Riding To The Moon:

Riding to the Moon Barbara Cartland, 1983 The Complete Guide to Endurance Riding and Competition Donna Snyder-Smith, 2008-05-05 First Star to the Right and Straight on Till Morning At the 90 mile vet check she sat in the middle of the road crying claiming extreme illness and trying to avoid her nightmarish fears her horse would die of founder or colic or anything The last ten miles of trail stretched forever in her mind black like licorice taffy After a large measure of TLC from her patient and understanding crew she and the gelding were out of the check and on the trail again The entire universe shrank to center on the pair in the moonlight Time stopped and the world faded into nothingness They were running in a small ever changing pocket of existence the rhythm of his hooves the heartbeat of that universe Ribbons and trail appeared before them and lost substance as they moved past For the rider clinging to the saddle there was no thought no pain no emotion only the instinctive drive to chase past each ribbon as it appeared Suddenly her horse jumped sideways eyes and ears frozen forward Awakened from her trance she oriented herself on his suspected woods troll a familiar embankment that meant they were a half mile from home Easing him past the scary object she sent the gelding on clinging to his neck As his soft lope swept them across the finish line she wanted to laugh out loud or cry but was unable to summon the strength for either A few small tears trickled down her cheek the only sign of the enormous pride she felt inside Becky Huffman Endurance rider wife mother of two and student of author Donna Snyder Smith The Howell Equestrian Library The London Gazette Great Britain, 1837 Moon's Blood Bill Brooks, SOME LEGENDS JUST WON'T DIE On a frontier overrun by men who'd kill you as soon as look at you Ben Moon was a legend One of the most feared gunfighters who ever drew breath he'd faced down his most deadly enemies without flinching But the west had changed And so had Ben Moon Too many years of drinking and shooting and killing had done something bad to his soul Then one freezing morning in 1882 he found salvation in a sinner named Jane Once he'd actually thought about marrying her Now she was dying and all she wanted was to see the child she'd given up at birth Because he still had his pride and honor Ben rode out to look for Jane's little girl He went back out among the men with hard eyes and smoking guns who wanted to kill the infamous Ben Moon and probably would Red Moon's Raid Matthew S. Hart, Book Creations Inc, 1994 When an outlaw gang led by the renegade Comanche Red Moon kidnaps the 19 year old daughter of Lieutenant Whitcomb Sam Cody and his fellow Rangers pursue the outlaws into the Badlands of West Texas Another strong adventure in an exciting series of the Texas Rangers filled with action and the color of the Old West The Arts in Canada William J. Keith, Ben-Z. Shek, 1980-12-15 In this volume a baker's dozen of creative Canadians make personal responses to the state of the arts in Canada Northrop Frye and Guy Rocher write on general cultural trends Hugh MacLennan and Gerald Bessette on fiction Ralph Gustafson and Michèle Lalonde on poetry Robertson Davies and Gratien Gelinas on drama George Woodcock and Jacques Allard on non fiction prose Godfrey Ridout on music and Aba Bayefsky and Humphrey N. Milnes on art The essays were written to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the University of Toronto Quarterly The contributors were invited to discuss the changes problems challenges and achievements in the arts in the last fifty years Since all the authors had personal experience of at least a large section of the period surveyed the editors welcomed personal reminiscence as well as description and assessment The result is a varied group of essays in each of which the character of the individual artist is clearly evident together they provide a complex many faceted lively and living discussion of the cultural development of Canada This anniversary collection of essays is a valuable and provocative source for courses in Canadian studies and for anyone interested in the development of the arts and humanities in Canada Tales from Dreamland Ed Valfre,2025-05-06

LA photographer Ed Valfre imagines stories from snapshots of ordinary life inviting readers to discover the magical in the everyday A cup of coffee with a swirl of cream Clouds reflected on a tabletop A shopping cart abandoned on the sidewalk Photographer Ed Valfre captures these little moments of everyday life in his pictures and subsequently imagines the extraordinary universes striking feelings and unexpected narratives each moment might contain By turns surreal humorous and profound Valfre reveals the magic to be discovered in the everyday with this collection of photographs and accompanying short stories Hope . . . From the Heart of Horses Kathy

Pike,2009-04-22 I m thrilled to recommend this book as one of the finest narratives on what horses have to teach people about life love power and connection Linda Kohanov author The Tao of Equus from her Foreword Hope From the Heart of Horses explores and celebrates the relationship and bond possible between horses and humans Each chapter offers a life lesson about trusting one s instincts honestly addressing emotions achieving clarity in communications and releasing negative thoughts Because survival depends on being highly tuned to the thoughts and feelings of others horses sense human intentions rather than what a person offers in facial expressions which creates a remarkable effect on the relationship between these two distinctly different species Among the moving stories the author relates are a horse named Hope who teaches the difference between hope and faith an abused horse s background bringing up old memories and helping the author to move on a young Olympic equestrienne hopeful who discovers and reaffirms her self esteem and a corporate training session in which one participant achieves great success merely by being honest about her fears As you see how these people grow deeper into themselves as they learn the horse s way you too will be inspired to explore and apply the deep and everlasting connection and communication between horses and humans The Oriental Sporting Magazine ,1871
