Regards from the Dead Princess Kenizé Mourad, 1989-01-01 A daughter recreates the life of her mother in a fictional account of the life of Princess Selma who marries a wealthy Indian rajah      The Making of Modern Turkey Ahmad Feroz, 2002-11-01 Turkey is the first modern secular state in a predominantly Islamic Middle East In this major textbook Feroz Ahmad provides a thorough examination of the political social and economic processes which led to the formation of a new Turkey After a chapter on the Ottoman Legacy the book covers the period since the revolution of 1908 and the development of the new Turkey Successive chapters chart the progress through the single party regime set up by Ataturk 1923 1945 the multi party period 1945 1960 and the three military interventions of 1960 1971 and 1980 The book ends in 1989 with the election of Turgut Ozal as president In contrast to most current analyses of modern Turkey the author emphasises the socio economic changes rather than continuities as the motor of politics      Baghdad Diaries Nuha al-Radi, 2007-12-18 In this often moving sometimes wry account of life in Baghdad during the first war on Iraq and in exile in the years following Iraqi born British educated artist Nuha al Radi shows us the effects of war on ordinary people She recounts the day to day realities of living in a city under siege where food has to be consumed or thrown out because there is no way to preserve it where eventually people cannot sleep until the nightly bombing commences where packs of stray dogs roam the streets and provide her own dog Salvi with a harem and rats invade homes Through it all al Radi works at her art and gathers with neighbors and family for meals and other occasions happy and sad In the wake of the war al Radi lives in semi exile shuttling between Beirut and Amman travelling to New York London Mexico and Yemen As she suffers the indignities of being an Iraqi in exile al Radi immerses us in a way of life constricted by the stress and effects of war and embargoes giving texture to a reality we have only been able to imagine before now But what emanates most vibrantly from these diaries is the spirit of endurance and the celebration of the smallest of life's joys      Strategic Occidentalism Ignacio M. Sanchez Prado, 2018-08-15 Strategic Occidentalism examines the transformation in both aesthetics and infrastructure of Mexican fiction since the late 1970s During this time a framework has emerged characterized by the corporatization of publishing a frictional relationship between Mexican literature and global book markets and the desire of Mexican writers to break from dominant models of national culture In the course of this analysis Ignacio M Sanchez Prado engages with theories of world literature proposing that world literature is a construction produced at various levels including the national that must be studied from its material conditions of production in specific sites In particular he argues that Mexican writers have engaged in a strategic Occidentalism in which their idiosyncratic connections with world literature have responded to dynamics different from those identified by world systems or diffusionist theorists Strategic Occidentalism identifies three scenes in which a cosmopolitan aesthetics in Mexican world literature has been produced Sergio Pitol's translation of Eastern European and marginal British modernist literature the emergence of the Crack group as a polemic against the legacies of magical realism and the challenges of writers like Carmen Boullosa Cristina Rivera Garza and Ana Garc a Bergua to the roles traditionally assigned to Latin American writers in world literature      In the City of Gold and Silver Kenizé Mourad,2014-11-04 An enthralling historical novel based on the little known female warrior in nineteenth century India who led a revolt against the British Here is the long forgotten story of Begum Hazrat Mahal queen of Awadh and the soul of the Indian revolt against the British brought to vivid life by the author of Regards from the Dead Princess a major bestseller in her native France Begum was an orphan and a poetess who captured the attentions of King Wajid Ali Shah of Awadh and became his fourth wife As his wife she incited and led a popular uprising that would eventually prove to be the first step toward Indian independence Begum was the very incarnation of resistance As chief of the army and the government in Lucknow she fought battles on the field for two years she was a freedom fighter a misunderstood mother and an illicit lover She was a remarkable woman who risked everything only to face the greatest betrayal of all      The New York Times Book Review ,1989-10 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback      Antoun Saadeh Salim Majā'is,2004      Olderr's Fiction Index ,1989      Baghdad Diaries, 1991-2002 Nuha Radi,2003 Providing a comprehensive examination of the origins development and status of committees and committee systems in both the House and Senate this edition carries on the book s tradition of comprehensive coverage empirical richness and theoretical relevance in its discussion of these essential and distinguishing features of our national legislature While the second edition focused on the post reform committee systems addressed the shifts in the internal distribution of power and hinted at the forces that had already begun to undermine the power of committees this edition updates that analysis and looks at the reforms that evolved under the Republicans It offers complete coverage of the rules and structural changes to the House and Senate committee systems It extends its discussion of committee power and influence in the context of the Contract with America Republican reforms and the inter party warfare on Capitol Hill      Our Sacred Land Kenizé Mourad,2004 In 2002 celebrated novelist and journalist Kenize Mourad traveled through Israel and the occupied territories of the West Bank and Gaza Strip interviewing ordinary Palestinians and Israelis who have been extraordinarily touch by the conflict between their peoples This book tells their stories      New Books on Women and Feminism ,1989      Jim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews ,1990

The Kiss that Saved Her E.M. McCarthy, Princess Joanna is expected to marry to protect her kingdom from the threat of war but she loves David a common man She will only marry if she loves her husband Her dearest friend Prince Samuel has loved her since he met her Rumors swirl about Prince Samuel s relationship with a princess whose country has had a major discovery of gold Will there be a change of heart Will Princess Joanna choose royalty over love Is there really such a thing as love at first sight The Kiss that Saved Her is a retelling and expansion of the fairytale Snow White The novel is a Christian Romance story suitable for teens and other romance book lovers Love and Death of King Ananda Mahidol of Thailand Pavin Chachavalpongpun,2021-12-01 This book examines two aspects of the abbreviated reign of King Ananda Mahidol 1935 1946 or King Rama VIII of the current Chakri dynasty of Thailand First it discusses the royal family s plot to thwart a romantic relationship between the young king Ananda and his Swiss girlfriend Marileine Ferrari a daughter of a famous pastor of Lausanne Switzerland Interracial marriage particularly with Westerners has been strictly forbidden for Thai kings or heirs apparent The restriction stems from the interwoven connection between sexual relationship and the security of the throne The second part investigates the mysterious death of King Ananda a long held taboo topic in Thailand Although the two events were not specially related both in their own way served to unavoidably shake the position of the monarchy and hence threaten its existence The palace s reactions to these events demonstrated its continuous search to maintain its power and ultimately to warrant its survival The Gentleman's Magazine, and Historical Chronicle, for the Year ... ,1848

Body Horror John Taylor,1998 Asks why anyone would want to look at shocking photographs The text questions what happens when the press uses gruesome images to represent accidents and disasters murder and execution grief and death It examines how the press pictures the dead and injured bodies of foreigners with particular reference to the special conditions of photographing the horror of wars in the Gulf Bosnia and Rwanda It argues that hard hitting documentary photography contributes to public knowledge and helps to define the freedom of the press The Making of Romantic Love William M. Reddy,2024-05-31 In the twelfth century the Catholic Church attempted a thoroughgoing reform of marriage and sexual behavior aimed at eradicating sexual desire from Christian lives Seeking a refuge from the very serious condemnations of the Church and relying on a courtly culture that was already preoccupied with honor and secrecy European poets romance writers and lovers devised a vision of love as something quite different from desire Romantic love was thus born as a movement of covert resistance In The Making of Romantic Love Longing and Sexuality in Europe South Asia and Japan William M Reddy illuminates the birth of a cultural movement that managed to regulate selfish desire and render it innocent or innocent enough Reddy strikes out from this historical moment on an international exploration of love contrasting the medieval development of romantic love in Europe with contemporaneous eastern traditions in Bengal and Orissa and in Heian Japan from 900 1200 CE where one finds no trace of an opposition between love and desire In this comparative framework Reddy tells an appealing tale about the rise and fall of various practices of longing underscoring the uniqueness of the European concept of sexual desire
