Red Tears War Famine And Revolution In Ethiopia:

Red Tears Dawit W. Giorgis, 1989-01-01 The Ethiopian Revolution 1974-1987 Andargachew Tiruneh, 1993-04-08 This book is a comprehensive account of the Ethiopian revolution dealing with the entire span of the revolutionary government's life. Particular emphasis is placed on effectively isolating and articulating the causes and outcomes of the revolution. The author traces the revolution's roots in the weaknesses of the autocratic regime of Haile Selassie, examines the formative years of the revolution in the mid-seventies when the ideology of scientific socialism was espoused by the ruling military council, and finally charts the consolidation of Mengistu Haile Miriam's power from 1977 to the adoption of a new constitution in 1987. In examining these events, Dr. Tiruneh makes extensive use of primary sources written in the national official language. He was also the first Ethiopian nation to write a book on this subject. This book is thus a unique account of a fascinating period capturing the mood of the revolution as never before yet firmly grounded in scholarship.

In This Land of Plenty Benjamin Talton, 2019-07-26 On August 7, 1989, Congressman Mickey Leland departed on a flight from Addis Ababa with his thirteen-member delegation of Ethiopian and American relief workers and policy analysts bound for Ethiopia's border with Sudan. This was Leland's seventh official humanitarian mission in his nearly decade-long drive to transform U.S. policies toward Africa to conform to his black internationalist vision of global cooperation, antiracism, and freedom from hunger. Leland's flight never arrived at its destination. The plane crashed with no survivors. When Leland embarked on that delegation, he was a forty-four-year-old deeply charismatic, fiercely compassionate black radical American. He was also an elected Democratic representative of Houston's largely African American and Latino Eighteenth Congressional District. Above all, he was a self-proclaimed citizen of humanity. Throughout the 1980s, Leland and a small group of former radical activist African American colleagues inside and outside Congress exerted outsized influence to elevate Africa's significance in American foreign affairs and to move the United States from its Cold War orientation toward a foreign policy devoted to humanitarianism, antiracism, and moral leadership. Their internationalism defined a new era of black political engagement with Africa. In This Land of Plenty presents Leland as the embodiment of larger currents in African American politics at the end of the twentieth century. But a sober look at his aspirations shows the successes and shortcomings of domestic radicalism and aspirations of politically neutral humanitarianism during the 1980s and the extent to which the decade was a major turning point in U.S. relations with the African continent. Exploring the links between political activism, electoral politics, and international affairs, Benjamin Talton not only details Leland's political career but also examines African Americans' successes and failures in influencing U.S. foreign policy toward African and other Global South countries.

Scott,2017-07-05 Little Ethiopia of the Pacific Northwest tells the story of the Ethiopian community in Seattle The community began with approximately two dozen college students who came to the city during the Ethiopian revolution of 1974 These sojourning students earned college and university degrees but were unable to return home to use them to modernize the developing nation These stranded students became pioneers who built a micro community in inner city Seattle Providing background with an analysis of Seattle s geographic demographic social and economic challenges this volume studies the students who became asylum seekers their falls in position power prestige and the income of these elite and non elite settlers The authors analyze examples of those who became entrepreneurs and the ingenuity and determination they employed to start successful businesses The authors examine the challenges imposed on them by a school system that assigned their children to grade levels according to age rather than knowledge They explore how the American welfare system worked in practice and explain how and why Ethiopians die young in Seattle This fascinating study will be of interest to sociologists ethnographers and regional analysts Historical Dictionary of Eritrea Dan Connell,2019-07-15 In 1991 Eritrea won a 30 year war for independence from Ethiopia and in 1993 it was recognized as Africa s newest nation after more than a century of conquest and occupation by a succession of external powers that included the Ottomans Egypt Italy Great Britain and Ethiopia Each had left its mark while fostering a deep distrust of outsiders and a fierce commitment to Eritrea s separate political identity Eritrea and Ethiopia slipped into a chronic state of no peace no war that kept the entire Horn of Africa off balance for nearly two decades the standoff ended in 2018 when a newly installed Ethiopian prime minister reached out to Eritrea and set in motion a rapid fire series of talks among the states of the African Horn that broke down long standing barriers and raised hopes for a new era of regional peace and cooperation This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Eritrea contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Eritrea The Human Cost of African Migrations Toyin Falola,Niyi Afolabi,2007-11-13 In an era of globalization population growth and displacements migration is now a fact of life in a constantly shifting economic and political world order This book contributes to the discourse on the beneficiaries benefactors and the casualties of African displacement While the few existing studies have emphasized economic motivation as the primary factor triggering African migration this volume treats a range of issues economic socio political pedagogical developmental and cultural Organized with a multidisciplinary thrust in mind this book argues that any discussion of African migration whether internal or external must be conceived as only one aspect of a more complex organic and global patterning of flux and reflux necessitated by constantly shifting dynamics of world socio economic cultural and political order

Insurgent Fragmentation in the Horn of Africa Michael Woldemariam, 2018-02-15 When insurgent organizations factionalize and fragment it can profoundly shape a civil war its intensity outcome and duration In this extended treatment of this complex and important phenomenon Michael Woldemariam examines why rebel organizations fragment through a unique historical analysis of the Horn of Africa s civil wars Central to his view is that rebel factionalism is conditioned by battlefield developments While fragmentation is caused by territorial gains and losses counter intuitively territorial stalemate tends to promote rebel cohesion and is a critical basis for cooperation in war As a rare effort to examine these issues in the context of the Horn of Africa region based upon extensive fieldwork this book will interest both scholarly and non scholarly audiences interested in insurgent groups and conflict dynamics Crimes against Humanity in the 21st Century Robert Dubler SC, Matthew Kalyk, 2018-07-23 In Crimes Against Humanity in the 21st Century Dr Robert Dubler SC and Matthew Kalyk provide a comprehensive analysis of crimes against humanity in international criminal law. The text tracks the crime from its conceptual origins in antiquity to its emergence in customary international law at Nuremberg to the establishment of the modern definition at the Hague with the ICTY, ICTR and ICC and finally to recent state practice and jurisprudence. The text sets out conclusions about the legal elements of the crime and contends that the raison d'être of the crime is located not in the inhumanity of its authors' actions but in the extent to which its authors threaten international peace and security so as to justify international intervention. With a foreword by Geoffrey Robertson QC.
