The Uganda Martyrs and the Need for Appropriate Role Models in Adolescents' Moral Formation Charles Lwanga Mubiru, 2012 Uganda like elsewhere in the world is experiencing a moral decline Many in Uganda are concerned that this necessitates acquainting the nation's young people with appropriate Christian role models beginning with an understanding of God Jesus Christ and the Saints particularly the Ugandan martyrs The book's author envisages no substantial moral renewal if Ugandan adults themselves do not provide a good moral example and create a favorable moral environment Otherwise Ugandan young people will be building a personal identity through trial and error without any goalpost in sight and thus perpetuating a state of moral decline Series Theologie Vol 102

Saint Ignatius of Loyola John Hungerford Pollen, 1922 Fostering Children's Faith Jeanne Hall, 2012-03-29 Fostering faith in children is a shared privilege and responsibility of parents godparents and the church community We promise our children at baptism that we will support them in their faith formation in the formation of their relationship with God We need to take this promise seriously This book is intended to be an accessible and helpful resource for parents and other adults who seek to foster children's faith. This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children's faith formation including our day to day interactions with children, the images of God we share with them, how we pray together, the rituals we create, service opportunities we provide, music we share together, the stories we tell and listen to, our celebration of the sacraments and more. While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation, much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience. Lastly, but perhaps most importantly, this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with and that we hope to foster our children's relationship with is one who is infinitely loving, welcoming, and always yearning for deeper connection with us. Matthew 26-28 Amy Welborn, Kevin Perrotta, 2009-07-20

Matthew 26-28 Jesus' Life-Giving Death offers a close look at the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ in Matthew's Gospel. A Guided Discovery of the Bible The Bible invites us to explore God's word and reflect on how we might respond to it. To do this, we need guidance and the right tools for discovery. The Six Weeks with the Bible series of Bible discussion guides offers both in a concise six-week format. Whether focusing on a specific biblical book or exploring a theme that runs throughout the Bible, these practical guides in this series provide meaningful insights that explain Scripture while helping readers make connections to their own lives. Each guide is faithful to Church teaching and is guided by sound biblical scholarship. It presents the insights of Church fathers and saints, includes questions for discussion and reflection, delivers information in a reader-friendly format, gives suggestions for prayer that help readers respond to God's word, appeals to beginners as well as to advanced students of the Bible. By reading Scripture, reflecting on its deeper meanings, and incorporating it into our daily life, we can grow not only in our understanding of God's word but also in our relationship with God. One Thousand Gifts Ann Voskamp, 2011-01-04 More than 1.5 million copies sold. What if you discovered that the life you already have is the life you've always wanted? What if joy and gratefulness is possible right where you are? New York Times bestselling author Ann Voskamp invites you to embrace everyday blessings and embark on the transformative journey of thankfulness and chronicling God's gifts. How can you find joy in the midst of deadlines, debt, drama, and even the death of loved ones? What does the Christ life really look like when your days are gritty, long, and sometimes even dark? How is God even here? It is in the dark that God is passing by our lives, shake not, because God has abandoned, but the exact opposite: God is passing by. God is in the tremors. Dark is the holiest ground, the glory passing by. In the blackest, God is closest at work, forging His perfect and right will. Though it is black and we can't see, and our world seems to be free-falling and we feel utterly alone, Christ is most present to us. In One Thousand Gifts, Ann Voskamp invites you to discover a way of seeing that opens your eyes to ordinary, amazing grace; a way of living that is fully alive; and a way of becoming present to God that brings deep and lasting joy. It's only in the expression of gratitude for the life we already have that we discover the life we've always wanted: a life we can take, give thanks for, and break for others. Come to feel and know the impossible right down in your bones: you are wildly loved by God. As Ann invites you into her own beautiful heart, aching moments of amazing grace, she gently teaches you how to Biblically lament loss and turn pain into poetry Intentionally embrace a lifestyle of radical gratitude Slow down and catch God in the moment Not a book merely to read One Thousand Gifts is an invitation to engage with truths that will serve up the depths of God s joy and transform your life forever Leave pride fear and control behind and abandon yourself to the God who overflows your cup Touching the Heart William J. Bausch,2007 No one can write about storytelling like Father Bill Bausch Both his words and his stories are compelling convincing and completely absorbing Here in this landmark work which he insists is his last his goal is to help readers see the centrality of stories to read and hear Scripture as story and not as history and to learn to enrich and expand their lives by looking at the story behind the story He wants to break readers out of the literalism that constricts their spiritual and social lives so they might gain an appreciation of metaphor and symbol and the sacramentality of the world The Publishers Weekly ,2003
