Reducing the Risks for Substance Abuse Raymond P. Daugherty, 1998-08-31 Authors Raymond P Daugherty and Carl Leukefeld argue for replacing the youth based zero tolerance approach to substance abuse prevention that has been dominant in the field over the past two decades Their dynamic alternative is the Lifestyle Risk Reduction Model which revises standard prevention strategies to make them relevant throughout the entire life span Features of this revolutionary new paradigm include Five Principles of Lifestyle Risk Reduction LRR Five Conditions of Effective LRR and the LLR Formulas

Reducing the Risks for Substance Abuse Raymond P. Daugherty, 2013-03-08 Authors Raymond P Daugherty and Carl Leukefeld argue for replacing the youth based zero tolerance approach to substance abuse prevention that has been dominant in the field over the past two decades Their dynamic alternative is the Lifestyle Risk Reduction Model which revises standard prevention strategies to make them relevant throughout the entire life span Features of this revolutionary new paradigm include Five Principles of Lifestyle Risk Reduction LRR Five Conditions of Effective LRR and the LLR Formulas

Behavioral Therapy for Rural Substance Abusers Carl Leukefeld, Cynthia Brown, James Clark, Theodore Godlaski, Widely regarded as a turning point in American independent cinema Steven Soderbergh's sex lies and videotape 1989 launched the career of its twenty six year old director whose debut film was nominated for an Academy Award and went on to win the Cannes Film Festival's top award the Palme d'Or The Philosophy of Steven Soderbergh breaks new ground by investigating salient philosophical themes through the unique story lines and innovative approaches to filmmaking that distinguish this celebrated artist Editors R Barton Palmer and Steven M Sanders have brought together leading scholars in philosophy and film studies for the first systematic analysis of Soderbergh's entire body of work offering the first in depth exploration of the philosophical ideas that form the basis of the work of one of the most commercially successful and consistently inventive filmmakers of our time

Handbook of Psychological Services for Children and Adolescents Jan N. Hughes,Annette M. La Greca,Jane Close Conoley,2001-01-11 This handbook provides a comprehensive discussion of the key elements which should be part of any successful program tailored to the needs of children with diagnosable mental behavioral or emotional disorders The overall goal of the book is to provide an overview of the psychological services available to children and adolescents in school and community settings The book is divided into five parts Framing the Issues Delivering Psychological Services in Diverse Settings Preventive Interventions Treatments with Specific Populations and System Level Consultation Settings Preventive Interventions Here's Proof Prevention Works Center for Substance Abuse Prevention (U.S.),1999 High-Risk Sexual Behavior Evvie Becker,Elizabeth Rankin,Annette U. Rickel,2013-06-29 High risk sexual behavior has been linked to social problems such as substance abuse domestic violence homelessness and deprivation This volume s unique multidisciplinary biopsychosocial approach combines relevant medical information regarding disease states with the cultural social and psychological facets of successful prevention programs Becker and Rankin outline specific interventions that address the needs of particularly vulnerable populations women ethnic minorities and the gay community Useful chapter summaries which review the pros and cons of different approaches will aid both the student and the practitioner Stopping

Domestic Violence Pamela J. Jenkins,Barbara Parmer Davidson,2012-12-06 In the field of domestic violence community collaboration has been an essential part of both prevention and intervention However there have been vast differences in perspective methodology understanding interpretations and concerns among the various partners This volume examines models of collaboration between personnel in social service agencies women s centers domestic violence programs medical and mental health settings and law enforcement Techniques are detailed that allow knowledge about domestic violence and primary prevention to be integrated into a community response by all those involved Further the authors describe in detail how the possibilities for communities to respond to domestic violence victims is based on how these various groups perceive the victim how an individual agency personally responds and how it is possible to provide safety for women in their own homes and communities Stopping Domestic Violence How a Community Can Prevent Spousal Abuse is an excellent resource for educators social workers public health professionals clinicians medical and mental health professionals and law enforcement personnel

Encyclopedia of Primary Prevention and Health Promotion Thomas P. Gullotta, Martin Bloom, 2003-01-31 Foundational topics such as history ethics and principles of primary prevention as well as specific issues such as consultation political issues and financing The second section addresses such topics as abuse depression eating disorders HIV AIDS injuries and religion and spirituality often dividing such topics into separate entries addressing childhood adolescence and adulthood

Promoting Nonviolence in Early Adolescence Aleta L. Meyer, Albert Farrell, Wendy Northup, Eva Kung, Laura Plybon, 2012-12-06 In preparation for role play during a RIPP class 6th grade students consider the following conflict situation Sharon and Josie who are good friends tryout for the basketball team Josie makes the team but Sharon does not The week after tryouts Sharon tries to pick a fight with Josie calling her a cheater and some one the coach felt sorry for Josie is in a bind she wants to remain friends with Sharon but she is really angry with Sharon for treating her so badly What can Josie do in this situation What type of self talk will help her work out this problem with Sharon and keep the friendship During the role play Sharon calls Josie a cheater Then before Josie responds two students representing her positive and negative sides take turns whispering into her ear Negative self talk Boy is she a loser What if everyone believes her and thinks that I cheated to get on the team Positive self talk I know I worked hard to get on the team Sharon must really be hurt that she didn't make it I can talk to her later when she's cooled down and maybe we can do something together after practice Josie listens to the two voices and decides that the best approach is to ignore Sharon's comments for now and to call her later that day to see if they can do something together This description of students dealing with everyday conflicts is quite real

Building Healthy Individuals, Families, and Communities Ted N. Strader, David A. Collins, Tim D. Noe, 2012-12-06 Youth have nearly always exhibited behaviors that frustrate adults It can be difficult to understand why young people engage in risky or destructive behavior and it is challenging to develop strategies to encourage more healthy and responsible behavior among our youth However it is helpful to realize that despite the fact that large numbers of youth engage in frightful and destructive behaviors for periods of time during adolescence and early adulthood a large proportion of youth find a way not only to survive but also to bounce back and contribute significantly to the furtherance of human development We are not the first generation of adults to experience the pain fear and frustration of dealing with our youth More important we recognize that we are not helpless when faced with the problems youth experience While it is true that adolescents have always exhibited problem behaviors a number of effective tools and approaches have always been at our disposal to assist with appropriate youth development Of course the most effective approaches require a tremendous amount of focused time and energy

blame for the difficulties facing youth is too often laid on one particular segment of the community whether parents school personnel or the children themselves However the problems of today s young people are problems for all generations In response the past decade has seen unparalleled proliferation of planned mentoring initiatives Across Ages the multi faceted and multigenerational intervention described in this volume uses older adult volunteers as mentors for young people By acting as advocates challengers nurturers role models and friends older mentors help children develop the awareness self confidence and skills they need to overcome overwhelming obstacles Across Ages is cost effective and feasible even where resources are fairly limited Although designed as a school based model this program can easily be adopted to other settings Each of the four major program components mentoring community service life skills instruction and family support is described in step by step detail

Prevention of Substance Abuse Problems ,1996 Success Stories as Hard Data: An Introduction to Results Mapping Barry M. Kibel,1999-05-31 This volume presents the first comprehensive introduction to Results Mapping an innovative story based approach for assessing the worth of social health and educational programs Unlike most forms of evaluation that are number driven results mapping is story based Program staff are challenged to relate their most successful work with clients in structured formats that in turn are translated into outcome scores and related program measures An invaluable tool for professionals researchers and students who need to demonstrate outcomes for complex and difficult to evaluate programs
