Reflections On A Mask Two Novellas:

Reflections on a Mask In-hun Ch'oe, 2002      The Gwangju Uprising Chŏng-un Ch'oe, 2006 This book explores the implications of the Gwangju Democratic Uprising which took place in May 1980 when paratroopers brutally broke up a group of protesters who demonstrated against General Chun Doo-hwan's acceptance of the Korean presidency. People who lived in the Gwangju and South Jeolla provinces fought the paratroopers insisting that martial law be abolished. During the event now known as the Gwangju Uprising, 191 people perished and 852 were wounded. Here Choi Jung-woon explores the ramifications of this pivotal day in Korea's modern history on the country's society, economy, and politics. Rather than give a traditional historical narrative of the event, he gives an in-depth analysis of the participants' mentalities and incentives and the type of the brutality involved in the uprising. He also examines the stages the participants went through during the uprising: from the calm and togetherness they felt before the event to the uprising's turmoil and then a return to peace after the event. The author analyzes various discourses related to the uprising, looking into the ideological underpinnings of those who commented on the uprising, labor movements, and political relationships in Korea.      East and West Kwang-Sae Lee, 2006 Seeks themes of mutual resonance in eastern and western thought, covering a range of selected topics with contemporary relevance. The main themes are methodological issues: comparison of Kantian and Confucian moral philosophy and holistic individualism and pluralism exemplified by Pragmatism, Wittgenstein, Heidegger, Confucianism, and more.      Korea's Pastimes and Customs I-hwa Yi, 2006 The book explores the favorite pastimes and customs of the Korean people under the Great Empire from the late 14th century to 1910 when Korea was occupied by Japan. Some of the popular games discussed include Baduk, the Korean version of Go, a strategic board game for two players; Janggi, the Korean version of chess; and Yutnori, a game played with four short sticks. The author also discusses games played by young boys, e.g., flying kites, and young girls, e.g., hide and seek; men, e.g., archery; and women, e.g., seesaw, and pastimes enjoyed by both sexes, e.g., tug of war. Lee examines the origin of family names and common people's obsession with genealogy during the Joseon dynasty. He also discusses the important ceremonies celebrating milestones in one's life as well as ceremonies associated with various holidays on the calendar. The last segment of the book is devoted to people's interest in fortune telling. The author discusses behaviors that were considered taboo and the various ways people tried to predict their future.      Sunrise Over the East Sea Hŭi-jin Pak, Ch'ang-su Ko, 2006      Cracking the Shell Sŭng-ho Ch'oe, Chi-ha Kim, Hyŏn-jong Chŏng, 2006      Korean Drama Under Japanese Occupation Ch'i-jin Yu, Man-sik Ch'ae, 2004 From 1910 to 1945 Japan occupied Korea and controlled every aspect of the Korean life. This book presents three plays by two prominent Korean writers who ventured to voice anti-Japanese sentiments in their plays despite the harsh censorship of the time.      Unspoken Voices Jin-young Choi, 2002 BOOK DESCRIPTION The stories in this collection are written by twelve Korean women writers whose experience, insight, and writing skill make them truly representative of Korean fiction at its best. The Rooster is a comical revelation of an old man.
