Loves Redemption:

Armorbearers Gerald Watford, 2014-05-06 There is a desperate need for effective leadership today in our nation in our churches in our families and even in ourselves The Bible uses the term armorbearer to describe leaders who offer help support and strength to those around them These types of servant leaders are needed now more than ever Using Scripture as the guide Armorbearers takes readers down a path of self discovery pursuing greatness by developing character that is forged on the anvil of self restraint and tested through the heat of self discipline Packed with inspiring stories and powerful lessons Armorbearers reveals the four revolutionary choices every leader must make risking their own significance in order to encounter God in life altering ways Are you ready to become an armorbearer Ways of Love the Heart, Mind and Soul Thomas Allen Bateham, 2010-01-02 This is the combined collections of the many ways of love and poems of the heart mind and soul I thought it would be better to put them together Here for you now is fifty poems to inspire you Come along on the wondrous journey to see what awaits you Towards Polaris Mason Smith, 2008 Robert Sochia a young man just acquitted of murder returns to his hometown not far from the Canadian border Julia a recently arrived music student full of new ideas of love and sexual freedom befriends him and helps him start a new life But when the couple abruptly leave town several townspeople believe Robert has kidnapped Julia What'S so Good About the Good News? Charles Lee Bilberry, 2012-03-21 The word gospel literally means good news It is the good news that God saves sinners Man is by nature sinful and separated from God with no hope of remedying that situation But God by His power provided the means of mans redemption in the death burial and resurrection of the Savior Jesus Christ The Bible is full of good news But there is no greater news than the salvation we have through Jesus Christ In Whats So Good About The Good News the author explains why the good news is so good through eight doctrinal elements that are essential to the Christians faith Power, Love and Evil Wayne Cristaudo, 2008 Love and evil are real they are substances of force fields which contain us as constituent parts Of all the powers of life they are the two most pregnant without meaning hence the most generative of what is specifically human Love and evil stand in the closest relationship to each other evil is both what destroys love and what forces more love out of us it is as Augustine astutely grasped privative requiring something to negate but it is also born out of misdirected love Breaking with na ve realist and post modern dogmas about the nature of the real this book provides the basis for a philosophy of generative action as it draws upon examples from philosophy literature religion and popular culture While this book has a sympathetic ear for ancient and traditional narratives about the meaning of life it offers a philosophy appropriate for our times and our crises It is particularly directed at readers who are seeking for new ways to think about our world and self making and who are as dissatisfied with post Nietzschean and post Marxian 20th century social theory as they are by more traditional philosophical and naturalistic accounts of human being The God Who Loves You Peter Kreeft, 2009-09-03 God s love is the subject of Peter Kreeft s imaginative and thoughtful book a revised and updated version of his book Knowing the Truth of God's Love With unusual clarity Kreeft points out that the man or woman who begins to glimpse the God who is Creator Redeemer and Lover of our souls will never be the same He describes Scripture as God's love story and then tells why divine love is the answer to our deepest problems and the fulfillment of our deepest desires Posing the hard questions about love that rankle the heart Peter Kreeft never settles for easy answers He exposes today's superficial attitudes about love to lead people to a deeper understanding of what it means to be loved by God addressing these issues and many more

A Complete Body of Doctrinal and Practical Divinity; Or, a System of Evangelical Truths, Deduced from the Sacred Scriptures. A New Edition John GILL (D.D., Baptist Minister, at Horsley Down.), 1795 Goethe, Nietzsche, and Wagner T. K. Seung, 2006-01-01 The author reads Goethe's Faust as the first epic written under Spinoza's influence. He shows how its thematic development is governed by Spinoza's pantheistic naturalism. He further contends that Wagner and Nietzsche have tried to surpass their mentor Goethe's work by writing their own Spinozan epics of love and power in The Ring of the Nibelung and Thus Spoke Zarathustra. These Spinozan epics are designed to succeed the Christian epics in the Western literary tradition. Whereas the Christian epics dared to groom human beings for their destiny in the supernatural world, the Spinozan epics try to reinstate humanity as the children of Mother Nature and overcome their alienation from the natural world which had been dictated by the long reign of Christianity. However, it has been well noted that none of these new epics seems to hang together thematically as a coherent work. By his Spinozan reading, the author not only demonstrates the thematic unity of each of them singly but further illustrates their thematic relation with each other. God's Enduring Love in the Book of Hosea Joy Philip Kakkanattu, 2006 Joy Philip Kakkanattu provides an exegetical and theological analysis of an important and difficult text of the Old Testament through a synchronic and diachronic reading. Detailed critical notes which discuss the textual difficulties accompany the translation of the text from Hebrew. In the detailed exegesis, special attention is given to the study of the key terms theologically significant in Hos 11:1-11 against the context of the whole book. The exegesis shows that in Hos 11:8-9 it is not the repentance of Yahweh that causes the withholding of His anger against Israel but Yahweh's constancy in His election of Israel as His son. More than a change of heart, the decision not to execute the deserved judgement witnesses Yahweh's divine nature. Special attention is dedicated to the parent metaphor employed in Hos 11:1-11. It is concluded that more than expressing the Yahweh-Israel relationship as a father-son relationship, the text speaks of it in terms of parent-child relationship. In the diachronic analysis, the author deals with the origin and formation of Hos 11:1-11.

A Gorgon's Mask Lewis A. Lawson, 2005-01-01 The thesis of A Gorgon's Mask: The Mother in Thomas Mann's Fiction depends upon three psychoanalytic concepts: Freud's early work on the relationship between the infant and its mother and on the psychology of artistic creation; Annie Reich's analysis of the grotesque comic sublimation; and Edmund Bergler's analysis of writer's block. Mann's crisis of sexual anxiety in late adolescence is presented as the defining moment for his entire artistic life. In the throes of that crisis, he included a sketch of a female as Gorgon in a book that would not escape his mother's notice. But to defend himself from being overcome by the Gorgon mother's stare, he employed the grotesque comic sublimation, hiding the mother figure behind fictional characters physically attractive but psychologically repellent. All the while, couching his fiction in an ironic tone that evoked humor, however lacking in humor, the subtext might be. In this manner, he could deny to himself that the mother figure always lurked in his work and by that denial deny that he was a victim of oral regression. For as Edmund Bergler argues, the creative writer who acknowledges his oral dependency will inevitably succumb to writer's block Mann's late work reveals that his defense against the Gorgon is crumbling In Doctor Faustus Mann portrays Adrian Leverkühn as ultimately the victim of oral regression but the fact that Mann was able to compete the novel despite severe physical illness and psychological distress demonstrates that he himself was still holding writer's block at bay In Confessions of Felix Krull Confidence Man a narrative that he had abandoned forty years before Mann was finally forced to acknowledge that he was depleted of creative vitality but not of his capacity for irony brilliantly couching the victorious return of the repressed in ambiguity This study will be of interest to general readers who enjoy Mann's narrative art to students of Mann's work especially its psychological and mythological aspects and to students of the psychology of artistic creativity Barrett Fuller's Secret Scott Carter, 2013-09-01 Barrett Fuller's privileged life is about to change radically or else Barrett Fuller is a world famous and very wealthy children's author who writes under a pseudonym because he's a self absorbed womanizer and drug user His life changes when he receives an extortion letter challenging him to live up to the morals he currently espouses in his books He is presented with a series of tasks to complete or face having his identity revealed to the public resulting in the ruin of his financial empire Richard Fuller Barrett's nephew has a secret too and it's one no kid should bear He knows why his father left the family and he's never told his mother When the extortionist challenges Barrett to spend time with his nephew their respective secrets move towards a collision that will change their lives forever Apple Creek Robert Steibel,
