The historical nature of man is the aspect of reality about which we have been basically and emphatically instructed in the epoch of thought beginning with Hegel Rosenstock-Huessy has concretized this teaching in so living a way as no other teacher before him has done Martin Buber Rosenstock-Huessy continually astonishes one by his dazzling and unique insights WH Auden He was a thinker of startling power and originality in my view an authentic genius of whom no age produces more than a handful Page Smith Rosenstock-Huessy's is a powerful and original mind What is most important in his work is the understanding of the relevance of traditional value to a civilization still undergoing revolutionary transformations and this contribution will gain rather than lose significance in the future Lewis Mumford About the Contributor's Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy 1888-1973 was a sociologist and social philosopher who along with his close friend Franz Rosenzweig and Ferdinand Ebner and Martin Buber was a major exponent of speech thinking or dialogicism The central insight of speech thinking is that speech or language is not merely or even primarily a descriptive act but a responsive and creative act which is the basis of our social existence The greater part of Rosenstock-Huessy's work was devoted to demonstrating how speech language through its unpredictable fecundity expands our powers and through its inescapably historical forming character also binds them Born in Berlin Germany into a non-observant Jewish family he converted to Christianity in his late teens He met and married Margrit Hussy in 1914 Rosenstock-Huessy served as an officer in the German army during World War I He then pursued an academic career in Germany as a specialist in medieval law which was disrupted by the rise of Nazism In 1933

after Adolf Hitler became Chancellor of Germany he immigrated to the United States where he began a new academic career initially at Harvard University and then at Dartmouth College where he taught from 1935 to 1957 A History of The New Thought Movement Horatio W.
