Rise of the Habsburg Empire, 1526-1815 Victor S. Mamatey, 1978 The Rise and Fall of the Great Powers Paul Kennedy, 2010-10-27 About national and international power in the modern or Post Renaissance period Explains how the various powers have risen and fallen over the 5 centuries since the formation of the new monarchies in W Europe Rise of the Habsburg Empire, 1526-1815 Victor S. Mamatey, 1971 The Age of Wars of Religion, 1000-1650 Cathal J. Nolan, 2006-04-30 The Age of Wars of Religion saw navies armies armed merchant companies and mercenaries battle one another and local potentates in many lands and along numerous shores Wars of religion were fought in and between all the major religions and civilizations from Europe to China in Africa and in the isolated Americas mixing motives of knightly idealism mercenary greed and competing claims of divine sanction This unparalleled work traces the extraordinary upheavals of the period in military technology competing theologies and civilizational change that were brought about by or impinged upon military conflict It offers nearly 2 000 discrete but cross referenced entries on cultural military religious and political history as well as geography biography and military literature Close to 2 000 entries offer detailed information on the major events places battles figures technologies and ideas one must know to begin to make sense of the past six centuries of global conflicts Though especially ferocious and intense the Wars of Reformation and Counter Reformation fought by Europeans from the 15th through 17th centuries were hardly unique in world or military history The Byzantine Empire bastion of Christian Orthodoxy staggered to the tortuous end of its long conflict with the Ottoman Empire the Great Power of the Sunni Muslim world The Ottomans in turn were still engaged in an equally ancient intra Muslim war between Sunnis and Shi'ites In India the Hindu Rajputs and Marathas and also the Sikhs organized armies around religious communities to throw off the Muslim Yoke Mughul Empire and also fought against Christian invaders from Europe As for the isolated Americas ideas of divine kingship sustained by powerful priesthoods and religious warfare also prevailed as exemplified by the Inca and Aztec empires A History of The Gypsies of Eastern Europe and Russia D. Crowe, 2016-09-23 In this fully updated edition with a new foreword by Andre Liebich David M Crowe provides an overview of the life history and culture of the Gypsies or Roma from their entrance into the region in the Middle Ages up until the present drawing from previously untapped East European Russian and traditional sources Lineages of the Absolutist State Perry Anderson, 2013-03-12 Forty years after its original publication Lineages of the Absolutist State remains an exemplary achievement in comparative history Picking up from where its companion volume Passages from Antiquity to Feudalism left off Lineages traces the development of Absolutist states in the early modern period from their roots in European feudalism and assesses their various trajectories Why didn't Italy develop into an Absolutist state in the same indigenous way as the other dominant Western countries namely Spain France and England On the other hand how did Eastern European countries develop into Absolutist states similar to those of the West when their social conditions diverged so drastically Reflecting on examples in Islamic and East Asian history as well as the Ottoman Empire Anderson concludes by elucidating the particular role of European development within universal history

The Waves of Time K. R. Dark, 2016-10-06 Since the end of the Cold War analysts of international politics have given much greater attention to issues of change It has become increasingly clear to specialists from many fields that any understanding of large scale political change must encompass far longer timescales than has been usual in the study of world politics and must incorporate multi disciplinary perspectives This book evaluates and draws on relevant theoretical approaches from other disciplines such as sociology economics geography history anthropology and archaeology as well as evolutionary theory and the mathematical study of complexity Using an epistemological framework Dark sets out a theory of long term world political change the theory of Macrodynamics This is then applied to historical anthropological and archaeological data to explain the changing forms of political organization from the earliest human societies to the late twentieth century The resulting analysis is a reinterpretation of the processes of global political change in the past and present This in turn opens new areas of enquiry in the study of international relations and has profound implications for how we understand the changing world of today
