A Long Stay in a Distant Land Chieh Chieng, 2008-12-01 The Lums are cursed Their early deaths come randomly strangely and often be it by tainted cheeseburger or speeding ice cream truck The most recent victim is Louis Lum s mother Now Louis must move back home with his gangsta rap obsessed father Sonny to prevent him from enacting the revenge he promises But soon Louis s concern shifts to his uncle Bo Lum who has disappeared in Hong Kong As Louis s search progresses the tragicomic story of three generations of Lums in America is revealed Chieh Chieng graduated from the creative writing program at the University of California Irvine and has been published in Glimmer Train the Threepenny Review and the Santa Monica Review Chosen for Barnes and Noble s Discover Great New Writers Program This is a dazzling debut poignant prickly and deliciously absurd Booklist Chieng is a fresh comic voice a touching and auspicious debut Orange Country Register Los Angeles Magazine ,2005-05 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Orange Coast Magazine ,2005-04 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County s most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design Each issue features an award winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles service journalism and authoritative articles on dining fashion home design and travel As Orange County s only paid subscription lifestyle magazine with circulation figures guaranteed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation Orange Coast is the definitive guidebook into the county s luxe lifestyle An Affair of the South Seas Leigh Hadley Irvine, 1901

Werth, 2018-05-31 In a period of dramatic social change when Orthodoxy and nationalism were the twin pillars of the Russian state how did the tsarist bureaucracy govern an expansive realm inhabited by the peoples of many nations and ethnicities professing various faiths Did the nature of tsarist rule change over time and did it vary from region to region Paul W Werth considers these large questions in his survey of imperial Russian rule in the vast Volga Kama region

First conquered in the sixteenth century the Volga Kama lands were by the nineteenth century both part of the Russian heartland and resolutely other the home of a mix of Slavic Finnic and Turkic peoples where the urge to assimilate was always counterbalanced by determined efforts to preserve cultural and religious differences The Volga Kama thus poses the dilemmas of empire in especially complex and telling ways Drawing on a wide range of printed and archival sources Werth untangles and reconstructs this complicated history focusing on the ways in which the tsarist state and Orthodox missions used conversion in their ongoing and regularly frustrated efforts to transform the region's Muslim and animist populations into imperial Orthodox citizens He shows that the regime became less concerned with religion and more concerned with secular attributes as the marker of cultural differences an emphasis that would change dramatically in the early years of Soviet rule

Asian American Fiction After 1965 Christopher T. Fan, 2024-04-23 After the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act loosened discriminatory restrictions people from Northeast Asian countries such as South Korea Taiwan Japan and eventually China immigrated to the United States in large numbers Highly skilled Asian immigrants flocked to professional managerial occupations especially in science technology engineering and math Asian American literature is now overwhelmingly defined by this generation's children who often struggled with parental and social expectations that they would pursue lucrative careers on their way to becoming writers Christopher T Fan offers a new way to understand Asian American fiction through the lens of the class and race formations that shaped its authors both in the United States and in Northeast Asia In readings of writers including Ted Chiang Chang rae Lee Ken Liu Ling Ma Ruth Ozeki Kathy Wang and Charles Yu he examines how Asian American fiction maps the immigrant narrative of intergenerational conflict onto the two cultures conflict between the arts and sciences Fan argues that the self consciousness found in these writers works is a legacy of Japanese and American modernization projects that emphasized technical and scientific skills in service of rapid industrialization He considers Asian American writers attraction to science fiction the figure of the engineer and notions of the postracial modernization theory and time travel and what happens when the dream of a stable professional identity encounters the realities of deprofessionalization and proletarianization Through a transnational and historical materialist approach this groundbreaking book illuminates what makes texts and authors Asian American
