The Making of the Chinese Middle Class Jean-Louis Rocca,2016-11-07 This book analyses the making of the Chinese middle class that started in the 1990s using a constructivist approach With the development of the Chinese economy a new group of middle wage earners appeared Chinese social scientists and state institutions promoted the idea that China needs a middle class to achieve modernization Middle class members are defined and define themselves as good consumers educated people politically engaged but reasonable citizens As such the making of the middle class is the result of three convergent phenomena an attempt to define the middle class a process of civilization and the development of protest movements The making of the Chinese middle class Rocca argues is a way to end the stalemate that modern Chinese society is facing in particular the necessity to democratize without introducing an election system Good Neighbors Sylvie Tissot,2015-06-01

Managerial Capitalism Gérard Duménil, Dominique Lévy, 2018-03-20 The debate around growing inequality is raging amongst economists and Marxists are finding new ways to map out the modern economy Managerial Capitalism introduces a new way of understanding the changing structure of our economy through the emergence and behaviour of a new class managers In the post war years as social democracy reigned managers tended to form compromises with workers However under neoliberalism allegiances have shifted Today a new alliance is forming between managers and capitalist owners changing the nature of the hierarchy of power under capitalism Additionally the authors argue this is happening much faster and universally than was previously thought By applying Marx's basic concepts to the reality of the system today through the use of extensive data sets as well as firmly rooting the argument in its historical context Managerial Capitalism updates Marxism for the twenty first century through showing how the modes of production today are shaped by a new class that must be understood if it is to be challenged
