The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S. Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Preserving Armenia s rich literary tradition from a multitude of viewpoints has been the aim of this three volume work This third volume joins the previous two in making excerpts of Armenian masterpieces accessible in beautifully rendered English translations while enabling readers to enjoy the immediacy of these works through lively discussions of the authors and their times Here the focus is on the eighteenth through twentieth centuries The volume begins with a comprehensive overview of the entire historical social and literary panorama of the periods covered the Armenian Renaissance the development of modern Armenian with its Western and Eastern versions the emergence of a national identity and democratic thinking with their impact on literature and theater and such literary schools as Romanticism Realism and Aestheticism Biographies of more than 130 prominent authors appear in these pages together with critical comments concerning their works and extensive excerpts from the works themselves The texts are edited annotated with footnotes and presented in a format that permits easy comprehension Literature unveils a rich pageant of works in historical perspective The varied experiences from the Armenian past come alive allowing for new understandings and comparisons to literatures of other nations

Stateless Talar Chahinian, 2023-02-20 In Stateless Talar Chahinian offers a rich exploration of Western Armenian literary history in the wake of the 1915 genocide that led to the dispersion of Armenians across Europe North America the Middle East and beyond Chahinian highlights two specific time periods post WW I Paris and Post WW II Beirut to trace the ways in which literature developed in each diaspora In Paris a literary movement known as Menk addressed the horrors they experienced and focused on creating a new literary aesthetic centered on belonging while in exile In Beirut Chahinian shows how the literature was nationalized in the absence of state institutions Armenian intellectuals constructed a unified and coherent narrative of the diaspora that returned to the pre 1915 literary tradition and excluded the Menk generation Chahinian argues that the adoption of national as the literature s organizing logic ultimately limited its vitality and longevity as it ignored the diverse composition of diaspora communities

The Armenian Woman, Minoritarian Agency, and the Making of Iranian Modernity, 1860-1979 Talinn Grigor

Grigor, Houri Berberian, 2025-03-04 With this book Houri Berberian and Talinn Grigor offer the first history of Armenian women in modern Iran. Foregrounding the work of Armenian women's organizations, the authors trace minoritarian politics and the shifting relationships among doubly minoritized Armenian female subjects, Iran's central nodes of power, and the Irano-Armenian patriarchal institutions of church and political parties. Engaging broader considerations around modernization, nationalism, and feminism, this book makes a conceptually rich contribution to how we think about the history of women and minoritized peoples. Berberian and Grigor read archival, textual, visual, and oral history sources together and against one another to challenge conventional notions of the archive and transform silences and absences into audible and visual presences. Understanding minoritarian politics as formulated by women through their various forms of public and intellectual activism, this book provides a groundbreaking intervention in Iran's history of modernization, Armenian diasporic history, and Iranian and Armenian feminist historiography.

Christian-Muslim Relations. A Bibliographical History. Volume 10 Ottoman and Safavid Empires (1600-1700), 2017-10-23 Christian Muslim Relations: A Bibliographical History, Volume 10, CMR 10, covering the Ottoman and Safavid Empires in the period 1600-1700, is a further volume in a general history of relations between the two faiths from the seventh century to the early 20th century. It comprises a series of introductory essays and also the main body of detailed entries which treat all the works surviving or lost that have been recorded. These entries provide biographical details of the authors, descriptions and assessments of the works themselves, and complete accounts of manuscripts, editions, translations, and studies. The result of collaboration between numerous leading scholars, CMR 10, along with the other volumes in this series, is intended as a basic tool for research in Christian-Muslim relations.

Section Editors: Clinton Bennett, Luis F. Bernabé, Pons Jaco Beyers, Karoline Cook, Lejla Demiri, Martha Frederiks, David D. Grafton, Stanisław Grodzki, Alan Guenther, Emma Loghin, Gordon Nickel, Claire Norton, Reza Pourjavady, Douglas Pratt, Radu Păun, Peter Riddell, Umar Ryad, Mehdi Sajid, Cornelia Soldat, Karel Steenbrink, Davide Tacchini, Ann Thomson, Carsten Walbinder.

Istanbul - Kushta - Constantinople, Christoph Herzog, Richard Wittmann, 2018-10-10 Istanbul Kushta Constantinople presents twelve studies that draw on contemporary life narratives that shed light on little explored aspects of nineteenth-century Ottoman Istanbul. As a broad category of personal writing that goes beyond the traditional confines of the autobiography, life narratives range from memoirs, letters, reports, travelogues, and descriptions of daily life in the city and its different neighborhoods. By focusing on individual experiences and perspectives, life narratives allow the historian to transcend rigid political narratives and to recover lost voices, especially of those underrepresented groups including women and members of non-Muslim communities. The studies of this volume focus on a variety of narratives produced by Muslim and Christian women, by non-Muslims and Muslims, as well as by natives and outsiders alike. They dispel European Orientalist stereotypes and cross class divides and ethnic identities Travel accounts of outsiders provide us with valuable observations of daily life in the city that residents often overlooked

Cries and Whispers in Karamanlidika Books Evangelia Balta, Matthias Kappler, 2010 The Karamanlides are Greek Orthodox Christians originally located in Central Anatolia with Turkish as their primary language Cries and Whispers in Karamanlidika Books contains the papers presented at the First International Conference on Karamanlidika Studies Nicosia 11th 13th September 2008 Since the main problems of research in Karamanlidika are the lack of analytical studies the absence of scholarly exchange between researchers as well as the politicization and political manipulation of the subject the conference was intended to bring together specialists in the field to present papers dealing expressly with the phenomenon without political dilatation and expansion Being a first approach to the intricate subject the conference aimed to create a scientific platform for further research and cooperation between scholars Historians linguists and researchers in literature were asked to pose questions concerning the production of Karamanlidika printed works and manuscripts the reasons that determined this production its quantity and its quality as well as the subjects who produced and assimilated it

Routledge Handbook on Turkish Literature Didem Havlioğlu, Zeynep Uysal, 2023-04-10 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of Turkish literature within both a local and global context Across eight thematic sections a collection of subject experts use close readings of literature materials to provide a critical survey of the main issues and topics within the literature The chapters provide analysis on a wide range of genres and text types including novels poetry religious texts and drama with works studied ranging from the fourteenth century right up to the present day Using such a historic scope allows the volume to be read across cultures and time while simultaneously contextualizing and investigating how modern Turkish literature interacts with world literature and finds its place within it Collectively the authors challenge the national literary historiography by replacing the Ottoman Turkish literature in the Anatolian civilizations with its plurality of cultures They also seek to overcome the institutional and theoretical shortcomings within current study of such works suggesting new approaches and methods for the study of Turkish literature The Routledge Handbook on Turkish Literature marks a new departure in the reading and studying of Turkish literature It will be a vital resource for those studying literature Middle East studies Turkish and Ottoman history social sciences and political science

The Tsar's Armenians Onur Önel, 2017-05-30 In 1903 Tsar Nicholas II issued a decree allowing the confiscation of Armenian Church property marking the low point in relations between imperial Russia and its Armenian subjects Yet just over a decade later Russian Armenians were fully supportive of the Russian war effort Drawing on previously untouched archival material and a range of secondary sources published in English French Russian and Turkish this is the first English language study of this drastic change in relations in the Caucasus Onur Onol explains how and why the shift took place by looking in detail at the imperial Russian authorities and their relationship with the three pillars of the Russian Armenian community the Armenian Church the Armenian bourgeoisie and the Armenian Revolutionary Federation Dashnaksutiun Onol places the evolution within a context of wider political questions such as the Russian revolutionary movement Russia's nationalities question Tsarist fears of pan Islamism the path to World War I and the influence of key characters in Russian policy making from Pyotr Stolypin to Illarion Vorontsov Dashkov This book fills a conspicuous void in the extant historiography and will be of interest to scholars working on Russian Armenian and Ottoman history

The Armenians Razmik Panossian, 2006-05-27 The Armenians traces the evolution of Armenia and Armenian collective identity from its beginnings to the Armenian nationalist movement over Gharabagh in 1988 Applying theories of national identity formation and nationalism

Razmik Panossian analyzes different elements of Armenian identity construction and argues that national identity is modern predominantly subjective and based on a political sense of belonging Yet he also acknowledges the crucial role of history art literature religious practice and commerce in preserving the national memory and shaping the cultural identity of the Armenian people Panossian explores a series of landmark events among them Armenians first attempts at liberation the Armenian renaissance of the nineteenth century the 1915 genocide of the Ottoman Armenians and Soviet occupation He shows how these influences led to a multilocal evolution of Armenian identity in various places in and outside of Armenia notably in diasporan communities from India to Venice Today these numerous identities contribute to deep divisions and tensions within the Armenian nation the most profound of which is the cultural divide between Armenians residing in their homeland and those who live in the United States Canada the Middle East and elsewhere Considering the diversity of this single nation Panossian questions the theoretical assumption that nationalism must be homogenizing Based on extensive research conducted in Armenia and the diaspora including interviews and translation of Armenian language sources The Armenians is an engaging history and an invaluable comparative study Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2014-12-17 This massive four volume work provides students with a close examination of 10 modern genocides enhanced by documents and introductions that provide additional historical and contemporary context for learning about and understanding these tragic events Modern Genocide The Definitive Resource and Document Collection spans nearly 1 700 pages presented in four volumes and includes more than 120 primary source documents making it ideal for high school and beginning college students studying modern genocide as part of a larger world history curriculum The coverage for each modern genocide from Herero to Darfur begins with an introductory essay that helps students conceptualize the conflict within an international context and enables them to better understand the complex role genocide has played in the modern world There are hundreds of entries on atrocities organizations individuals and other aspects of genocide each written to serve as a springboard to meaningful discussion and further research The coverage of each genocide includes an introductory overview an explanation of the causes consequences perpetrators victims and bystanders the international reaction a timeline of events an Analyze section that poses tough questions for readers to consider and provides scholarly pro and con responses to these historical conundrums and reference entries This integrated examination of genocides occurring in the modern era not only presents an unprecedented research tool on the subject but also challenges the readers to go back and examine other events historically and consequently consider important questions about human society in the present and the future Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression
