The Longman Anthology of World Literature David Damrosch, David Lawrence Pike, 2009 The Longman Anthology is designed to open up the horizons of world literature placing major works within their cultural contexts and fostering connections and conversations between eras as well as regions The Longman Anthology of World Literature: The medieval era, 2009 The Longman Anthology is designed to open up the horizons of world literature placing major works within their cultural contexts and fostering connections and conversations between eras as well as regions The Longman Anthology of World Literature David Damrosch, David Lawrence Pike, 2008 The Longman Anthology of World Literature Compact Edition presents a fresh and diverse range of the world's great literature in a single volume that links past and present East and West and literary and cultural contexts Featuring major works by literary masters from the ancient world through the twentieth century this concise anthology combines comprehensive coverage of key works of the Western literary tradition and the best core enduring works of the literatures of China Japan India the Middle East Africa and native Americas The anthology includes epic and lyric poetry drama and prose narrative with many complete works and a focus on the most influential pieces and authors from each region and time period The texts are supplemented by contextual materials that help students understand the literary and historical eras from which these texts arose Engaging introductions scholarly annotations maps pronunciation guides and illustrations developed by a distinguished editorial team provide a wealth of teachable materials that support and illuminate the selections Globalization and Literature Suman Gupta, 2013-04-30 This book presents a state of the art overview of the relationship between globalization studies and literature and literary studies and the bearing that they have on each other It engages with the manner in which globalization is thematized in literary works examines the relationship between globalization theory and literary theory and discusses the impact of globalization processes on the production and reception of literary texts Suman Gupta argues that while literature has registered globalization processes in relevant ways there has been a missed articulation between globalization studies and literary studies Examples are given of some of the ways in which this slippage is now being addressed and may be taken forward taking up such themes as the manner in which anti globalization protests and world cities have figured in literary works the ways in which theories of postmodernism and postcolonialism familiar in literary studies have diverged from and converged with globalization studies and how industries to do with the circulation of literature are becoming globalized This book is intended for university level students and teachers researchers and other informed readers with an interest in the above issues and serves as both a survey of the field and an intervention within it Teaching Transatlanticism Linda K Hughes, 2015-02-05 The 18 chapters in this book outline conceptual approaches to the field and provide practical resources for teaching ranging from ideas for individual class sessions to full syllabi and curricular frameworks On Literary Worlds Eric Hayot, 2012-11-29 On Literary Worlds develops new strategies and perspectives for understanding aesthetic

worlds Comparative Literature: Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity - Volume I Lisa Block de Behar, Paola Mildonian, Jean-Michel Djian, Djelal Kadir, Alfons Knauth, Dolores Romero Lopez and Marcio Seligmann Silva, 2009-10-29 Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity theme is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledge s for Preserving Cultural Diversity provides six different topics 1 Language literature and human sustainability 2 Relationships among literature and other artistic activities and discourses 3 Comparative literature and other fields of knowledge 4 Comparative literature criticism and media 5 Comparative literature in the age of global change 6 Translatio studii and cross cultural movements or Weltverkehr These three volumes are aimed at a wide spectrum of audiences University and College Students Educators and Research Personnel The Concept of Humanity in an Age of Globalization Longxi Zhang, 2012 Rethinking humanity as a concept in our age of globalization and its relevance to the social and political reality of our times are the topic of this book It calls for the reclaiming of humanism as an effective response to the conflict turmoil and violence we witness in the world today Concepts of humanity and humanism have become suspect of naivete at best and guilty of bad faith and repressive ideologies at worst Yet hope for improvement is incorrigibly human the concept of humanity still holds enormous attraction to intellectuals and humanistic scholars At the same time it is important to realize that the critique of humanism is very much based on and limited to Western social and historical experience To re conceptualize humanity and humanism from a truly global perspective will help in reclaiming a more inclusive kind of humanism In this sense a cross cultural perspective is important for reclaiming humanism in our age of globalization The present volume is the result of such an effort The diversity of the authors views speaks eloquently to the complexity of the concept of humanity or what constitutes the distinctly human and therefore the necessity to have an in depth dialogue on the fate of humanity

Literature and the Experience of Globalization Svend Erik Larsen, 2017-10-19 How does literature represent challenge and help us understand our experience of globalization Taking literary globalization studies beyond its traditional political focus Literature and the Experience of Globalization explores how writers from Shakespeare through Goethe to Isak Dinesen J M Coetzee Amitav Ghosh and Bruce Chatwin engage with the human dimensions of globalization Through a wide range of insightful close readings Svend Erik Larsen brings contemporary world literature approaches to bear on cross cultural experiences of migration and travel translation memory history and embodied knowledge In doing so this important intervention demonstrates how literature becomes an essential site for understanding the ways in which globalization has become an integral part of everyday experience Swedish Women's Writing 1850-1995 Helena Forsas-Scott, 2000-12-01 Provides a survey of women s writing in Sweden from the beginnings of the struggle for emancipation in the 1850s to the present day These writers are seen within the political cultural and economic context of women s lives Modern critical currents are also assessed and Swedish feminist criticism is considered alongside the French and American traditions
