Davey, 2013-11-19 No book is more central to the study of nineteenth century American literature than Herman Melville's Moby Dick or The Whale First published in 1851 it still speaks powerfully to readers today Combining reprinted documents with clear introductions for student readers this volume examines the contexts of and critical responses to Melville's work It draws together an introduction to the contexts in which Melville was writing and relevant contextual documents including letters chronology of key facts and dates critical history and extracts from early reviews and modern criticism fully annotated key passages from the novel a list of biblical allusions an annotated guide to further reading Extensive cross references link contextual information critical materials and passages from the novel providing a wide ranging view of the work and ensuring a successful and enjoyable encounter with the world of Moby Dick Now & Then, 1927 Honoring the Civil War Dead John R. Neff, 2005 In his estimation Northerners were just as active as Southerners in myth making after the war Crafting a Cause Victorious myth that was every bit as resonant and powerful as the much better known Lost Cause myth cherished by Southerners the North asserted through commemorations the existence of a loyal and reunified nation long before it was actually a fact Neff reveals that as Northerners and Southerners honored their separate dead they did so in ways that underscore the limits of reconciliation between Union and Confederate veterans whose mutual animosities lingered for many decades after the end of the war Ultimately Neff argues that the process of reunion and reconciliation that has been so much the focus of recent literature either neglects or dismisses the persistent reluctance of both Northerners and Southerners to forgive and forget especially where their dead were concerned American Poetry and Prose Norman Foerster, Robert Morss Lovett, 1925

Spontaneity and Form in Modern Prose Vidyan Ravinthiran, 2022-12-01 This study analyzes post Romantic prose whose authors in terms of race gender class nationality and more occupy a range of subject positions Unlike poetry modern literary prose has no rhetorical repertoire or structure beyond those of grammar that one could tabulate As a result it becomes a zone of experimentation and spontaneous creativity as well as a means to investigate the concept of spontaneity understood as post secular Heeding separate histories and peculiar particularities this volume reveals writers discovering their ideas as they go in prose whose sound rhythm syntax and imagery escapes the preordained There are chapters on William Hazlitt Ralph Waldo Emerson and Walt Whitman and Hindu philosophy Gerard Manley Hopkins Herman Melville D H Lawrence and Saul Bellow Virginia Woolf and Marion Milner Gwendolyn Brooks Adil Jussawalla and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie These writers are intelligently vexed by two transitions first the movement from impulse into form and second the overlap between literary forms and social forms They explore the yearning for renovated societies which expressive of our deepest selves would also enable those selves in times of panicked fragmentation moral relativism and communication imperiled to interact as citizens
