Haynes, 1995-03-22

Reluctant Witnesses Jews and the Christian Imagination is an analysis of the ancient Christian myth that casts Jews as a witness people and this myth's presence in contemporary religious discourse. It treats diverse products of the Christian imagination including systematic theology, works of fiction and popular writings on biblical prophecy. The book demonstrates that the witness people myth, which was first articulated by Augustine and which determined official attitudes towards Jews in medieval Christendom, remains a powerful force in the Christian imagination.

Sources for Studying the Holocaust

Paul R. Bartrop, 2023-04-14. Sources for Studying the Holocaust provides a pathway for readers to engage with questions about what sources can be used to study the Holocaust. For many historians the challenge has been how to rescue the story from oblivion when oft-used sources for other periods of history introduce even more issues around authenticity and reliability. What can be learned of what transpired in villages and towns numbering several thousand people when all its Jewish inhabitants were totally obliterated through Nazi action? Who can furnish eyewitness testimony if all the eyewitnesses were killed? How does one examine written records preserving knowledge of facts or events where none were kept or survived the onslaught? And what weight do we put upon such resources which did manage to endure the destruction wrought by the Holocaust? Each chapter looks at one of a diverse range of source materials from which scholars have rescued the history, including survivor testimony, diaries, letters, newspaper accounts, photographs, trial documents, artefacts, digital resources, memorials, films, literature and art. Each chapter shows how different types of records can be utilised as accurate sources for the writing of Holocaust history. Collectively they highlight the ways in which all material, even the most fragmentary, can be employed to recreate a reliable record of what happened during the Holocaust and show how all sources considered can be employed to find meaning and understanding by exploring a range of sources deeply. This book is a unique analysis of the types of sources that can be used to access the history of the Holocaust. It will be of invaluable interest to readers, students and researchers of the Holocaust.

The Gypsies of Eastern Europe David Crowe, John Kolsti, Ian Hancock, 2016-07-22. In recent news coverage of the dramatic political events in Eastern Europe, Gypsies have been a favourite sidebar topic. Some of the stories have been truly horrifying; others are written condescendingly and to amuse, but what has become clear is how little we really know about this people. In a concerted effort to uncover the modern history of the Rom in Eastern Europe, the authors examine the Gypsy experience in Albania, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Yugoslavia, with special attention to the Nazi Holocaust as well as to the record of the forced settlement and education programmes instituted by communist regimes.

With contributions from survivors of the ghettos throughout Poland, Czechoslovakia and Hungary and from prominent scholars, this book covers Jewish daily life and governance, the Judenrat, the Warsaw Ghetto uprising, smuggling, housing, death and religious life, and comprises historical and cultural essays. The selection of work combines a range of scope and narrative rarely available in one volume Ghettos varied depending on the time circumstance and place in which they were created A combination of scholarly assessment and eyewitness accounts this book clearly elucidates these differences some ghettos were ad hoc arrangements intended only as way stations while others were final destinations Elie Wiesel and the Politics of Moral Leadership Mark Chmiel,2001 Chmiel also critically engages Wiesel s long standing defense of the State of Israel as well as his confrontations and collaborations with the U S government including the birth of the U S Holocaust Memorial Museum the 1985 Bitburg affair with President Reagan and U S intervention in the Balkans BOOK JACKET The Sunflower Simon Wiesenthal,2008-12-18 A Holocaust survivor s surprising and thought provoking study of forgiveness justice compassion and human responsibility featuring contributions from the Dalai Lama Harry Wu Cynthia Ozick Primo Levi and more You are a prisoner in a concentration camp A dying Nazi soldier asks for your forgiveness What would you do While imprisoned in a Nazi concentration camp Simon Wiesenthal was taken one day from his work detail to the bedside of a dying member of the SS Haunted by the crimes in which he had participated the soldier wanted to confess to and obtain absolution from a Jew Faced with the choice between compassion and justice silence and truth Wiesenthal said nothing But even years after the way had ended he wondered Had he done the right thing What would you have done in his place In this important book fifty three distinguished men and women respond to Wiesenthal s questions They are theologians political leaders writers jurists psychiatrists human rights activists Holocaust survivors and victims of attempted genocides in Bosnia Cambodia China and Tibet Their responses as varied as their experiences of the world remind us that Wiesenthal s questions are not limited to events of the past Catholics and Jews in Twentieth-century America Egal Feldman,2001 This book recounts the transformation of a relationship of irreconcilable enmity to one of respectful coexistence and constructive dialogue From the Inquisition to the Passion Play at Oberammergau the Catholic Church for centuries perpetuated a theology of contempt that reinforced antipathy between the two faiths Focusing primarily on the Catholic doctrinal view of the Jews and its ramifications Egal Feldman traces the historical roots of antisemitism examining tenacious Catholic beliefs such as displacement theology deicide and the conviction that the Jews purported responsibility for the Crucifixion justified all their subsequent misery and vilification A new era of Catholic Jewish relations opened in 1962 with Vatican II s Nostra Aetate No 4 This document brought about a reversal of the theology of contempt a de emphasis on converting Jews to Christianity and a determination to initiate constructive dialogue between Catholics and Jews Feldman explores the strides made in improving relations and discusses recent disputes including the erection of a convent near Auschwitz and the proposed canonization of the wartime pope Pius XII that reflect the fragility of the interfaith relationship This book underscores the magnitude of the change in Catholic thinking about Jews since Vatican II and the courage of thinkers and leaders on both sides in forging new bonds across the lines of faith Testimony, Tensions, and Tikkun Myrna Goldenberg,Rochelle L. Millen,2011-10-01 The Holocaust was a cataclysmic upheaval in politics culture society ethics and theology The very fact of its occurrence has been forcing scholars for more than sixty years to assess its impact on their disciplines Educators whose work is represented in this volume ask their students to grapple with one of the grand horrors of the twentieth century and to accept the responsibility of building a more just peaceful world tikkun olam They acknowledge that their task as teachers of the Holocaust is both imperative and impossible they must teach something that cannot be taught as one contributor puts it and they recognize the formidable limits of language thought imagination and comprehension that thwart and obscure the story they seek to tell Yet they are united in their keen sense of pursuing an effort that is pivotal to our understanding of the past and to whatever prospects we may have for a more decent and humane future A Holocaust course refers to an instructional offering that may focus entirely on the Holocaust may serve as a touchstone in a larger program devoted to genocide studies or may constitute a unit within a wider curriculum including art literature ethics history religious studies jurisprudence philosophy theology film studies Jewish studies German studies composition urban studies or architecture It may also constitute a main thread that runs through an interdisciplinary course The first section of Testimony Tensions and Tikkun can be read as an injunction to teach and act in a manner consistent with a profound cautionary message that there can be no tolerance for moral neutrality about the Holocaust and that there is no subject in the humanities or social sciences where its shadow has not reached The second section is devoted to the process and nature of students learning These chapters describe efforts to guide students through terrain that hides cognitive and emotional land mines The authors examine their responsibility to foster students personal connection with the events of the Holocaust but in such a way that they not instill hopelessness about the future The third and final section moves the subject of the Holocaust out of the classroom and into broader institutional settings universities and community colleges and their surrounding communities along with museums and memorial sites For the educators represented here teaching itself is testimony The story of the Holocaust is one that the world will fail to master at its own peril The editors of this volume and many of its contributors are members of the Pastora Goldner Holocaust Symposium Led since its founding in 1996 by Leonard Grob and Henry F Knight the symposium s scholars a group that is interfaith international interdisciplinary and intergenerational meet biennially in Oxfordshire England
