

A LOVELY LOVE STORY

by Edward Monkton

The fierce Dinosaur was trapped inside his cage of ice.
Although it was cold he was happy in there. It was, after all, his cage.

Then along came the Lovely Other Dinosaur.
The Lovely Other Dinosaur melted the Dinosaur's cage with kind words and loving thoughts.

"I like this Dinosaur," thought the Lovely Other Dinosaur.
"Although he is fierce he is also tender and he is funny.
He is also quite clever though I will not tell him this for now."

"I like this Lovely Other Dinosaur," thought the Dinosaur.
"She is beautiful and she is different and she smells so nice.
She is also a free spirit which is a quality I much admire in a dinosaur."

"But he can be so distant and so peculiar at times," thought the Lovely Other Dinosaur.
"He is also overly fond of things. Are all Dinosaurs so overly fond of things?"

"But her mind skips from here to there so quickly," thought the Dinosaur. "She is also uncommonly keen on shopping. Are all Lovely Other Dinosaurs so uncommonly keen on shopping?"

"I will forgive his peculiarity and his concern for things," thought the Lovely Other Dinosaur, "for they are part of what makes him a richly charactered individual."

"I will forgive her skipping mind and her fondness for shopping," thought the Dinosaur,
"for she fills our life with beautiful thoughts and wonderful surprises. Besides, I am not unkeen on shopping either."

Now the Dinosaur and the Lovely Other Dinosaur are old. Look at them. Together they stand on the hill telling each other stories and feeling the warmth of the sun on their backs.

And that, my friends, is how it is with love.
Let us all be Dinosaurs and Lovely Other Dinosaurs together.
For the sun is warm. And the world is a beautiful place.

Mules, Men and Mountains Charles Hays,2014-06-23 This book is a work of historical military fiction that describes the impact of ski troopers and their Mules on accelerating the end of World War II in Italy That Great War was winding down in Europe but in the Apennine Mountains of Italy large quantities of Italian and Nazi soldiers were still well entrenched They were some of the best troops that either Benito Mussolini or Adolf Hitler could place in action against any Yankee advance Each of them were very capable of doing considerable harm to a typical infantry division which had not been trained to fight under these harsh environmental conditions of thick snow banks extremely low temperatures severe freezing winds and rigorous ecological demands This is to say that a typical infantry division and their artillery would have been seriously stalled by the deep snow drifts As one advisor said For the entrenched enemies it would have been like shooting ducks in a pond Fortunately the US Army listened to the sage advice of their various consultants The US Army formed their own Ski Trooper outfit to rid the mountain tops from their unwanted occupants the soldiers of Italy and Germany That outfit was named the Tenth Mountain Division but as time passed on the newsreels began to call them by a better name they were known as Ruffners Raiders Brigadier General David L Ruffner was the Commanding General of the Tenth Mountain Division Artillery Although The Tenth Division entered the combat zones rather late in the day they still had one of the highest casualty rates for that War of
