American studies Most entries are of 1500 words but the encyclopedia also includes survey articles of up to 10 000 words on the literature of individual countries of the colonial period and of ethnic minorities including the Hispanic communities in the United States Besides presenting and illuminating the traditional canon the encyclopedia also stresses the contribution made by women authors and by contemporary writers Outstanding Reference Source Outstanding Reference Book Reality in Movement Maarten van Delden,2021-03-15 In the last couple of decades there has been a surge of interest in Octavio Paz s life and work and a number of important books have been published on Paz However most of these books are of a biographical nature or they examine Paz s role in the various intellectual initiatives he headed in Mexico specifically the journals he founded Reality in Movement looks at a wide range of topics of interest in Paz s career including his engagement with the subversive adversary strain in Western culture his meditations on questions of cultural identity and intercultural contact his dialogue with both leftist and conservative ideological traditions his interest in feminism and psychoanalysis and his theory of poetry It concludes with a chapter on Octavio Paz as a literary character a kind of reception study Offering a complex and nuanced portrait of Paz as a writer and thinker as well as an understanding of the era in which he lived Reality in Movement will appeal to students of Octavio Paz and of Mexican literature more generally and to readers with an interest in the many significant literary cultural political and historical topics Paz wrote about over the course of his long career

Biron,2012-12-15 Elena Garro and Mexico s Modern Dreams uses Elena Garro s eccentric life and work as a lens through which to examine mid twentieth century Mexican intellectuals desire to reconcile mexicanidad with modernidad The famously scandalous first wife of Nobel Prize winner poet Octavio Paz and an award winning author in her own right Garro constructed a mysterious and often contradictory persona through her very public participation in Mexican political conflicts Herself an anxious and contentious Mexican writer Elena Garro elicited profound political and aesthetic anxiety in her Mexican readers She confused the personal and the public in her creative fictions as well as in her vision of Mexican modernity This violation of key distinctions rendered her largely illegible to her contemporaries That illegibility serves as a symptom of unacknowledged desires that motivate twentieth century views of national modernity Taken together Garro s public persona and critical perspective expose the anxieties regarding ethnicity gender economic class and professional identity that define Mexican modernity Blending cultural studies and detailed literary analysis with political and intellectual history Mexico s Modern Dreams argues that in addition to the intriguing gossip she elicited in literary and political circles Garro produced a radical critique of Mexican modernity Her critique applies as well to the nation's twenty-first century crisis of globalization state power and pervasive violence Cuentos completos Elena Garro, 2016-03-11 Este volumen compila la narrativa cuentística completa de Elena Garro incluyendo dos piezas inéditas con prólogo de Geney Beltrán La obra de Elena Garro es fundamental para las letras mexicanas e hispanoamericanas su narrativa introdujo nuevas maneras de concebir el tiempo dentro del relato sus historias tan fantásticas como verosímiles introdujeron en la literatura la cosmovisión de los pueblos de provincia y del imaginario campesino e indígena Este volumen compila la narrativa cuentística completa de Elena Garro incluyendo dos piezas inéditas con prólogo de Geney Beltrán Este libro contiene los volúmenes La semana de colores 1964 Andamos huyendo Lola 1980 El accidente y otros cuentos inéditos 1997 y La vida empieza a las tres 1997 así como los cuentos inéditos Amor y paz y Lago Mayor Otros autores han opinado Elena es un ícono un mito una mujer fuera de serie Elena Poniatowska La literatura era una antes de Elena Garro y otra después Emmanuel Carballo Dictionary of Mexican Literature Eladio Cortés, 1992-11-24 This volume features approximately 600 entries that represent the major writers literary schools and cultural movements in the history of Mexican literature A collaborative effort by American Mexican and Hispanic scholars the text contains bibliographical biographical and critical material placing each work cited within its cultural and historical framework Intended to enrich the English speaking public's appreciation of the rich diversity of Mexican literature works are selected on the basis of their contribution toward an understanding of this unique artistry The dictionary contains entries keyed by author and works the length of each entry determined by the relative significance of the writer or movement being discussed Each biographical entry identifies the author's literary contribution by including facts about his or her life and works a chronological list of works a supplementary bibliography and when appropriate critical notes Authors are listed alphabetically and cross referenced both within the text and the index to facilitate easy access to information Selected bibliographical entries are also listed alphabetically by author and include both the original title and English translation publisher date and place of publication and number of pages Paris and the Marginalized Author Valérie K. Orlando, Pamela A. Pears, 2018-10-15 This volume of essays explores what it is that has brought marginalized and often exiled writers seen as treacherous alienated and or queer by their societies and nations together by way of Paris Spanning from the interwar period of the late 1920s to the present millennium this volume considers many seminal questions that have influenced and continue to shape the realm of exiled writers who have sought refuge in Paris in order to write Additionally the volume's essays seek to define alienation and marginalization as not solely subscribing to any single denominator sexual preference gender or nationality but rather as shared modes of being that allow authors to explore what it is to write from abroad in a place that is foreign yet freed of the constrictions of one's home space What makes Paris a particularly fruitful space that has allowed these authors and their writings to cross national ethnic racial religious and linguistic boundaries for over a century What is it that brings together

writers such as Moroccan Abdellah Taïa Americans James Baldwin Richard Wright and most recently Ta Nehisi Coates and Shay Youngblood Algerian Nabila Farès Franco Algerian Leïla Sebbar Canadian Nancy Huston French Jean Genet and French Vietnamese Linda Lê How do their representations and understanding of transgression and marginalization transcend national linguistic and ethnic boundaries leading ultimately to revolution both literary and literal How does their writing help us to trace the history of Paris as a literary and artistic capital that has been useful for authors exploration of the Self race and home country These are but a few of the many questions explored in this volume This book relies on an inherently intersectional approach which is not based in reified identities whether they be LGBT postcolonial ethnic national or linguistic Instead we posit that for example queer theory and a politics of difference i can help us investigate the dynamics of these multiple identity positions and hence provide a broader understanding of the lived experiences of these writers and perhaps their readers from the early 1940s to the present
