L. Murphy,A. Lim,A. Gallico,2001 Management in South-East Asia Chris Rowley,Malcolm Warner,2013-09-13 This edited volume deals with Management in South East Asia It widely agreed that this is a region of growing importance economically in today s globalized world This area contains a diverse range of dynamic economies ranging from the highly developed through to the newly emerging each competing in a different manner and with different characteristics This book specifically focuses on current and future developments in areas such as Business Culture Enterprises and Human Resources It covers a range of topics industries size of firms and countries Malaysia Singapore Thailand Vietnam three of which are capitalist economies with the latter a transitional communist one These locations also comprehend a variety of business cultures with a variety of religious values ranging from Buddhist to Islamic and ethnic identities The approach taken is inter disciplinary and most of the contributions are by locally based authors who are very well qualified to write about their chosen country setting The experts contributing include those specialized in banking business management economics finance sociology psychology and so on all based in business schools and universities encompassing a good number of national origins This book was previously published as a special issue of the Asian Pacific Business Review Southeast Asia's Chinese Businesses in an Era of Globalization Leo Suryadinata,2003-08-01 This book addresses the rise of China and its impact on Southeast Asia s

economies and businesses especially on those of ethnic Chinese It also discusses Southeast Asian government policies particularly their economic and business policies towards local Chinese and Southeast Asian Chinese businesses both conglomerates and SMEs in an era of globalization Leading experts from the Southeast Asian region were invited to write the papers presenting the most up to date analyses on the subject Survey of Current Business, 2004-05 Presents current statistical data on economic activity

International Transfer Pricing in Asia Pacific J. Li, 2005-09-08 In the management of business activity by companies operating in more than one country the complex array of issues and practices that characterize their movements of assets between constituent company units centres around what has become known as international transfer payments This book based on extensive research explains the nature of the subject presents the latest data on the practice of transfer payments in three Asia Pacific countries the regulations attitudes and conditions which form the context in which they take place and the events which are most likely to precipitate the intervention of the authorities and lead to investigation and audit

US-Asia Economic Relations Justin Robertson, 2008-09-02 In a world of continuing financial volatility this book critically evaluates the oft cited claim that US firms and the US government attempt to open emerging markets in economic distress and acquire valuable industrial and financial assets Focusing particularly on Korea and Thailand the author examines the degree of market opening the roles US actors played in this process and the level of foreign firm activity in the years after the Asian crisis Justin Robertson finds surprisingly little coherence between the strategies of US firms and US policy makers At the same time the book downplays European investments concluding instead that the decade since the Asian crisis has reaffirmed strengths of US capital particularly in some of the most important sectors of the global economy Investment banking private equity and subcontracting are significant new features of US Asia economic relations Providing a sophisticated understanding of US interests in Asia especially in terms of the politics of finance capital and including a wealth of empirical data on the US and Asian political economies this book will be invaluable for students and scholars of international political economy and Asian economics and politics
