Reflection Of An Ordinary Person:

Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa, 2017-12-12 Geshe Sopa continues his elucidation of Lama Tsongkhapa's masterwork on the Buddhist path with an explanation of superior insight vipashyana or wisdom the pinnacle of the bodhisattva's perfections Reflection of Human Behaviour, The Experiential Dimension of Advaita Vedanta Arvind Sharma, 1993 The Experiential Dimension of Advaita Vedanta provides a clear concise and precise introduction to Advaita Vedanta on the basis of something more powerful than argument namely experience Reflections on Human Inquiry Nirmalangshu Mukherji, 2017-10-30 This original volume examines forms and limits of human inquiry from a largely sceptical point of view Human beings are endowed with cognitive agency Our grasp of the world and of ourselves are not merely responses to external stimuli they are reflective products of human inquiry At one point in human history it was thought that modern science especially theoretical physics is the paradigm of human inquiry Where does this form of inquiry significantly apply Are there limits on its claims of truth and objectivity How much of the vast canvas of human experience does it cover Where do other forms of inquiry such as philosophy religion and the arts attain their salience With the emergence of the scientific study of the human mind itself these critical questions have taken a more intriguing form in recent decades Can human inquiry investigate its own nature Can the scientific theory of language explain the richness of human expression Can a science of the mind account for human experience These probing questions on the scientific enterprise are usually addressed from the outside as it were by humanists and critical theorists In these essays they are examined from the inside by a philosopher whose primary academic work concerns the study of the human linguistic mind In that sense the sceptical inquiry turns on itself Balance and Refinement Michael R. DePaul, 2006-12-05 We all have moral beliefs But what if one belief conflicts with another DePaul argues that we have to make our beliefs cohere but that the current coherence methods are seriously flawed It is not just the arguments that need to be considered in moral enquiry DePaul asserts that the ability to make sensitive moral judgements is vital to any philosophical inquiry into morality The inquirer must consider how her life experiences and experiences with literature film and theatre have influenced her capacity for making moral judgments and attempt to ensure that this capacity is neither naive nor corrupted Reflections: January February March 2021 Sasvati Nome, 2021-01-01 REFLECTIONS is the SAT Temple's quarterly journal Reflections contains transcriptions of satsangs at SAT given by Nome the teachings of Sri Ramana Maharshi excerpts from numerous Advaitic scriptures updates on events occurring at the SAT Temple and much more Moral Psychology and Human Agency Justin D'Arms, Daniel Jacobson, 2014-11-06 These ten original essays examine the moral and philosophical implications of developments in the science of ethics the growing movement that seeks to use recent empirical findings to answer long standing ethical questions Efforts to make moral psychology a thoroughly empirical discipline have divided philosophers along methodological fault lines isolating discussions that will profit more from intellectual exchange This volume takes an even handed approach including essays from advocates of empirical ethics as well as those who are sceptical of some of its central claims Some of these essays make novel use of empirical findings to develop philosophical research programs regarding such crucial moral phenomena as desire emotion and memory Others bring new critical scrutiny to bear on some of the most influential proposals of the empirical ethics movement including the claim that evolution undermines moral realism the effort to recruit a dual process model of the mind to support consequentialism against other moral theories and the claim that ordinary evaluative judgments are seldom if ever sensitive to reasons because moral reasoning is merely the post hoc rationalization of unthinking emotional response

Aquinas F. Copleston,1991-07-25 Aquinas 1224 74 lived at a time when the Christian West was opening up to a wealth of Greek and Islamic philosophical speculation An embodiment of the thirteenth century ideal of a unified interpretation of reality in which philosophy and theology work together in harmony Aquinas was remarkable for the way in which he used and developed this legacy of ancient thought an achievement which led his contemporaries to regard him as an advanced thinker Father Copleston's lucid and stimulating book examines this extraordinary man whose influence is perhaps greater today than in his own lifetime and his thought relating his ideas wherever possible to problems as they are discussed today

Conspicuous and Inconspicuous Discriminations in Everyday Life Victor N. Shaw,2013-06-19 In everyday life people negotiate on issues entertain offers and counteroffers and gain or lose in terms of economic capital political power communal status and social influence Although life goes on in the form of compromise feelings of discrimination or misfortune haunt consciously or unconsciously in the minds of living individuals History continues in the spirit of forgiveness but residues of exploitation or injustice remain conspicuously or inconspicuously on the records of progressing civilizations This study follows an average everyday life to compare individuals with individuals individuals with organizations and organizations with organizations in their everyday interactions Through the eyes of the person conspicuous and inconspicuous discriminations by one against another whether individual or organizational are identified in different occasions on a typical day at home in the workplace in the community within the country around the world and throughout the course of life In the style of Socrates Plato Wittgenstein and other classical scholarship this study uses ordinary typical situations to demonstrate critical points reveal subtle connections and present important arguments It offers vivid examples for what social scientists strive to find the extraordinary from the ordinary the unfamiliar from the familiar the different from the similar and the significant from the trivial This study offers an opportunity for readers to reflect upon their social experiences and rethink and reshape their everyday acts and actions
