Reflection Principles And Practice For Healthcare Professionals:

Reflection: Principles and Practices for Healthcare Professionals 2nd Edition Tony Ghaye, Sue Lillyman, 2014-10-07 In this newly updated edition of the bestselling Reflections Principles and Practice for Healthcare Professionals the authors reinforce the need to invest in the development of reflective practice not only for practitioners but also for healthcare students. The book discusses the need for skilful facilitation, high quality mentoring and the necessity for good support networks. The book describes the 12 principles of reflection and the many ways it can be facilitated. It attempts to support with evidence the claims that reflection can be a catalyst for enhancing clinical competence, safe and accountable practice, professional self confidence, self regulation and the collective improvement of more considered and appropriate healthcare. Each principle is illustrated with examples from practice and clearly positioned within the professional literature. New chapters on appreciative reflection and the value of reflection for continuing professional development are included, making this an essential guide for all healthcare professionals. Reflection Tony Ghaye, 2000

Theory and Practice of Nursing Lynn Basford, Oliver Slevin, 2003 This is a comprehensive guide to the theory and practice of nursing, addressing the nursing theory and skills specific to clients and patients' needs. Each chapter has learning outcomes, study activities and reflection to prompt readers to learn as they read. Developing the Reflective Healthcare Team Tony Ghaye, 2008-04-15 Team working and learning through reflection are both fundamental to quality healthcare. This book is the first to explore the use of the practices of reflection to develop health care teams that can deliver sustainable, high quality, personalised care. Developing the Reflective Healthcare Team is structured in three parts which are about new views of reflective practice, improving team working and the use of the TA2LK facilitative reflective process to develop high performing teams. The Business Side of Learning Design and Technologies Shahron Williams van Rooij, 2017-09-22 The Business Side of Learning Design and Technologies provides a ready reference with actionable tools and techniques for recognizing the impact of learning design technology decisions at the project, business unit and organizational levels. Written for early and mid career learning designers and developers as well as students and researchers in instructional learning design and technology programs, this volume focuses on the business issues underlying the selection, design, implementation and evaluation of learning opportunities. Using scholarly and practitioner research, interviews with Learning and Development thought leaders and the author's own experience, readers will learn how to speak the language of business to demonstrate the value of learning design and technologies. Doing Practitioner Research Mark Fox, Gill Green, Peter Martin, 2007-03-21 Doing Practitioner Research focuses on helping practitioners conduct research in their own organisations and attention is given to the best methods for doing this effectively and sensitively. The authors also attend to the theoretical, political and organisational context of doing research as well as addressing the ethical and practical issues of undertaking research. The authors cover in detail the range of skills and techniques necessary to make a successful start to the process of becoming an effective

Foundations For Paramedic Practice: A Theoretical Perspective Blaber, Amanda, 2012-04-01 Foundations for Paramedic Practice Second

Edition provides an introduction to many of the subjects not traditionally taught in ambulance in house training such as psychology and sociology. It addresses the theoretical elements of paramedic courses in higher education and provides clear links to practice. The second edition features four new chapters on caring for vulnerable adults, end of life issues, theories of decision making and the scope of the paramedic role. It also provides increased coverage of portfolio writing, submission to HPC, decision making and includes more case studies. Contributors: Amanda Blaber, Vince Clarke, Alison Cork, Steve Cowland, John Donaghy, Rachael Donohoe, Bob Fellows, Ann French, Graham Harris, Mary Larkin, Linda Nelson, Marion Richardson, Paul Street and Jackie Whitnell.

The Interruption of Heteronormativity in Higher Education Michael Seal, 2019-07-29. This book examines how heteronormativity in higher education can be interrupted and resisted. Located within the theoretical framework of queer and critical pedagogy and based on extensive empirical research, the author explores the dynamics of heteronormativity and its interruption on professional courses in a range of higher education institutions. Reactions to attempt to interrupt it were nuanced while strategies of contested engagement, avoidance and retreat were expressed. Heterosexualities were largely unexamined and unarticulated. Coming out needs to be a pedagogical act carried out concurrently with the interruptions of other social constructions and binary oppositions. The author calls for co-created and co-held meta-reflexive and liminal spaces that emphasise intersubjectivity, encounters and working in the moment. These spaces must deconstruct and reconstruct pedagogical power and knowledge to promote collective intersubjective consciousnesses and widen the vision of the reflective practitioner to that of the pedagogical practitioner. This pioneering book is a call to action to all those concerned with interrupting and problematising presumed binary categories of sexuality within the heterosexual matrix.

Action Research for Nurses Peter McDonnell, Jean McNiff, 2015-11-09. Nurses work in complex situations with daily challenges where the needs of each patient represent unique demands. Action research helps nurses to investigate their practices as reflective practitioners, allowing them to ask: What is going on? How do we understand the existing situation? How do we improve it? This book supports nurses in investigating their own professional practices in order to develop new insights and approaches embodying holistic perspectives in dialogical and relational forms of individual and organisational learning, equal emphasis on processes and outcomes, welcoming all participants' contributions and listening to all voices, developing a patient-centred focus where people are involved in their own healing, building communities of enquiring practices. This book is intended for undergraduate student nurses, qualified practising nurses in clinical settings who may or may not be engaged in formal professional education courses and nurse educators and managers.
