Perth and Suburbs ,1979 Geographies of Australian Heritages Roy Jones,Brian J. Shaw,2017-11-30 In any settler and or postcolonial society heritage is a complex and contested topic that involves indigenous imperial and other migrant components In Australia this situation is compounded by the unique characteristics of the country s natural environment the considerable diversity of its migrant intake and the demographic and technological imbalances between its indigenous and settler populations This volume brings together internationally recognized academics and emerging scholars whose expertise extends through the areas of tourism planning heritage management environmental studies and state and local government Through a representative set of case studies from across the country s states and capital cities the contributors demonstrate the range and diversity of heritage issues currently confronting Australia and consider possible ways of resolving these
