gold medal speed skater Ga tan Boucher effortlessly raced in the 1988 Calgary Olympics Dreaming of one day competing herself Clara channeled her anger frustration and raw ambition into the endurance sports of speed skating and cycling By 2010 she had become a six time Olympic medalist But after more than a decade in the gruelling world of professional sports that stripped away her confidence and bruised her body Clara began to realize that her physical extremes her emotional setbacks and her partying habits were masking a severe depression After winning bronze in the last speed skating race of her career she decided to retire from that sport determined to repair herself She has emerged as one of our most committed humanitarians advocating for a variety of social causes both in Canada and around the world In 2010 she became national spokesperson for Bell Canada s Let s Talk campaign in support of mental health awareness using her Olympic standing to share the positive message of the power of forgiveness Told with honesty and passion Open Heart Open Mind is Clara s personal journey through physical and mental pain to a life where love and understanding can thrive This revelatory and inspiring story will touch the hearts of all Canadians Awaken the Olympian Within John Naber,1999 Without exception the athletes who contributed these chapters have addressed groups large and small in their collective mission to share the power and relevance of their Olympic experiences The message hidden just beneath the surface of each chapter is that Olympic champions are not extraordinary people rather they are ordinary people who merely have been able to accomplish extraordinary things in the area of life that matters most to each of them Within each of us lies a dormant form of an Olympian waiting to be awakened With Winning in Mind Lanny R.
