Reflections On A Long Journey:

Reflections on Play Therapy David Le Vay, 2024-08-06 This book explores an extensive range of questions and challenges within the training theory and practice of play therapy with the aim of providing a stimulating and thought provoking debate around many of the issues and dilemmas therapists experience Drawing upon the author's own experience as both a therapist and trainer educator supervisor the volume grapples with questions of power privilege self care and mental health It additionally addresses the wider challenges and impact of the Covid 19 pandemic climate change and international conflict upon practice and personhood Questions around training are explored as well as specific practice challenges relating to managing limits and boundaries within play therapy and working with adopted children Throughout the book the author will reflect upon aspects of personal and clinical experience sharing something of his own developmental narrative through training teaching and practice Reflections on Play Therapy will serve as a core text for trainee play therapists and also a valuable resource for any experienced clinicians working therapeutically with children young people and families

Reflections at Journey's End York County Bar Association, 2018-11-30 A compelling series of insightful biographical sketches of the men and women of the York County Bar commencing eleven years before the start of the Civil War as recounted by contemporaries and colleagues Candid sincere honest and on occasion with a touch of comic relief these memorial minutes are tributes to those who have made their rendezvous with mortality Found within these volumes is the venerable Jeremiah S Black who walked the corridors of national recognition during the Civil War era the urbane and brilliant Herbert B Cohen who wielded substantial political power throughout the commonwealth and rose to become an associate justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and the charismatic Harvey Gross whose superb advocacy in the third Hex trial and subsequent twenty year tenure on the York County Orphans Court placed him in the forefront of the princes of Anglo Saxon jurisprudence This callout of the giants in no way diminishes the significance commitment and integrity of the many other remarkable individuals who came after and counseled and inspired others to live honestly to exercise compassion and to act with prudence and diligence and above all else made their contribution to the vast and diverse panorama of our humanity Not a typical memoir or story these memorial minutes constitute the defining epic of the York County Bar More than history more than recitals of character and personality more than delightful encounters and more somber content they are about individuals remembered for the richness and power of their hopes achievements and commitments to the timeless values of the life of the law

True Reflections Navindra Sukhdeo, 2009-06-15 True Reflections A Journey Thru Time is a book of poetry The contents are based on personal experiences over the span of several years Each work deals with a different time over that period and gives you a glimpse of that particular moment as well as some insight into the mind of the author The works themselves deal with people places and even objects that have affected the author's life to some degree They showcase a spectrum of emotions as they relate to the author

Reflections of a Transborder Anthropologist

Carlos G. Vélez-Ibáñez, 2020-10-20 Taking us on a journey of remembering and rediscovery anthropologist Carlos G V lez Ib ez explores his development as a scholar and in so doing the development of the interdisciplinary fields of transborder and applied anthropology He shows us his path through anthropology as both a theoretical and an applied anthropologist whose work has strongly influenced borderlands and applied research Importantly he explains the underlying often hidden process that led to his long insistence on making a difference in lives of people of Mexican origin on both sides of the border and to contribute to a People with Histories In each chapter V lez Ib ez revisits a critical piece of his written work providing a new introduction and discussion of ideas sources and influences for the piece These are followed by the work chosen because it accentuates key aspects of his development and formation as an anthropologist By returning to these previously published works V lez Ib ez offers insight not only into the evolution of his own thinking and conceptualization but also into changes in the fields in which he has been so influential Throughout his career V lez Ib ez has addressed why he does the work that he does and in this volume he continues to address the personal and intellectual drives that have brought him from Netzahualc yotl to Aztl n Reflections of a Transborder Anthropologist shows how both V lez Ib ez and anthropology have changed and formed over a fifty year period Throughout he has worked to understand how people survive and thrive against all odds V lez Ib ez has been guided by the burning desire to understand inequality exploitation and legitimacy and most importantly to provide platforms for the voiceless to narrate their own histories

WE ARE AT WAR Vitalis Chi. Nwaneri, 2013-05-14 In this last Book 6 on the above Title the Author sums up the Crux of his Mission and Message of the other five Books HAND BOOKS He provides Hand Books as Guidelines Strategies Spiritual as well as Human Weapons for his proposed Knights of the Cross Warriors to use and fight Satan the enemy and its human agents in their warfronts from the family to the national levels and

Global Terrorism These Guidelines start with The Family Hand Book that provides the strategies to rescue from the enemy Family victims suffering or threatened by sins of Abortion Divorce and Same Sex Marriage The Next set of Hand Books provide the Guidelines to help Youths struggling to free themselves from the enemy's criminal and other sinful lives and Community Members ravaged by political and social crises The final set of Hand Books focus on Catholic Church Homilies and Guidelines for the K of XM warriors to help Nations struggling to promote Good Secular Governance that accommodates every religious group WARFRONT ON SECULAR GOVERNANCE The Author's audacity becomes more vivid as he moves forward to tackle the tough issues of Satan's wars that lead to Bad Governance especially in developing countries like Nigeria and its attacks on Religious Freedom in the advanced countries like the U S A He dares to take up such controversial subjects as public corruption in developing nations terrorism civil wars and revolutions in the Muslim world as well as Same Sex Divorce and Abortion conflicts that are tearing apart the traditional Christian cultures in the advanced nations of Europe and North America Finally he illustrates these challenges by providing his Report and Observations on his recent visit to Nigeria to launch his Books and Mission He concludes Book 7 with his views on the Ideals of Good Secular Governance built on the foundation Pillars provided by Christ through His Church In the Author's view this Book 6 is indeed a must Read for all concerned with the declining state of Global Peace and those eager to explore how promoting the New Evangelization can help reduce family and national conflicts and advance modern civilization by promoting global Peace Good Governance Justice and Religious Freedom

A World Scientific Encyclopedia Of Business Storytelling, Set 2: Methodologies And Big Data Analysis Of Business Storytelling (In 5 Volumes) ,2023-10-13 This set of multi reference works is meant to be read together as the five volumes interlace one another like the laces of a shoe in the famous painting by Vincent van Gogh The question of who will wear the shoes is long debated in art history and philosophy If we take these five volumes from different points of view on the theory and practice of business storytelling then we have a crisscrossing a new and impressive dialogue for the reader This set is presented as a new way to lace up the laces of business storytelling Volume 1 aims to help and inspire leaders business owners and researchers in creating a commitment to ethical and sustainable changes and ideas and live in a world of high complexity without getting stressed but experiencing freedom instead The book combines tools case studies and theories about the ethical change management method of True Storytelling and other perspectives and views on ethics and storytelling It delves into important topics such as true storytelling sustainability and freedom storytelling and start ups in the health industry storytelling and diversity and culture storytelling and teams storytelling sustainability and the UN Goals storytelling and well being storytelling in higher education and storytelling and fundraising Book authors are experienced and successful researchers business owners leaders and consultants from Scandinavia the USA Africa and Europe Volume 2 is an endeavor into the creation of new concepts for engaging with sustainability It maintains that storytelling is important for our emplacement in nature and can be important for enacting another relationship between nature and the cultural artifice our social and material constructions of houses cities villages harbors streets and railways and our use of objects and artifacts to construct our lives Business storytelling communication is that space for social symbolic work that brings the symbolic objects of the organization the human and the natural environment into a dialogical relationship Volume 3 posits that organizations are arranged as social symbols that are arranged in institutions based on the needs of organics for example health food shelter mating leisure and labor Organics as a social symbolic object specifically humans have emotions language and culture to organize their institutions and organizations In this book readers will find that many of the authors attempt to understand the body s exclusion or attempt to bring the body back into the organization Business storytelling communication takes aim at the social symbolic work of making space to negotiate the social arrangement of organizations with its organic components Volume 4 covers a variety of methodological topics from a storytelling perspective Why a storytelling perspective Consider that a common business research goal is to convince others that what the researcher has to say matters If the researcher is a basic researcher who wishes to promote a theory the goal is to make a convincing case for the value of that theory If the researcher is an applied researcher who wishes to promote a particular application intervention or policy change the goal is likewise to make a convincing case Either way the researcher has a story to tell and the onus is on the researcher to tell the best possible story storytelling failures likely will result in a failure to convince others of the value of one s theory or application Here is where methodological issues come into play Poor methodology whether in the form of less than optimal study designs or invalid statistical analyses harms story quality In contrast high quality methods and statistics enhance story quality Moreover the larger one s methodological and statistical toolbox the greater the opportunities for researchers to tell effective stories The chapters in this book come from a wide variety of perspectives and should enhance researchers storytelling in the following ways By opening many different methodological and statistical perspectives researchers should be more able to think of research stories that otherwise would remain unavailable or inaccessible Secondly the present chapters should aid researchers in better executing their research stories Therefore researchers and graduate students will find this book an invaluable resource Volume 5 opens a window into the world of quantum storytelling as an organizational research methodology providing numerous exemplars of work in this storytelling science that has disrupted qualitative inquiry only with the intention of providing expanded improved and generative ways of understanding and knowing the narratives that emerge from qualitative interviews and observations during organizational research studies

REFLECTIONS Omar H. Malik, 2014 In a world where most of us are busy making a living finding few moments to reflect and revere awe inspiring power of nature both contributing and disrupting it s beauty serenity and complexity and how we fit in and play our part this book explores and evaluates all that in simple language The beauty and power of nature pictured in the poems titled The Sun The Cloud A Rivers Tale Autumn Leaves and Rainbow In A Lout s Legacy a portrayal of social malaise Interesting interpretations are reflected in Time A Holy Sanctuary and Of Good and Evil There is humour with substance in Follow the Man in the Middle And Oh Dream Examples of how commercial folly influenced our life over a period of time is apparent in Celebrations and Merry Christmas These are just a few examples It is literally a reflection mirror of author s mind on aspects of life that move us     Self-Insight David Dunning,2012-08-16 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company     Reflections and Opinions of a Mental Health Professional Henry Claude Barbot,2013-01-15 Reflection and opinion of a mental health professional is a collection of dynamic episodes that I have encountered during my 20 years working with the human mind This literary work identified the impact of the devastation which is inflicted to individuals suffering from mental illnesses and disorders Sharing my insight I have utilized poetry as the platform to discuss how mental illnesses can create havoc in every day life My goal is to introduce the mental agony suffering and distress in a less complex manner so people from different social backgrounds can relate Poetry has a way of capturing ones interest by deceitfully challenging their intellect to further examine the beauty of what was read For the fearful that stray from reading about such dark somber tales I hope to enlighten them to reach within themselves and unveil any secrets that may be dormant or buried in the unconscious part of their mind The Book is indeed about the product of my twenty years of practice as a Psychiatrist including the three years I spent as a resident in the Howard University Hospital Psychiatry Residency Training Program Twenty years that had an imprint and really marked me as a human being and a physician who has been blessed and honored by the privilege of working with the human mind
