Rites Of Men:

The Rites of Men Varda Burstyn, 1999-01-01 It gathers more spectators on a global basis than any other activity today More than just a game sport has profound political and social consequences promoting a super aggressive ideal of manhood and political culture

The Men from the Boys Ray Raphael, 1988-01-01 Storytracking Sam D. Gill, 1998-02-12 Storytracking is a work of theory and application It is both a study of history and culture and the academic issues accompanying the interpretation and observation of other peoples Sam Gill writes about Central Australia but more importantly he writes about the business of trying to live responsibly and decisively in a postmodern world faced with irreconcilable diversity and complexity with undeniable ambiguity and uncertainty Storytracking includes engaging accounts of many of the colorful figures involved in the nineteenth century development of Central Australia and it is an argument for a multiperspectival theory of history It presents descriptions of an important aboriginal culture the Arrernte and it critically examines ethnography It exposes the colonialist underbelly of all modern academic culture study yet it embraces the situation as one of creative potential outlining an interactivist epistemology with which to negotiate the classical alternatives of objectivism and subjectivism Gill presents an examination of the emergent academic study of religion focused on two exemplary scholars Mircea Eliade and Jonathan Smith offering a play theory of religion as the basis for innovative critical discussions of text comparison interpretation the definition of religion academic writing style and the role of the other Based on painstakingly detailed research Gill exposes disturbing and confounding dimensions of the modern world particularly academia Yet beyond the pessimism that often characterizes postmodernity he charts an optimistic and creative course framed in the terms of play
