Loves Golden Touch:

Love's Golden Touch Jane Lester,1981-01-01 Love Them Back to Life Ariane Page,2014-10-09 As the oak tree is summarized in the acorn so nature is summarized in the human brain They express a model Looking at this small acorn though no one can foresee the majestic oak tree it might become Of course with only its genetic code it will not develop In the same way humans are called to become what our ancestors and even we cannot foresee But in order to develop all our potentialities some conditions must be met We surround this acorn with nutrients water earth and light allowing it to be part of a living whole For humans this living whole is nature and society Alas at this time both have become deficient The model is not allowed to freely unfold This model was intuitively grasped by all great traditions It led psychoanalyst Carl Gustav Jung to find in Taoism principles so vast that they can be applied to the entire humanity With the rise of modern science though this vision vanished However brain research results agree with the model so science is now on the brink of rediscovering it In Love them back to Life her second book Ariane Page takes us on a discovery journey through this model expressed by the human brain as she focuses on love Love is the tool used by this model the LIFE Law Inherent to the Five Elements to eventually lead us to coherence between our physical emotional mental social and spiritual realities In that holism we will truly feel alive happy and loved

Clack,2000-08-30 From the Middle Ages to the close of the 17th century alchemy was fundamental to Western culture as scores of experimenters sought to change lead into gold Though its significance declined with the rise of chemistry alchemy continued to captivate the imagination of writers and its images still appear in modern creative works This book examines the literary representation of alchemical theory and the metaphor of alchemical regeneration in the works of Edward Taylor Edgar Allan Poe Nathaniel Hawthorne and Margaret Fuller While Taylor used alchemical metaphors to illustrate the redeeming grace of God upon the soul these same metaphors were used by Poe Hawthorne and Fuller to depict a broader concept of redemption These later writers used alchemical imagery to describe both the regeneration of the individual and the possible transformation of society For Poe alchemy became a metaphor for the transforming power of imagination for Hawthorne it became a means of representing the redeeming power of love for Fuller it figured the reconciliation of gender opposites Thus these four American writers incorporated the idea of regeneration in their works and the tropes and metaphors of the medieval alchemists provided a fascinating way of imagining the transformative process The Reception of Ancient Greece and Rome in Children's Literature ,2015-09-07 Greece and Rome have long featured in books for children and teens whether through the genres of historical fiction fantasy mystery stories or mythological compendiums These depictions and adaptations of the Ancient World have varied at different times however in accordance with changes in societies and cultures This book investigates the varying receptions and ideological manipulations of the classical world in children s literature Its subtitle Heroes and Eagles reflects the two most common ways in which this reception appears namely in the forms of the portrayal of the Greek heroic world of classical mythology on the one hand and of the Roman imperial presence on the other Both of these are ideologically loaded approaches intended to educate the young reader
