Hospitalized Older Patient is a comprehensive quick reference resource for registered and advanced practice nurses working with older patients in a hospital setting. Organized in user friendly format the book provides vital information on all aspects of hospital care and the full range of health issues encountered by elderly patients. The book is organized into four major sections. The first section provides an overview of the aging patient including demographics, normal aging changes and the general impact of hospitalization. The second section covers proper health assessment providing guidance on history taking and evaluating laboratory values. The third section is the largest part of the book and is made up of short similarly structured chapters dedicated to individual clinical issues ranging from burns to depression. These chapters are organized by body system to maximize ease of use. The book concludes with a section on special considerations that cross common clinical areas such as palliative care, pain management, fall prevention and discharge planning.

Caring for the Older Adult Patricia O'Neill, 2002-01-01. CARING FOR THE OLDER ADULT: A HEALTH PROMOTION PERSPECTIVE is a concise straightforward LPN/LVN textbook covering the essentials of gerontologic nursing from a strong health promotion perspective. The nature of normal aging as well as disorders common to the elderly are discussed. This resource also addresses concepts and issues related to promoting both physical and psychological health in an aging population. The engaging easy to read informal writing style draws the reader into the subject while conveying important information.

Nursing Care of the Older Adult Suzanne Fitzsimmons, 2004-01-01. Gerontology Mildred O. Hogstel, 2001. Other adults are the fastest growing segment of our population and will require nurses and other health practitioners who are trained in their special needs. Here in this full color and highly illustrated text the reader will find a holistic approach to nursing care for the older population that addresses the physical, psychological, social and economic influences on the older adult's health. A strong foundation on the normal aging process leads to sections on promoting health and wellness among the elderly. Specialist practitioners discuss the most common health care problems of the elderly and their related nursing care. The reader will also learn the latest thinking on current topics such as the financial, legal and ethical issues that older patients and their families face, the importance of becoming an advocate for excellent elderly care and meeting the special needs of diverse ethnic and cultural groups.
