolutionary dialectics in modern Chinese history since the early 20th century characterizes modern and contemporary Chinese literature the most Central to these dialectics are issues of class The book contends that one cannot fully understand modern and contemporary Chinese literature without understanding the class character of Chinese revolutionary and counter revolutionary struggles including literary practices and their various contradictions Considering literature via the notion of the event and focusing on three specific historical junctures this project explores how as a major cultural form literature has played an outsize role in China's struggle for liberation and quest for modernity It highlights the need to understand class and the extent to which it shapes literary and artistic forms and expressions as well as the on going debates over the relationship between politics and aesthetics

Representing Children in Chinese and U.S. Children's Literature Claudia Nelson, Rebecca Morris, 2016-04-08 Bringing together children's literature scholars from China and the United States this collection provides an introduction to the scope and goals of a field characterized by active but also distinctive scholarship in two countries with very different rhetorical traditions The volume's five sections highlight the differences between and overlapping concerns of Chinese and American scholars as they examine children's literature with respect to cultural metaphors and motifs historical movements authorship didacticism important themes and the current status of and future directions for literature and criticism Wide ranging and admirably ambitious in its encouragement of communication between scholars from two major nations Representing Children in Chinese and U S Children's Literature serves as a model for examining how and why children's literature more than many literary forms circulates internationally

The End of the Revolution Wang Hui, 2011-08-01 Challenging both the bureaucratic one party regime and the Western neoliberal paradigm China's leading critic shatters the myth of progress and reflects upon the inheritance of a revolutionary past In this original and wide ranging study Wang Hui examines the roots of China's social and political problems and traces the reforms and struggles that have led to the current state of mass depoliticization Arguing that China's revolutionary history and its current liberalization are part of the same discourse of modernity Wang Hui calls for alternatives to both its capitalist trajectory and its authoritarian past From the May Fourth Movement to Tiananmen Square The End of the Revolution offers a broad discussion of Chinese intellectual history and society in the hope of forging a new path for China's future

Christianity and Confucianism Christopher Hancock, 2020-12-10 Christianity and Confucianism Culture Faith and Politics sets comparative textual analysis against the backcloth of 2000 years of cultural political and religious interaction between China and the West As the world responds to China's rise and China positions herself for global engagement this major new study reawakens and revises an ancient conversation As a generous introduction to biblical Christianity and the Confucian Classics Christianity and Confucianism tells a remarkable story of mutual formation and cultural indebtedness

East and West are shown to have shaped the mind heart culture philosophy and politics of the other and far more perhaps than either knows or would want to admit Christopher Hancock has provided a rich and stimulating resource for scholars and students diplomats and social scientists devotees of culture and those who pursue wisdom and peace today

Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism Keru Cai, 2025-04-28 Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism shows that early twentieth century Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty peasants suffering from famine exploited urban laborers homeless orphans to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative innovating strategies of representing the nation the social other time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era Comparing Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol Andreev Chekhov Turgenev and others the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy Keru Cai's multi scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans Eurasian axis of world literature

Comparative Literature in the Age of Globalization - A Form of New Humanism Yue Daiyun, 2025-08-26 This book offers a critical introduction to comparative literature It reviews the origin and development of comparative literature and explores from a theoretical perspective the contributions of prominent Chinese scholars in history such as Lin Shu Yan Fu Gu Hongming Wang Guowei Lu Xun and Chen Yinque Through the close examination of classics such as A Treatise on Poetry An Aesthetic Strolling Limited Views Essays on Ideas and Letters Discourse on the Art of Poetry this book reveals the concept and method of comparison for the humanities and social thought with the prospect of identifying scholarly decisions and directions from the traditions of Chinese culture and bringing differentiated yet universal Chinese thought to the world The book is authored by Professor Yue Daiyun a founder and leader of the discipline of Chinese comparative literature The content will be of interest to readers in the discipline of comparative literature or those that are interested in Chinese literature and culture in general

The Coming Death Richard F. Calichman, 2022-02-01 The Coming Death explores the question of death and mortality in several key texts of East Asian literature and cinema By exposing the specific fields of Japanology and Sinology to the more general discourse of thanatology Richard Calichman aims to define death more expansively on the basis of loss and disappearance Typically death is understood to be purely separate from life where death is life is not and where life is death is not Yet this view fails to account not only for the frequency with which living individuals encounter the death of others but also and far more radically for the disturbing fact that life in its unfolding remains at each moment open to the possibility of its own destruction In this regard Calichman argues death must be conceived not simply as an actual event but even more fundamentally as a general possibility without which life itself could not develop At issue is how death reveals the emptiness of all identity which demands that life and death no longer be conceived as purely oppositional If mortal death can appear at the very origin of life then the fullness or presence of life is at each instant threatened by the possibility of its negation Through a reading of the works of such major artistic and intellectual figures as Kurosawa Akira Tsai Ming liang Lu Xun and Takeuchi Yoshimi The Coming Death argues for a fundamental rethinking of mortality

Remapping China Gail Hershatter,1996 These stimulating essays address such topics as histories of public health emotional life law and sexuality notions of borders and frontiers the relationship between native place identities and nationalism the May Fourth Movement and the periodization of the Chinese revolution

Configurations of the Individual in Modern Chinese Literature Qin Wang,2019-08-27 This book aims to demonstrate the multiplicity of configurations of the individual in modern Chinese literature through analyzing several classic texts written by Zhou Zuoren Lu Xun Lao She and Mu Shiying It attempts to refresh our understanding of the history of modern Chinese literature and indirectly responds to the controversial issue of individual rights or human rights in present day China showing that in modern Chinese literature various configurations of the individual imply political possibilities that are not only irreconcilable with each other but irreducible to the determination of the modern discourse of individualism introduced by the West A groundbreaking work it will give valuable context to political scientists and other scholars seeking to understand what China means in the 21st century
