Two Cultures of Policing John Leo,2017-09-08 The emergence and functioning of two competing and sometimes conflicting cultures within police departments demonstrates how competition between street cops and bosses is at the heart of the organizational dilemma of modern urban policing Unlike other works in this field that focus on the monolithic culture or familial quality of policing this study demonstrates that which might look cohesive from the point of view of outsiders has its own internal dynamics and conflicts The book shows that police departments are not immune to the conflict inherent in any large scale bureaucracy when externally imposed management schemes for increasing efficiency and effectiveness are imposed on an existing social organization Based upon two years of extensive field work in which the author covered every major aspect of policing at the precinct level in the New York City police department from manning the complaint desk to riding in squad cars Ianni shows how the organized structure of the police department is disintegrating The new Management Cop Culture is bureaucratically juxtaposed to the precinct level Street Cop Culture and bosses loyalties to the social and political networks of management cops rather than to the men on the street causes a sharp division with grave consequences for the departments The study concentrates on a series of dramatic events such as the suicide of a police officer charged with corruption a major riot and the trial of an officer accused of killing a prisoner while in police custody Ianni traces how these events affected relationships among fellow officers and between officers and bosses BIS-HSS 2020 Muji Setiyo,Zulfikar Bagus Pambuko,Chrisna Bagus Edhita Praja,Agus Setiawan,Veni Soraya Dewi,Fitriana Yuliasuti,Nurul Purborini,Pensri Jaroenwanit ,Reno Ardian Syaputra,2021-09-27 The Covid 19 pandemic has changed our activities like teaching researching and socializing We are confused because we haven t experienced before However as Earth s smartest inhabitants we can adapt new ways to survive the pandemic without losing enthusiasm Therefore even in pandemic conditions we can still have scientific discussions even virtually The main theme of this symposium is Reinforcement of the Sustainable Development Goals Post Pandemic as a part of the masterplan of United Nations for sustainable development goals in 2030 This symposium is attended by 348 presenters from Indonesia Malaysia UK Scotland Thailand Taiwan Tanzania and Timor Leste which published 202 papers Furthermore we are delighted to introduce the proceedings of the 2nd Borobudur Symposium Borobudur on Humanities and Social Sciences 2020 2nd BIS HSS 2020 We hope our later discussion may result transfer of experiences and research findings from participants to others and from keynote speakers to participants Also we hope this event can create further research network Policing in Hong Kong Kam C. Wong,2015-03-06 The HKP Hong Kong Police Asia s Finest is a battle tested professional organization with strong leadership competent staff and deep culture It is also a continuously learning and reforming agency in pursuit of organisational excellence Policing in Hong Kong History and Reform is the first and only book on the development of the Hong Kong Policing Shanghai, 1927-1937 Frederic Wakeman Jr.,1995-02-17 Prewar Shanghai casinos brothels Green Gang racketeers narcotics syndicates gun runners underground Communist assassins Comintern secret agents Frederic Wakeman s masterful study of the most colorful and corrupt city in the world at the time provides a panoramic view of the confrontation and collaboration between the Nationalist secret police and the Shanghai underworld In detailing the life and politics of China s largest urban center during the Guomindang era Wakeman covers an array of topics the puritanical social controls implemented by the police the regional differences that surfaced among Shanghai s Chinese the influence of imperialism and Western trained officials Parts of this book read like a spy novel with secret police torture assassination and power struggles among the French International Settlement and Japanese consular police within Shanghai Chiang Kai shek wanted to prove that the Chinese could rule Shanghai and the country by themselves rather than be exploited and dominated by foreign powers His efforts to reclaim the crime ridden city failed partly because of the outbreak of war with Japan in 1937 but also because the Nationalist police force was itself corrupted by the city Wakeman s exhaustively researched study is a major contribution to the study of the Nationalist regime and to modern Chinese urban history It also shows that twentieth century China has not been characterized by discontinuity because autocratic government whether Nationalist or Communist has prevailed The Policing of Terrorism Mathieu Deflem, 2010-02-10 This book offers an analysis of the policing of terrorism in a variety of national and international contexts Centered on developments since the events of September 11 2001 the study devotes its empirical attention to important police aspects of counter terrorism in the United States and additionally extends its range comparatively to other nations including Israel and Iraq and to the global level of international police organizations such as Interpol and Europol Situated in the criminology of terrorism and counter terrorism this book offers a fascinating look into the contemporary organization of law enforcement against terrorism which will significantly influence the conditions of global security in the foreseeable future how they are changing the role of the police supervisor Used nationwide for police promotional exams Comparative Policing Issues R. I. Mawby, 2023-03-31 Originally published in 1990 Comparative Policing Issues was the first introductory text to consider key issues in the policing of modern societies from an international comparative perspective The author begins with a discussion of policing itself and considers how the modern police force has emerged Separate sections then focus on France and the Netherlands as examples of Western European societies Canada and Hong Kong as influenced by the colonial tradition Japan as an Eastern capitalist society and the USSR China and Cuba as contrasting examples of communist police systems These and other countries are then considered in terms of the relationship between the police and the communities they serve Critical issues addressed include the following Are communist and capitalist systems of policing significantly different What lessons are to be learnt from Japan with its low crime rate How accountable are the police in different societies and to whom To what extent is the character of the police in any society determined by the wider culture and social and political structure of that society How practicable is it to transfer ideas about policing from one society to another The lowering of barriers within the European community and the return of Hong Kong to China are just two examples of the need for a comparative analysis of policing Students of criminology and police studies and police and others working in the criminal justice system will find this book an invaluable resource
