LSE ON SOCIAL SCIENCE HELEN. DIAMOND SASSON (D.R.),2018

The Passionate Economist Sally Sheard,2014 Brian Abel Smith was one of the most influential figures in the shaping of social welfare in the twentieth century A modern day Thomas Paine the British economist and expert advisor was driven to improve the lives of the poor working with groups like the World Health Organization International Labour Organization and the World Bank to help bring health and social welfare services to millions across the globe The Passionate Economist is the first biography to chronicle his life and the many programs he helped create Sally Sheard details Abel Smith s work as an economist and advocate setting it against the backdrop of the larger history of health and social welfare development since the 1950s She analyzes these developments and the effects that long running welfare debates have had on both poverty and state responses to it She compares welfare implementation in different developing countries and examines how it was administered by the agencies for which Abel Smith worked The result is an accessible book on a leading humanitarian and through him a history of exactly how we have cared for each other in the globalized era On Freedom Eileen une institution d'enseignement et de recherche a-t-elle contribué à la théorisation et la mise en pratique d'un système politique et social. Quels sont les effets en retour de sa prise de position sur la scène publique ? Comment dialoguent science et pouvoir dans la Grande-Bretagne du Welfare State de 1940-1979 ? Les rapports complexes de légitimation ou de critique entre science et politique, entre savoir et pouvoir sont au cœur de cet ouvrage.

Colin Gray Matthew, Brian Harrison, 2004 55 000 biographies of people who shaped the history of the British Isles and beyond from the earliest times to the year 2002 Father and Daughter Oakley, Ann, 2014-10-22

Father and daughter provides a unique insider perspective on two key figures in twentieth century British social science. Ann Oakley, a highly respected sociologist and best selling writer, draws on her own life and that of her father Richard Titmuss, a well known policy analyst and defender of the welfare state, to offer an absorbing view of the connections between private lives and public work. Using an innovative mix of biography, autobiography, intellectual history, archives and personal interviews, some of which have not been previously available to the public, she provides a compelling narrative about gender, patriarchy, methodology and the politics of memory and identity. This fascinating analysis defies the usual social science publications to offer a truly distinctive account which will be of wide interest.

Dressed to Impress William J. F. Keenan, 2001-03 How humans dress defines their identity. These writings show how the dressed body is central to the construction of a recognizable identity and provide accessible accounts of the link between dress and a considerable variety of lifestyles. Index of Economic

London School of Economics and Political Science. LSE has never confined itself to economics and political science but has embraced the full range of the social sciences and its related disciplines. Contributors to this book were invited to write on what they considered of importance concerning the subject of freedom. The volume is an exemplary reflection of the variety, the individuality, the different interests and the range of assumptions found in the scholars of the LSE. The authors come from varied backgrounds: linguistics, mathematics, computer science, sociology, geography, economics, industrial relations, anthropology, political science. They provide a stimulating array of viewpoints on the universally discussed issue of freedom.
