Literatura española contemporánea (1898-1950) Juan Chabás, Carmen Valcárcel, 2001-01-01 Esta edición rescata una de las realizaciones más ambiciosas del exilio republicano y por extensión de la España de posguerra. Publicada en La Habana en 1952, la obra no puede comprenderse en su total significación sin atender al compromiso sociopolítico que representa, así como al método que aplica, que no son otros en primer lugar que la concreción de una crítica militante y en segundo la coherente conjunción de la estilística y los principios de la doctrina marxista. Historical Dictionary of Spanish Cinema Alberto Mira, 2010-04-28 Spanish cinema is emerging as one of the most exciting, fascinating and special cinemas in the world. Not only are others viewing Spanish films but they are adopting Spanish producers and Spanish actors as their own. While Spanish cinema has been maturing for a long time and has been producing excellent directors, actors and films for decades, including during the dark times of the Franco regime, only now is it winning numerous fans, not only at home but also abroad. And with directors like Pedro Almodóvar, actors and actresses like Javier Bardem and Penélope Cruz, and films such as Abre los ojos and Alatriste, the outlook for Spanish Cinema appears brighter than ever. The Historical Dictionary of Spanish Cinema provides a better understanding of the role Spanish cinema has played in film history through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on producers, directors, film companies, actors, and films. Picturing Argentina: Myths, Movies, and the Peronist Vision Currie K. Thompson, 2014-05-28 Although Juan Domingo Perón's central role in Argentine history and the need for an unbiased assessment of his impact on his nation's cinema are beyond dispute, the existing scholarship on the subject is limited. In recent decades, Argentina has witnessed a revival of serious film study, some of which has focused on the nation's classical movies and in one case on Peronism. None of this work has been translated into English, however. This is the first English language book that offers an extensive assessment of Argentine cinema during first Peronism. It is also the first study in any language that concentrates systematically on the evolution of social attitudes reflected in Argentine movies throughout those years and that assesses the period's impact on subsequent filmmaking activity. By analyzing popular Argentine movies from this time through the prism of myth, second-order communication systems that present historically developed customs and attitudes as natural, the book traces the filmic construction of gender, criminality, race, the family, sports, and the military. It identifies in movies the development and evolution of mindsets and attitudes that may be construed as Peronist. By framing its consideration of films from the Perón years in the context of earlier and later ones, it demonstrates that this period accelerates and sometimes registers backward-looking responses to earlier progressive mythic shifts and it traces the development in the 1950s of a critical mindset that comes to fruition in the new cinema of the 1960s Picturing Argentina Myths Movies and the Peronist Vision is an important book for Latin American studies film studies and history collections Directory of World Cinema: Brazil Louis Bayman, Natalia Pinazza, 2014-02-15 Best known to international audiences for its carnivalesque irreverence and recent gangster blockbusters Brazilian cinema is gaining prominence with critics at global film festivals and on DVD shelves This volume seeks to introduce newcomers to Brazilian cinema and to offer valuable insights to those already well versed in the topic It brings into sharp focus some of the most important movements genres and themes from across the eras of Brazilian cinema from cinema novo to musical chanchada the road movie to cinema de bordas avant garde to pornochanchada Delving deep beyond the surface of cinema the volume also addresses key themes such as gender indigenous and diasporic communities and Afro Brazilian identity Situating Brazilian cinema within the country's changing position in the global capitalist system the essays consider uneven modernization class division dictatorship liberation struggles and globalization alongside questions of entertainment and artistic innovation World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Arthur Holmberg, Carlos Solorzano, 2014-06-03 The second volume of the World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre covers the Americas from Canada to Argentina including the United States Entries on twenty six countries are preceded by specialist introductions on Theatre in Post Colonial Latin America Theatres of North America Puppet Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Music Theatre and Dance Theatre The essays follow the series format allowing for cross referring across subjects both within the volume and between volumes Each country entry is written by specialists in the particular country and the volume has its own teams of regional editors overseen by the main editorial team based at the University of York in Canada headed by Don Rubin Each entry covers all aspects of theatre genres practitioners writers critics and styles with bibliographies over 200 black in conjunction with the other volumes in this series it forms a reference resource of unparalleled value A History of Spanish Film Sally Faulkner, 2013-04-11 A History of Spanish Film explores Spanish film from the beginnings of the industry to the present day by combining some of the most exciting work taking place in film studies with some of the most urgent questions that have preoccupied twentieth century Spain It addresses new questions in film studies like prestige film and middlebrow cinema and places these in the context of a country defined by social mobility including the 1920s industrial boom the 1940s post Civil War depression and the mass movement into the middle classes from the 1960s onwards Close textual analysis of some 42 films from 1910 2010 provides an especially useful avenue into the study of this cinema for the student Uniquely offers extensive close readings of 42 films which are especially useful to students and teachers of Spanish cinema Analyses Spanish silent cinema and films of the Franco era as well as contemporary examples Interrogates film's relations with other media including literature pictorial art and television Explores both auteur and popular cinemas Establishes prestige and the middlebrow as crucial new terms in Spanish cinema studies Considers the transnationality of Spanish cinema throughout its century of existence Contemporary directors covered Theatre Censorship in Spain, 1931-1985 Catherine O'Leary, Michael Thompson, 2023-05-15 This is a comprehensive study of the impact of censorship on theatre in twentieth century Spain. It draws on extensive archival evidence, vivid personal testimonies and in-depth analysis of legislation to document the different kinds of theatre censorship practised during the Second Republic (1931-6), the civil war (1936-9), the Franco dictatorship (1939-75) and the transition to democracy (1975-85). Changes in criteria, administrative structures and personnel from these periods are traced in relation to wider political, social and cultural developments, and the responses of playwrights, directors and companies are explored. With a focus on censorship, new light is cast on particular theatre-makers and their work, the conditions in which all kinds of theatre were produced, the construction of genres and canons as well as on broader cultural history and changing ideological climate, all of which are linked to reflections on the nature of censorship and the relationship between culture and the state.

Latino Image Makers in Hollywood Frank Javier Garcia Berumen, 2016-04-14 Latinos have been part of the Hollywood film industry for more than 100 years, yet beyond the remarkable success of a few, their visibility and clout have generally not reflected their significance in American society. Worse, the Latino image has suffered from widespread stereotyping in film, and performers face unjustified constraints in the kinds of roles available to them. Decade by decade, from 1960 onward, this book analyzes important films made by or about Latinos, details the careers of Latino performers and filmmakers of the time, and analyzes how film portrayals of Latino characters and subjects connect with political and social trends of each decade. It discusses the role of gender, social class, and ethnicity in film portrayals and provides an overview of the diverse and dynamic Latino community in the United States while celebrating a substantial and enduring contribution to Hollywood film history.

Latin American Melodrama Darlene J. Sadlier, 2010-10-01 Like their Hollywood counterparts, Latin American film and TV melodramas have always been popular and highly profitable. The first of its kind, this anthology engages in a serious study of the aesthetics and cultural implications of Latin American melodramas. Written by some of the major figures in Latin American film scholarship, the studies range across seventy years of movies and television within a transnational context, focusing specifically on the period known as the Golden Age of melodrama, the impact of classic melodrama on later forms, and more contemporary forms of melodrama. An introductory essay examines current critical and theoretical debates on melodrama and places the essays within the context of Latin American film and media scholarship. Contributors are Luisela Alvaray, Mariana Baltar, Catherine L. Benamou, Marvin D. Lugo, Paula Félix-Didier, André Levinson, Gilberto Pérez, Darlene J. Sadlier, Cid Vasconcelos, and Ismael Xavier.
