TIMES AND PUBLISHERS WEEKLY BESTSELLER The Soulful Art of Persuasion is a revolutionary guide to becoming a master influencer in an age of distrust through the cultivation of character building habits that are essential to both personal growth and sustained business success This isn t a book full of tips and life hacks Instead The Soulful Art of Persuasion will develop the habits that others want to be influenced by This book is based on a radical idea Persuasion isn t about facts and argument It s all about personal character Jason Harris CEO of the powerhouse creative agency Mekanism argues that genuine persuasion in the twenty first century is about developing character rather than relying on the easy tactics of flattery manipulation and short term gains It is about engaging rather than insisting it is about developing empathy and communicating your values Based on his experience in and out of the boardroom and drawing on the latest in depth research on trust influence and habit formation Harris shows that being persuasive in a culture plagued by deception means rejecting the ethos of the quick and embracing the commitment of putting your truest self forward and playing the long game

Persuasion and Rhetoric Carlo Michelstaedter, 2004-01-01 Emerson and Thoreau are the most celebrated odd couple of nineteenth century American literature Appearing to play the roles of benign mentor and eager disciple they can also be seen as bitter rivals America s foremost literary statesman protective of his reputation and an ambitious and sometimes refractory protege The truth Joel Porte maintains is that Emerson and Thoreau were complementary literary geniuses mutually inspiring and inspired In this book of essays Porte focuses on Emerson and Thoreau as writers He traces their individual achievements and their points of intersection arguing that both men starting from a shared belief in the importance of self culture produced a body of writing that helped move a decidedly provincial New England readership into the broader arena of international culture It is a book that will appeal to all readers interested in the writings of Emerson and Thoreau

Propaganda, Power and Persuasion David Welch, 2013-11-27 As Philip Taylor has written The challenge of the modern information age is to ensure that no single propaganda source gains monopoly over the information and images that shape our thoughts If this happens the war propagandists will be back in business again Propaganda came of age in the Twentieth Century The development of mass and multi media offered a fertile ground for propaganda while global conflict provided the impetus needed for its growth Propaganda has however become a portmanteau word which can be interpreted in a number of different ways What are the characteristic features of propaganda and how can it be defined The distinguished contributors to this book trace the development of techniques of opinion management from the First World War to the current conflict in Afghanistan They reveal how state leaders and spin doctors operating at the behest of the state sought to shape popular attitudes at home and overseas endeavouring to harness new media with the objective of winning hearts and minds The book provides compelling evidence of how the study and practice of propaganda today is shaped by its history

Games of Persuasion Dominic W. Moreo,2000-06-09 Like rain the media overload pours over us each day each hour each waking moment of our lives One way to cope is to withdraw from the world to a faraway island unhooked to any satellite Another way is to grapple with the media as so to understand the nuts and bolts of the persuasive messages that relentlessly hammers us at home even at school on the job and at our getaway vacation On TV and the Internet ads never tire of repetition But to viewers of these messages they appear as so many headache hammers inflicting true pain Therefore on the premise that the best defense is an offense every citizen and consumer must go on the offense How By creating mentally a number of hypothetical ads using all the tricks of the craft of the trade Practice makes perfect Hence the edge need not remain always with Madison Avenue public relations specialists lobbyists single issue advocates politicians and other practitioners of persuasion In turn the citizen and consumer have their ready vaccine their firewall
