To Quell the Terror: The Mystery of the Vocation of the Sixteen Carmelites of Compiègne Guillotined July 17, 1794 William Bush, 2013-10-29 This book recounts the dramatic true story of the Discalced Carmelite nuns of Compiègne martyred during the French Revolution's Great Terror and known to the world through their fictional representation in Gertrud von Le Fort's Song at the Scaffold and Francis Poulenc's Dialogues of the Carmelites. At the height of the French Revolution's Great Terror a community of sixteen Carmelite nuns from Compiègne offered their lives to restore peace to the church and to France. Ten days after their deaths by the guillotine Robespierre fell and with his execution on the same scaffold the Reign of Terror effectively ended. Had God thus accepted and used the Carmelites' generous self-gift? Through Gertrud von Le Fort's modern novella Song at the Scaffold and Francis Poulenc's famed opera Dialogues of the Carmelites with its libretto by Georges Bernanos, modern audiences around the world have become captivated by the mysterious destiny of these Compiègne martyrs. Blessed Teresa of St. Augustine and her companions. Now for the first time in English William Bush explores at length the facts behind the fictional representations and reflects on their spiritual significance. Based on years of research, this book recounts in lively detail virtually all that is known of the life and background of each of the martyrs as well as the troubled times in which they lived. The Compiègne Carmelites, sustained by their remarkable prioress, emerge as distinct individuals struggling as Christians to understand and respond to an awesome calling, relying not on their own strength but on the mercy of God and the guiding hand of Providence. The book includes an index and 15 photos. The Cabinet Album Cabinet album, 1830 Holy Terror Richard Marcinko, 2007-04-24 From the #1 New York Times bestselling author Vince Flynn, calls the real deal. Richard Marcinko delivers a Rogue Warrior thriller that finds Demo Dick darkening the aisles of St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City, tracking a group of terrorists who want to turn the world's largest Catholic church into the world's biggest Roman candle. Nothing and no one is sacred when the Rogue Warrior smokes out a terrorist network with plans to turn the Vatican to ash. In Holy Terror, the former SEAL commander fires his first shots at a NATO conference in Rome where he caps off his blistering anti-terror speech with a helpful visual aid: eliminating a waiter and playing volleyball with a live grenade. As Demo Dick and his team trail terrorist kingpin Saladin, the manhunt pulls them into tracking stolen nukes in Sicily, facing down a predator in the jungles of Thailand, and flying on a prayer aboard a hijacked jet. Marcinko's mission is one final explosive showdown with the bad guys, and there will be hell to pay. Journey to Carith Peter Thomas Rohrbach, 2015-01-24 First published in 1966, this book chronicles a full eight centuries of the Carmelite tradition from the order's beginnings as a group of lay hermits on Mount Carmel through St. Teresa of Avila's Discalced Carmelite Reform in the 16th century to Carmel's rich diversity today. Since the appearance of this work, important new discoveries in the study of Carmelite history have come to the fore. New scholarly research, for example, would call for a revision of some sections of this book, notably the account of the origins of the Carmelites and related dates and figures, as well as a more nuanced picture of the beginnings of the Teresian Reform. In the meantime, Journey to Carith remains unsurpassed as a concise and readable overview both of the origins of the order and of the Discalced Carmelites in particular. It is a fascinating account of one of the oldest religious families in the Christian West with a uniquely important spiritual tradition.

Thousands and Thousands of Lovers Anna Harrison, 2022-09-05

Thousands and Thousands of Lovers examines the spiritual significance of community to the Cistercian nuns of Helfta, a concern that lies at the heart of the monastery's literature. Focusing on a woefully understudied resource and the largest body of female authored writings in the thirteenth century, this book offers insight into the religious preoccupations of a theologically expert and intellectually vibrant cloister to reveal a subtle interplay between communal practice and private piety, other directed attention and inward religious impulse. It considers the nuns' attitudes toward community among themselves and with their household members as well as with souls in purgatory and the saints.

A Theory of Adaptation Linda Hutcheon, 2012-08-21

A Theory of Adaptation explores the continuous development of creative adaptation and argues that the practice of adapting is central to the story telling imagination. Linda Hutcheon develops a theory of adaptation through a range of media from film and opera to video games, pop music and theme parks, analysing the breadth, scope and creative possibilities within each. This new edition is supplemented by a new preface from the author discussing both new adaptive forms, platforms and recent critical developments in the study of adaptation. It also features an illuminating new epilogue from Siobhan O'Flynn focusing on adaptation in the context of digital media. She considers the impact of transmedia practices and properties on the form and practice of adaptation as well as studying the extension of game narrative across media platforms, fan based adaptation from Twitter and Facebook to home movies and the adaptation of books to digital formats. A Theory of Adaptation is the ideal guide to this ever evolving field of study and is essential reading for anyone interested in adaptation in the context of literary and media studies.

Women in Chinese Buddhism Jessica Huset Tilton, 2025-10-30

Tilton examines how cultural, political and economic forces exert pressures on the levels of freedom and equality for female Buddhists within the Buddhist community as well as women's rights within society. The book charts women's spiritual paths over four periods, beginning with the Buddha and his revolutionary stance on women, to the creation of a fully ordained female Saṅgha in China which peaked during the Tang dynasty and finally to its resurgence in the late Qing and early Republic period, ending with a sharp decline to near extinction during the Mao Zedong years 1949-1976. As the nun and lay communities arise directly from the broader female community, Tilton argues that there is a direct correlation between women's rights issues and those of liberties for Buddhist women within the Saṅgha. Specifically, women's equality within this world as well as their right to
