Loves Of Joao Vencio:

The Loves of João Vêncio José Luandino Vieira, 1991 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association. As its predecessor for East Central Europe, this two-volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter-literary relations. Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested. Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field, this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula. The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda. A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo-cultural account of literary inter-systems which cannot otherwise be explained.

Multiculturalism & Hybridity in African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting, 2000. This volume of essays covers all phases and geographical areas of African literature, including lesser-known areas such as oral literature, literature written in African languages, and Lusophone literature. Also included are articles on Caribbean literature, developments in South African theatre, and two articles on African film. Several writers receive special attention: Chinua Achebe, Maryse Conde, Wole Soyinka, Niyi Osundare, Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, and Hampate Ba. Also included are the key note addresses by Achebe, Conde, and Osundare.

How Peripheral is the Periphery? Translating Portugal Back and Forth João Ferreira Duarte, Rita Bueno Maia, Marta Pacheco Pinto, 2015-09-18. This volume is a result of the need to reflect upon Portugal's position from the viewpoint of the literary assets imported and exported through translation. It brings together a number of scholars working in the field of Translation Studies directly concerned with the Portuguese cultural system in order to analyse this question from various theoretical perspectives and from case studies of translation flows and movements in Portuguese culture. By Translating Portugal Back and Forth, the articles discuss issues such as how can one draw the borderline between a peripheral and a semi-peripheral system? Is this borderline useful or necessary? How peripheral is the Portuguese cultural system as far as translation transfers are concerned? How stable or pacific has this positioning been? Does the economic and historical perception of Portugal as peripheral entail that from the viewpoint of translation it would behave similarly? By addressing some of these questions and as shown by the second subtitle, Essays in Honour of João Ferreira Duarte, the volume pays homage to one of the most prominent Translation Studies scholars in Portugal who has extensively reflected on the binary discourse on translation, its metaphors and images.

Lusophone Africa Fernando Arenas, 2011. Situates the cultures of Portuguese-speaking Africa within the postcolonial

Culture and Customs of Angola Adebayo O. Oyebade, 2006-11-30 Angola has been brutalized by the civil war which only ended in 1992 The war s adverse effect on every facet of Angola s post independence life is clearly evident in the range of topics covered in this volume The human cost of the war can be counted in the enormous loss of life and large scale population displacement and in the continued postwar deaths and serious injuries inflicted by mines The war also severely stunted economic growth and the development of necessary social services However since the end of the war Angola is slowly progressing Many people have returned to their homes to continue their life The task of rebuilding has been greatly assisted by humanitarian aid Readers will learn about the nearly 100 ethnolinguistic groups and their various ways of life Oyeade shows how religion defines the cultural character of the country Christianity the dominant religion is portrayed as more urban based popular among the educated elite and middle class Indigenous religious practices still popular particularly in the rural areas are covered as well Oyeade celebrates the prolific Portuguese language literary output and the skilled Angolan artists Discussion of the traditional foods ceremonies music and dance and more rounds out the coverage

Global Impact of the Portuguese Language

Asela de Laguna, 2018-01-16 Within the cultural and literary context of contemporary Portugal and Western literature 1998 was unquestionably the year that Portuguese writing gained international recognition as JosU Saramago became the first Portuguese writer ever to receive the Nobel Prize in literature Readers who had never thought about Portuguese letters began to consume his books and most importantly opted for expanding their reading lists to include other important writers not only from Portugal but from Portuguese speaking well beyond the borders of Portugal Global Impact of the Portuguese Language is a collection of Portuguese writing that is as rich in content and broad in scope as the diversity of its topics and writing modes of its contributors The book is divided into three major parts Part 1 Different Cultural Perspectives of Portuguese Writing contains thirteen chapters in which the first and opening one Portugal The New Frontier ably sets the stage for the book by examining from a cultural perspective how Portugal a peripheral country in the new world system serves as a microcosm of the problems of cultural intercommunication in today s world Subsequent chapters are grouped in three categories The Voices of the Writers Critical Approaches to Cames and Fictionalizing the Nation Part 2 Portuguese Language and Literature Outside Portugal comprises one section devoted to the Portuguese language in Africa followed by studies about Portuguese discoveries as part of the historical process of remembering and forging one s identity and finally a comprehensive historical development of Portuguese writing both in Portuguese and English in the United States Part 3 Portuguese Literature and Criticism Available in English Suggested Readings details the recent literary happenings which point to a possible renaissance in Portuguese literary production The concluding part of this volume offers a short comprehensive listing of anthologies general studies and the most popular translations of the best of Portuguese writing from Portugal and Africa This lively volume constitutes a first pioneering effort to contribute to a deepening appreciation and understanding of Portuguese writing Anyone interested in ethnic writing will find this book an invaluable education resource with which to begin an exploration of Portuguese writing in the United States Asela Rodriguez de Laguna is associate professor of Spanish and director of the Hispanic Civilization Language Studies Program She is the author of Notes on Puerto Rican Literature Images and Identities An Introduction and editor of Images and Identities The Puerto Rican in Two World Contexts

Translocal Modernisms

Maria Irene Ramalho Sousa Santos, Irene Ramalho Santos, António Sousa Ribeiro, 2008 The full story of modernism is yet to be written This collection of essays provides an important page in this complex and inconclusive story of fluidities and hybridities by rendering problematical the linear sequence from modernism to postmodernism This book explores the many facets of modernism in a variety of essays written by an international group of scholars It deals with and puts in question the western literary tradition in many of its transcontinental and trans hemispheric encounters Criticism of high modernism is put in perspective by discussions of German reactionary modernism American social modernism and minor arts mid twentieth century Baudelairean modernity and unprecedented expansions of the concepts of modernity and modernism themselves Engaging in dialogue with the newest geographical transnational and global enlargements of the concept of modernism in time and space from the Middle Passage to emergent cultures of the twenty first century from Europe to America Africa and Asia the volume covers a wide range of translocal and transtemporal literary artistic cultural and social fields and perspectives

Historical Dictionary of Angola W. Martin James, 2018-03-01 Angola slowly recovering from a twenty seven year civil war is becoming a regional super power in southern Africa This rise can be attributed to oil diamonds a battle tested armed forces and a political system that is dominated by one party the Movimento Popular de Libertação de Angola the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola MPLA Problems remain to be solved The vast wealth is in the control of the elite while the vast majority of the people live on less than two dollars per day Corruption is rife the health and education system in shambles landmines remain a festering problem and the opposition is intimidated and split into various factions President Eduardo dos Santos who has ruled Angola for almost thirty eight years has opted not to run for re election in the August 2017 elections Instead his hand picked successor João Lourenço was elected president Interestingly dos Santos has not surrendered his presidency of the party This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Angola contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Angola

The Last Train to Zona Verde Paul Theroux, 2013-05-07 The acclaimed author of Dark Star Safari journeys across western Africa in this thoroughly engrossing and at times tragic travelogue Washington Post Paul Theroux's best selling Dark Star Safari chronicled his epic overland voyage from Cairo to Cape Town providing an insider's look at modern Africa Now with The Last Train to Zona Verde he returns to discover how both he and Africa have changed in the ensuing years Traveling alone Theroux sets out from Cape Town going north through South Africa Namibia then into Angola encountering a world increasingly removed from tourists itineraries and the hopes of postcolonial independence movements After covering nearly 2 500 arduous miles Theroux cuts short his journey a decision he chronicles with unsparing honesty in a chapter titled What Am I Doing Here Vivid witty and beautifully evocative The Last Train to Zona Verde is a fitting final African adventure from the writer whose gimlet eye and effortless prose have brought the world to generations of readers If this book is proof age has not slowed Theroux or encouraged him to rest on his achievements Gutsy alert to Africa's struggles

its injustices and history San Francisco Chronicle
