The Other Barack Sally H Jacobs, 2011-07-07 Barack Obama Sr father of the American president was part of Africa's independence generation and in 1959 it seemed his star would shine brightly He came to the U S from Kenya and was given a university scholarship While in the Hawaii he met Ann Dunham in 1961 and his son Barack was born He left his young family to gain a master's degree from Harvard After that Obama's life became progressively more complicated He was a brilliant economist yet never held the coveted government job he felt should have been his He was a polygamist an alcoholic and an ardent African nationalist unafraid to tell truth to power at a time when that could get you killed Father of eight nurturer of none he was an unlikely person to father the first African American president of the United States Yet he was like that son a man moved by the dream of a better world Now thanks to dozens of exclusive new interviews prodigious research and determined investigation Sally Jacobs tells his full story

Beyond Federation Emma Hunter, Daniel Branch, Ismay Milford, Gerard McCann, 2025-08-18 In the period of mid twentieth century decolonization when nationalism and globalism were hotly contested East Africans nurtured regionalism in their intellectual and creative work This book looks beyond political projects of federation to recover ideas and practices of regionalism their remarkable longevity and their significance for understanding possibilities of radical change In doing so it tells a different story about the fate of the category of East Africa building on a body of scholarship about the imagined political communities of decolonizing Africa and rejecting narratives that explain the failure of regional integration as the immediate consequence of postcolonial authoritarianism or global economic crisis Thomas Sankara Brian J.
