Love Your Neighbour Paul Brett, 1992-01 Animals on the Agenda Andrew Linzey, Dorothy Yamamoto, 1998 This encyclopaedic volume is the most comprehensive collection of original studies on animals and theology ever published With contributors from both sides of the Atlantic it tackles many apparently simple issues which raise fundamental questions about theology and how it is done Dictionary of Ethics, Theology and Society Paul A. B. Clarke, Andrew Linzey, 2013-11-05 This Dictionary provides a unique and groundbreaking survey of both the historical and contemporary interrelations between ethics theology and society In over 250 separately authored entries a selection of the world s leading scholars from many disciplines and many denominations present their own views on a wide range of topics Arranged alphabetically entries cover all aspects of philosophy theology ethics economics politics and government Each entry includes a concise definition of the term a description of the principal ideas behind it analysis of its history development and contemporary relevance a detailed bibliography giving the major sources in the field The entire field is prefaced by an editorial introduction outlining its scope and diversity Selected entries include Animal Rights Capital Punishment Communism Domestic Violence Ethics Evil Government Homophobia Humanism Liberation Theology Politics Pornography Racism Sexism Society Vivisection Women s Ordination One Layman's Contemporary Theology Michael S. K. Toh, 2014-07-17 The credential of the author is based upon the fact that he is a trained psychologist a biologist and a scientist and has been in management business fields for many years having been exposed in all aspects of commerce and finance He has a Master degree in Industrial Psychology from the University of Sydney Bachelor of Science degree with a double major in psychology from Australian National University and a major in Biology from RMIT Was awarded the Elizabeth and Martin Summit Prize in Psychology an annual award given to the most outstanding student in Psychology at Sydney University He has been teaching in a university for several years and was involved in politics for some time but voluntarily chose to pursue a different path because of the incompatible sets of values that are required against what he believed in He has a background of Buddhist and Confucian upbringing and was converted to being a follower of Jesus as a Catholic However he had been battling with what the churches taught and his knowledge and understanding in the fields of biology and psychology new discoveries of physical sciences in which he was trained against the background of his upbringing in a culture that was homogenous and has survived for more than 5000 years of history and his life experiences in the modern commercial materialistic world culture He believes in doing Gods work in whatever circumstances he was placed to be guided by the principles of what he believed Jesus has taught in establishing a consistent logical framework that is universal and more holistic the result of which is the writing of this book One of his greatest gifts is his ability to analyze things logically and he has been a good debater when he was at school He has thus put all his thoughts down gathered from his training life experiences and his wide exposure in the modern world environment to establish an overall consistent logical framework in understanding the meaning of life in the order of things and the role religion plays in assisting each individuals to achieve the universal objective of a salvation and the conflicts that are generated as a result of different derivatives of history and culture of the world Reviving the Golden Rule Andrew DeCort,2025-10-02 The Revolutionary Power of Loving Your Neighbor Discover the transformational power of neighbor love in theologian and ethicist Andrew DeCort s Reviving the Golden Rule This thought provoking work illuminates the revolutionary ethics of loving your neighbor weaving together history theology and practical guidance Through this in depth historical survey of the ethics of neighbor love DeCort invites readers to reclaim loving their neighbor as a powerful force for justice healing and human flourishing The biblical charges to love your neighbor as yourself and to do to others as you would have them do to you are at the heart of Abrahamic faith DeCort argues that they are also at the heart of some of the most groundbreaking developments in human rights and the common good Jesus taught neighbor love and promised Do this and you will flourish But Christians today are at high risk of ignoring or overthrowing the most daring teaching of Jesus movement Having heard it repeatedly and having benefited immensely from its cultural effects we have become dulled to neighbor love s revolutionary power In response Reviving the Golden Rule Explores the ethics of neighbor love from the ancient world to modern times Examines how neighbor love challenges the oppressive power of othering and expands human connection Highlights inspiring figures like Dietrich Bonhoeffer Mother Teresa and Oscar Romero who practiced neighbor love among marginalized communities Addresses instances where Christians have failed to uphold neighbor love Provides practical guidance on how to love and embrace othered neighbors today In one of the only historical and constructive works on the ethics of neighbor love DeCort invites us to reclaim this ancient movement Get your copy today and learn to embody this revolutionary practice amidst crises for the healing of the world The Love of Neighbour in Ancient Judaism

Kengo Akiyama,2018-06-05 In The Love of Neighbour in Ancient Judaism Kengo Akiyama traces the development of the mainstay of early Jewish and Christian ethics Love your neighbour Akiyama examines several Second Temple Jewish texts in great detail and demonstrates a diverse range of uses and applications that opposes a simplistic and evolutionary trajectory often associated with the development of the greatest commandment tradition The monograph presents surprisingly complex interpretative developments in Second Temple Judaism uncovering just how early interpreters grappled with the questions of what it means to love and who should be considered as their neighbour Doing Ethics in a Pluralistic World Helen M.

Business As Mission Kidane Araya, 2022-02-03 Business As Mission What does this mean exactly In my opinion business as mission is a broad concept God gives all an opportunity to make an impact in this world through the people we meet the community we engage with and nations we operate in On the other hand business as mission is a powerful way to expand the spiritual kingdom of God Business as mission plays out in many ways in the world It changes based on current events political historical and the economic environment What is consistent is the framework of understanding the world Wherever we are we must serve the kingdom of God That begins by firstly putting your trust in God When something happens unexpectedly in our life a certain gap is created and we can't see how to surpass it overcome it or move through it At these times we must stay close to God and accept His words He said all is good for those who love him and dedicate his life to him In these situations we must trust God wholeheartedly and offer prayers My hope in writing this book is to encourage people to engage in the world of business and to do so in a manner pleasing to God Business can be done in a manner that is honest faithful and right Once we realize everything belongs to God we begin to look at our responsibilities in that light In this book I will expand on how to work out this goal on a step by step basis and explain my reasoning further Dr Kidane Araya

The Bible and Zionism Nur Masalha, 2007-08 This text investigates the Biblical justification for Zionism charts the historical rise of Zionism since its 19th century roots Providing a contribution to the argument for a single democratic secular Israeli state it shows how the biblical language of chosen people promised land is used to justify ethnic division violence

Blessed Are Those Who Mourn Eros Shaw, Mark Larrimore and Michael Clifton, 2022-11-24 Eros opens up how the Good News of Jesus Christ contains amongst its many many implications the possibility of openness and truth telling about love between people of the same sex These are part of the one same communication of grace and mercy coming towards us from God The friends and colleagues who Eros has brought together here show us something of what it looks like to have found yourself forced by love to stand your ground and how the wolf deflates when it is faced with such faith James Alison Theologian priest and author In this book another revolution is underway in gay Christians Describing faith in the light of their sinful sexuality is part of the transformative revolution of the gospel itself As you read this book I hope you will see what I mean by hearing what these writers say Regardless of your own sexual preference if your faith is not deepened by seeing how their faith became more authentic as a result of their existential and social ordeals please read them again Laurence Freeman OSB Director World Community for Christian Meditation In this book you will find stories which reflect the great variety of gay Catholics experiences stories of hurt but also of healing stories of hiding but also of courage to speak the truth stories of conflict between personal experience and official teaching and attempts to bridge that gap I pray that this book will have a wide readership and that all who read it will grow in courage to speak their own truth and to help the Church develop its ministry in this important area Mgr Keith Barltrop Diocese of Westminster chaplain to LGBT people This is a profoundly important book which gives voice to Chinese LGBTQI Catholics living inside and outside of China These testimonies are hugely insightful into the heartfelt desires and hopes and anguishes of Chinese men and women The struggle of coming out of the closet to live an open and authentic life as a gay person is an ongoing battle Their stories which we can all identify with to some degree makes for compulsive reading I cannot recommended this work by Eros highly enough Ruby Almeida Co chair Global Network of Rainbow Catholics The stories in this book may challenge people to look at themselves and their faith in new ways While that may be difficult it is a good thing and should be looked on as a gift from God It is through these sharing of stories that our Church and our faith develop May these stories help to bring light to our Church and to our world Francis DeBernardo Executive director New Ways Ministry

Divine Flesh, Embodied Word Anne-Claire Mulder, 2025-10-01 What has Luce Irigaray's statement that women need a God to do with her thoughts on the relation between body and mind or the sensible and the intelligible Using the theological notion incarnation as a hermeneutical key Anne Claire Mulder brings together and illuminates the interrelations between these different themes in Luce Irigaray's work Seesawing between Luce Irigaray's critique of philosophical discourse and her constructive philosophy Mulder elucidates Irigaray's thoughts on the relations between becoming woman and becoming divine She shows that Luce Irigaray's restaging of the relation between the sensible and the intelligible between flesh and Word is key to her reinterpretation of the relation between woman and God In and through her interpretation of Luce Irigaray's thoughts on the flesh she argues that the relation between flesh and Word must be seen as a dialectical one instead of as a dualistic relation This means that incarnation is no longer seen as a one way process of Word becoming flesh but as a continuing process of flesh becoming word and word becoming flesh For all images and thoughts including those of God are produced by the flesh divine in its creativity inexhaustibility in response to the touch of the other And these images thoughts words in turn become embodied by touching and moving the flesh of the subject

The Identity of Christian Morality Ann Marie Mealey, 2016-03-03 This book argues that moral theology has yet to embrace the recommendations of the Second Vatican Council concerning the ways in which it is to be renewed One of the reasons for this is the lack of consensus between theologians regarding the nature content and uniqueness of Christian morality After highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of the so called autonomy and faith ethic schools of thought Mealey argues that there is little dividing them and that in some instances both schools are simply defending one aspect of a hermeneutical dialectic In an attempt to move away from the divisions between proponents of the faith ethic and autonomy positions Mealey enlists the help of the hermeneutical theory of Paul Ricoeur She argues that many of the disagreements arising from the Christian proprium debate can be overcome if scholars look to the possibilities opened up by Ricoeur s hermeneutics of interpretation Mealey also argues that the uniqueness of Christian morality is more adequately explained in terms of a specific identity self that is constantly subject to change and revision in light of many often conflicting moral sources She advocates a move away from attempts to explain the uniqueness of Christian morality in terms of one specific unchanging context motivation norm divine command or value By embracing the possibilities opened up by Ricoeurian hermeneutics Mealey explains how concepts such as revelation tradition orthodoxy and moral conscience may be understood in a hermeneutical way without being deemed sectarian or unorthodox
