The Recovery of Philosophy in America Thomas P. Kasulis, Robert Cummings

Neville, 1997-05-01 Philosophy in America enjoyed a golden age at the end of the nineteenth and beginning of the twentieth centuries with the flourishing of distinctive and original schools of pragmatism idealism and naturalism These American philosophies shared a family of conceptions of human experience far richer than their contemporary European schools of empiricism and phenomenology The American conceptions of experience embrace critical and speculative conceptions of reason presenting decisive alternatives to the Kantian foundationalist project that expressed itself in positivism analytic philosophy and phenomenology During the middle part of the twentieth century these American philosophies were eclipsed by the European schools however and philosophy was reduced from the public intellectual roles given it by the likes of William James and John Dewey to a narrow academic practice interesting to few other than academic philosophers John Edwin Smith through a long publishing and teaching career at Yale has championed the rich American conceptions of experience and speculative reason and it seems that at the end of this century they are returning in triumph This book celebrates the recovery and new growth of American philosophy in a stunning variety of connected and vital intellectual projects represented by its contributors George Allan Douglas R Anderson Lewis S Ford Errol Harris Richard Hocking Thomas P Kasulis George R Lucas Jr Robert Cummings Neville Donald W Sherburne Merold Westphal Kuang ming Wu and Carl G Vaught Displaying philosophy's recovery in America this book also honors John Edwin Smith who has kept the history and trajectory of philosophy in America in sight and who contributes a prophetic commentary on the other essays
