An examination of the impact of victimization on those who are victimized their response to the crimes and the services needed for crime victims It looks at the traditional victims women and children as well as some usually neglected groups such as victims of abuse of power and state terrorism Victims of Crime ,1981 The Countess Rudolstadt George Sand,1891 The Posthuman Condition in 21st Century Literature and Culture María Ferrández-Sanmiguel,Esther Muñoz-González,Carmen Laguarda-Bueno,2025-06-18 More than a decade after its first definitions critical posthumanism has become consolidated as a key discourse for the understanding of our contemporary state of being within what has been called the paradigm of posthumanity but also crucially as an ideology and a praxis that guides our engagements with the world around us This double dimension characterizes the contributions to this volume They resort to critical posthumanism in its most recent developments as a set of tools for critical and cultural analysis of our posthuman times as posthuman ist concerns manifest in our cultural products This volume studies the most recent evolutions in the field of critical posthumanism as represented in key novels and other screened popular cultural products produced in the first and second decades of the twenty first century Resorting to the analytical tools provided by critical posthumanist theory in cross disciplinary dialogue with other fields such as transhumanism feminist gender and queer theory vulnerability studies new materialism critical animal studies and environmental theory the scholars whose work this volume showcases bear witness to how literature and popular culture have been influenced and impressed by posthumanism Chapters 1 5 7 8 and 12 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via Springerlink The Properties of Violence Sandy Alexandre,2012-11-01 The Properties of Violence focuses on two connected issues representations of lynching in late nineteenth and twentieth century American photographs poetry and fiction and the effects of those representations Alexandre compellingly shows how putting representations of lynching in dialogue with the history of lynching uncovers the profound investment of African American literature as an enterprise that continually seeks to create conceptual spaces for the disenfranchised culture it represents in matters of property and territory Through studies ranging from lynching photographs to Toni Morrison s Pulitzer Prize winning novel Beloved the book demonstrates how representations of lynching demand that we engage and discuss various forms of possession and dispossession The multiple meanings of the word representation are familiar to literary critics but Alexandre s book insists that its other key term effects also needs to be understood in both of its primary senses On the one hand it indicates the social and cultural repercussions of how lynching was portrayed namely what effects its representations had On the other hand the word signals too the possessions or what we might call the personal effects conjured up by these representations These possessions were not only material as for example property in land or the things one owned The effects of representation also included diverse less tangible but no less real possessions shared by individuals and groups the aura of a lynching site the ideological construction of white womanhood or the seemingly default capacity of lynching iconography to encapsulate the history of ostensibly all forms of violence against black people
