Ritual Cosmos The Sanctification Of Life In African Religions:

Ritual Cosmos Evan M. Zuesse, 1979 Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J. Sindima, 2012-07-10

In Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J Sindima provides an unconventional approach to the study of world religions. Often books and courses on religious studies focus on the major world religions. This approach however frequently ignores other religious experiences such as those of various African groups as well as the indigenous people of the Americas and Australia. These less widespread religions are commonly described in pejorative terms such as primitive religions or non literate religions. Focusing solely on well known religions is an approach that impoverishes religious studies and deprives students of the enormous wealth of religious knowledge of the world. Introduction to Religious Studies pulls together the diverse religious experience of Africans, Native Americans and the indigenous peoples of Australia in order to provide a comprehensive introduction to the study of religion and broaden the horizons of religious studies students. Under each theme or topic examples are drawn from religions of salvation as well as African and Native American religious traditions. This book provides students with a deep wide and very rich introduction to religious studies. The Church in Africa, 1450-1950

Adrian Hastings, 1995-01-05 I can merely admire his courage in tackling so complex and difficult a subject he should succeed in stimulating a fresh generation of research. This well written intelligent and lively study will greatly stimulate anyone fortunate enough to read it. Christianity provided the constitutive identity of historic Ethiopia. From the sixteenth century and increasingly from the nineteenth it entered decisively into the life and culture of an increasing number of other African peoples. In the course of the twentieth century African Christians have become a major part of the world Church and arguably modern African history as a whole is not intelligible without its powerful Christian element. Yet despite the great advance in African historiography over the last forty years this is the first major volume to consider the historical development and character of the Christian Church in Africa as a whole linking together Ehtiopia, Orthodoxy, Roman Catholicism, Protestantism and the numerous Independent churches of modern times. The book focuses throughout on the role of conversion, the shaping of Church life and its relationship to traditional values and the impact of political power. Professor Hastings also compares the relation of Christian history to the comprable development of Islam in Africa. What Is Religion? Jeppe Sinding Jensen, 2019-06-19

Starting from the premise that religion is a human endeavour that can be analysed and compared across time and cultures, What Is Religion brings the most up to date scholarship to bear on humankind's most enduring creation. Religious belief is one of the most pervasive and ubiquitous characteristics of human society. Religion has influenced human lives since prehistoric times, shaping the world views of cultures from isolated tribes to vast empires. The book opens with a brief history of the idea of religion, then divides the study of religion into four essential topics: types, representations, practices and institutions, and concludes with a final eye opening chapter on religion today. Packed with case studies from a wide range of religions past and present, What Is Religion offers a very current, comprehensive yet intellectually challenging overview of the history theories practices and study of religion Thoroughly updated throughout this second edition provides an accessible wide ranging engaging and concise book for undergraduate students in the study of religion It is also invaluable for students of anthropology history psychology sociology and theology as well as anyone interested in how and why humans became and continue to be religious Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie, Charl E Fredericks, 2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics

Religion and World Civilizations Andrew Holt, 2023-06-30 An indispensable resource for readers investigating how religion has influenced societies and cultures this three volume encyclopedia assesses and synthesizes the many ways in which religious faith has shaped societies from the ancient world to today Each volume of the set focuses on a different era of world history ranging through the ancient medieval and modern worlds Every volume is filled with essays that focus on religious themes from different geographical regions For example volume one includes essays considering religion in ancient Rome while volume three features essays focused on religion in modern Africa This accessible layout makes it easy for readers to learn more about the ways that religion and society have intersected over the centuries as well as specific religious trends events and milestones in a particular era and place in world history Taken as a whole this ambitious and wide ranging work gathers more than 500 essays from more than 150 scholars who share their expertise and knowledge about religious faiths tenets people places and events that have influenced the development of civilization over the course of recorded human history

Pentecostalism, Catholicism, and the Spirit in the World Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-10-17 This volume's essays are an ecumenical ensemble of the best scholars and leading practitioners in the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements from all four corners of the world The contributors bring together various denominational perspectives and dialogue for understanding the present momentum of these Spirit movements in the world church Their diverse methodologies transverse the traditional and new approaches to studying these movements Pointing the way forward the authors highlight some of the lessons learned in their scholarly engagement with Spirit movements These lessons offer significant insight and viewpoints for the academy in the historical analysis of these movements They also serve as a good guide for pastoral discernment and accompaniment for God's people in their daily lives as well as for social ministries in the world church This volume addresses questions of salvation and eschatology health and healing prosperity and poverty suffering and death fear and faith despair and hope Other topics include the conflict between charism and institution and the tension between cultic clericalism and the affirmation and use of the gifts and talents of lay members of Christ's faithful in the church

Critical Reflections on Indigenous Religions James L. Cox, 2016-04-22 The study of indigenous religions has become an important academic field particularly since the religious practices of indigenous peoples are being transformed by forces of globalization and transcontinental migration This book will further our understanding of indigenous religions by first considering key methodological issues related to defining and contextualizing the religious practices of indigenous societies both historically and in socio cultural situations Two further sections of the book analyse cases derived from European contexts which are often overlooked in discussion of indigenous religions and in two traditional areas of study South America and Africa

The Civilization of Illiteracy Mihai Nadin, 1997 Phenomena related to the transition from a literacy dominated civilization to one of various means of expression and communication are at the center of his book The fall of totalitarian regimes the current structural difficulties of the European Community the burden of state bureaucracies the world wide effort of re engineering and the global economy are part of the bigger picture of a necessary development

Roots and Routes: Poetics at New College of California Patrick James Dunagan, Marina Lazzara, Nicholas James Whittington, 2020-10-06 Roots and Routes gathers essays talks interviews statements notes and other prose writings by poets who studied and or taught at the New College of California s Masters in Poetics program over the course of its nearly 30 year existence The collection evokes a much needed anti hierarchical even anarchic pedagogy in poetry poetics and the literary arts and is part of a general reevaluation of standard higher education models on Creative Writing As such it will appeal to a wide range of students and scholars interested in America s recent literary history as well as to poets outside the academy and the general reader interested in US poetry and poetics
