Rights Of Inclusion:

Rights of Inclusion David M. Engel, Frank W. Munger, 2003-06-15 Examines how civil rights legislation impacts the lives of ordinary Americans drawing on the experiences of sixty interviewees that have been victims of discrimination to discuss how civil rights impacted their lives The Right to Inclusive Education in International Human Rights Law Gauthier de Beco, Shivaun Quinlivan, Janet E. Lord, 2019-05-02 Education is a fundamental human right that is recognised as essential for the attainment of all civil political economic social and cultural rights It was not until 2006 on the adoption of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD that the right to inclusive education was codified This volume fills a major gap in the literature on the right of disabled people to education It examines the theoretical foundations and core content of the right to inclusive education in international human rights law and explores the various ways of implementing this right through an exploration of legal strategies and mechanisms With contributions by leaders in the field this volume advances scholarship on the core content of the right to inclusive education by examining the content and practice of the right at the national regional and international levels The Right to Inclusive Education in International Human Rights Law Gauthier de Beco, Shivaun Quinlivan, Janet E. Ile, 2025-04-15 This book presents a comparative analysis of political governance and includes case studies from various African countries. It further sheds light on the paradox of poverty despite Africa's plentiful resources and traces its roots in historical legacies of colonialism and leadership failures. The book examines the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) initiated by the African Union (AU) in 2003 and explores the APRM's role in promoting sustainable development, political stability, and integration. Against this background, the book dissects the four thematic areas of the APRM with a focal point on democratic and political governance, illuminating challenges and proposing solutions. In case studies on selected African countries, contributors present governance structures highlighting the struggle for accountability, representation, and public participation. The book highlights alarming indicators of weak governance, including corruption and declining public engagement, and reflects Africa's journey toward effective governance. By doing so, the book scrutinizes African governing systems, responses to crises, and offers valuable insights into the continent's quest for progress and transformation. Designing Equitable and Accessible

Online Learning Environments Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, Keengwe, Jared, Ntuli, Esther, 2024-02-07. As the educational sphere witnessed an unprecedented shift to online learning during the COVID-19 pandemic, a pivotal transformation was set in motion. The surge in online enrollment, spanning synchronous, asynchronous, hybrid, and mobile formats, has established the digital domain as a formidable medium of education. However, this transition comes with a responsibility to uphold the principles of equality and accessibility, a responsibility that mirrors the concerns long prevalent in traditional brick-and-mortar classrooms. Designing Equitable and Accessible Online Learning Environments is a pioneering endeavor which delves into the multifaceted dimensions of online education and reveals a crucial revelation: that students from disadvantaged backgrounds exhibit a pronounced affinity for online courses. This book magnifies the essence of this observation, venturing beyond the surface to uncover the means to cultivate a genuinely inclusive online pedagogical experience. Meticulously curated, this book amalgamates diverse perspectives from luminaries in the field. The ultimate aspiration is to empower educators, administrators, researchers, and students with a profound understanding of the symbiotic relationship between inclusivity and technology. From theoretical underpinnings to practical strategies, every chapter resonates with the heartbeat of equitable education in the digital age. Embarking on a comprehensive journey, this book is an exploration of design theories that embrace the ethos of diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility. Topics span the spectrum from deciphering the architecture of accessible digital tools to unraveling the tapestry of culturally responsive teaching in the virtual classroom.

Positioning Women in Conflict Studies Hardis Family Assistant Professor of Government Sabrina Karim, Sabrina Karim, Associate Professor of International Affairs Daniel W. Hill Jr., Daniel W. Hill (Jr.), 2024. In Positioning Women in Conflict Studies, Sabrina Karim and Daniel W. Hill Jr. re-evaluate the literature on gender, international politics, and conflict to reveal that the term gender equality is often used to refer to four distinct concepts: women's inclusion, women's rights, harm to women, and beliefs about women's roles. They develop original measures for each of these concepts and examine their impact.

on inter state war onset intra state conflict onset state repression human rights violations and terrorism Overall Karim and Hill demonstrate how the conceptualization and measurement of gender equality and women s status is critical in understanding how to reduce political violence globally

Human Rights in Africa Bonny Ibhawoh, 2018-01-18 Human rights have a deep and tumultuous history that culminates in the age of rights we live in today but where does Africa s story fit in with this global history Here Bonny Ibhawoh maps this story and offers a comprehensive and interpretative history of human rights in Africa Rather than a tidy narrative of ruthless violators and benevolent protectors this book reveals a complex account of indigenous African rights traditions embodied in the wisdom of elders and sages of humanitarians and abolitionists who marshalled arguments about natural rights and human dignity in the cause of anti slavery of the conflictual encounters between natives and colonists in the age of Empire and the civilizing mission of nationalists and anti colonialists who deployed an emergent lexicon of universal human rights to legitimize longstanding struggles for self determination and of dictators and dissidents locked in struggles over power in the era of independence and constitutional rights
