Major Philosophers Of Jewish Prayer In The Twentieth Century:

Major Philosophers of Jewish Prayer in the Twentieth Century Jack Cohen, 2000 This book addresses the troubling questions confronting the modern Jewish worshiper by bringing to the reader the insights of such twentieth century Jewish theologians as Herman Cohen Franz Rosenzweig Avraham Y Kook Mordecai M Kaplan R Arele Aaron Rote Elie Munk Abraham J Heschel Jakob J Petuchowski Eugene B Borowitz and Lawrence A Hoffman as well as a variety of feminist theologians By discussing these theologians the author discusses a variety of obstacles to prayer the inability to concentrate on the words and meaning of formal liturgies the paucity of emotional involvement and lack of theological conviction among worshipers and the anthropomorphic and particularly the masculine emphasis of prayer nomenclature The result is a book of great interest not just for Jewish worshipers but for anyone interested in the meaning of prayer and the modern approaches to it Great Twentieth Century Jewish Philosophers: Shestov, Rosenzweig, Buber, with Selections from Their Writings Lev Shestov, Franz Rosenzweig, Martin Buber, 1969 Introducing Biblical Hermeneutics Craig G. Bartholomew, 2015-11-10 2016 Word Guild Award Academic category Honorable mention Grace Irwin Prize Renowned scholar Craig Bartholomew coauthor of the bestselling textbook The Drama of Scripture writes in his main area of expertise hermeneutics to help seminarians pursue a lifetime of biblical interpretation Integrating the latest research in theology philosophy and biblical studies this substantive hermeneutics textbook is robustly theological in its approach takes philosophical hermeneutics seriously keeps the focus throughout on the actual process of interpreting Scripture and argues that biblical interpretation should be centered in the context and service of the church an approach that helps us hear God's address today Jewish Prayers to an Evolutionary God: Science in the Siddur Joel Yehudah Rutman MD, 2017-07-20 Why do we pray On the one hand prayer offers us a way to meditate on the knowledge of God and have intimate interaction with a personal creator And for many Jews it offers a sense of community and fulfills a need for daily connection with a venerable tradition and language Yet for many modern Jews prayer is at best old fashioned or at worst no longer necessary In Jewish Prayers to an Evolutionary God Science in the Siddur author Dr Joel Rutman provides a new way of understanding the existing language of Jewish prayer and he integrates science with Jewish liturgy all the while striving to preserve the passion that makes prayer matter The aim is to enable Jews to daven pray with kavanna intent trusting that science will not pull the rug out from under their prayer The poems also continue the ancient tradition of hazzanim cantors who author new prayer poems Going Against the Flow Alan M. Laibelman, 2004 Most contemporary efforts in philosophy treat metaphysics and ethics as isolated arenas of thought Critical analytical exploration of a multitude of ethical theories emanating from historically diverse philosophical and theological traditions demonstrates that a consistent and comprehensive ethic depends upon a solid metaphysical foundation Building upon a metaphysical scheme first explicated in The Other Perennial Philosophy A Metaphysical Dialectic Alan M Laibelman elaborates on a syncretistic ethical system incorporating elements from many cross

Dan Chyutin, 2023-09-12 Contemporary Israeli cinema's engagement with Judaism as cultural identity and mystical tradition Over the past several decades the prevailing attitude toward Judaism in Israeli society has undergone a meaningful shift where the national ethos had once deemed Judaic traditions a vestige of an arcane past incompatible with the culture of a modern state there is now greater acceptance of these traditions by a sizeable part of

Prayers of Jewish Women Markus H. McDowell, 2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women's religious and social roles in the ancient world The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men's prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men
