H. Sharar, 1989 The Making of the Awadh Culture Madhu Trivedi, 2010 This book makes an extensive study of the art and culture of Awadh during the Nawabi period c 1722 1856 with a focus on the city of Lucknow The work takes up evidence available in a variety of primary and secondary sources especially in the Persian and Urdu languages in its study of visuals and artefacts as well as performance traditions and craft techniques which are derived from this period Highlighting the literary milieu of the period and the developments in the realm of music painting architecture and industrial arts this volume also explores how some of the arts and crafts assumed considerable European colour and demonstrates how the ethos of the syncretic Indo Persian culture the renowned ganga jamuni tahriz remained intact Satyajit Ray Andrew Robinson, 1989-01-01 Profiles the life of the Indian director and discusses the making of each of his films The Scattered Court Richard David Williams, 2023-04-25 Presents a new history of how Hindustani court music responded to the political transitions of the nineteenth century How far did colonialism transform north Indian music In the period between the Mughal empire and the British Raj how did the political landscape bleed into aesthetics music dance and poetry Examining musical culture through a diverse and multilingual archive primarily using sources in Urdu Bengali and Hindi that have not been translated or critically examined before The Scattered Court challenges our assumptions about the period Richard David Williams presents a long history of interactions between northern India and Bengal with a core focus on the two courts of Wajid Ali Shah 1822 1887 the last ruler of the kingdom of Awadh He charts the movement of musicians and dancers between the two courts in Lucknow and Matiyaburj as well as the transregional circulation of intellectual traditions and musical genres and demonstrates the importance of the exile period for the rise of Calcutta as a celebrated center of Hindustani classical music Since Lucknow is associated with late Mughal or Nawabi society and Calcutta with colonial modernity examining the relationship between the two cities sheds light on forms of continuity and transition over the nineteenth century as artists and their patrons navigated political ruptures and social transformations The Scattered Court challenges the existing historiography of Hindustani music and Indian culture under colonialism by arguing that our focus on Anglophone sources and modernizing impulses has directed us away from the aesthetic subtleties historical continuities and emotional dimensions of nineteenth century music Music and Dance As Everyday South Asia Zoe C. Sherinian, Sarah L. Morelli, 2024 This book offers an inclusive lens through which to study the music and dance of South Asia its diasporas and the people who produce and use these cultural expressions Each chapter's central argument ties into a participatory exercise that provides active ways to understand and engage with cultural meaning      Minority Pasts Razak Khan,2022-06-01

Minority Pasts explores the diversity of the histories and identities of Muslims in Rampur the last Muslim ruled princely state in colonial United Provinces and a city that is pejoratively labelled as the centre of Muslim votebank politics in contemporary Uttar Pradesh The book highlights the importance of locality and emotions in shaping Muslim identities politics and belonging in Rampur The book shows that we need to move beyond such homogeneous categories of nation and region in order to comprehend local dynamics that allow a better and closer understanding of the historical re negotiations of politics and identities by Muslims in South Asia      In the City of Gold and Silver Kenizé Mourad,2014-11-04 An enthralling historical novel based on the little known female warrior in nineteenth century India who led a revolt against the British Here is the long forgotten story of Begum Hazrat Mahal queen of Awadh and the soul of the Indian revolt against the British brought to vivid life by the author of Regards from the Dead Princess a major bestseller in her native France Begum was an orphan and a poetess who captured the attentions of King Wajid Ali Shah of Awadh and became his fourth wife As his wife she incited and led a popular uprising that would eventually prove to be the first step toward Indian independence Begum was the very incarnation of resistance As chief of the army and the government in Lucknow she fought battles on the field for two years she was a freedom fighter a misunderstood mother and an illicit lover She was a remarkable woman who risked everything only to face the greatest betrayal of all      Islam in India and Pakistan Annemarie Schimmel,2023-09-29 Scholarly monographs on the religious iconography of Islam      The Rise of the Indo-Afghan Empire, c. 1710-1780 Jos J.L. Gommans,2023-11-27 The Rise of The Indo Afghan Empire c 1710 1780 deals with the magnificent world of Afghan nomads horse dealers and mercenaries bridging the frontiers between the old metropolitan centres of India Iran and Central Asia During the eighteenth century they succeeded in establishing a vigorous new system of Indo Afghan states In Central Asia the Afghans created an imperial tradition on the basis of long standing Perso Islamic ideals In India along the caravan routes with Turkistan and Tibet they carved out thriving principalities in association with military service and the breeding and trade in war horses By fully incorporating this Afghan ascendancy into the fabric of Islamic and world history the author challenges the widely held notion of a gloomy Afghan past      Culture and Power in Banaras Sandria B. Freitag,2023-11-10 This collection of ten essays on Banaras one of the largest urban centers in India s eastern Gangetic plain is united by a common interest in examining everyday activities in order to learn about shared values and motivations processes of identity formation and self conscious constructions of community Part One examines the performance genres that have drawn audiences from throughout the city Part Two focuses on the areas of neighborhood leisure and work examining the processes by which urban residents use a sense of identity to organize their activities and bring meaning to their lives Part Three links these experiences within Banaras to a series of larger worlds ranging from language movements and political protests to disease ecology and regional environmental impact Banaras is a complex world with differences in religion caste class language and popular culture the diversity of these essays embraces those differences It is a collection that will interest scholars and students of South Asia as well as anyone interested in comparative discussions of popular culture This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1989

Popular Culture in South Asian Context Akshaya Kumar,Raj Thakur,2025-11-10

The volume examines popular sensibilities via textual visual performative spatial digital frames of inquiry and critical social political issues in South Asia It highlights the interface between cultural studies and its popular political standpoints and interrogates the kaleidoscope of popular imaginary as well as its conceptual problematics through distinct case studies from the region It leads learners towards the unfounded territories of popular culture studies in South Asia With chapters by major scholars in the field the book uses theoretically comprehensive and empirically varied case studies to re evaluate the central questions of epistemology methodology and approaches to popular culture studies from non Western cultures perspectives Lucid accessible and nuanced the chapters in the volume will be an invaluable reference source for scholars researchers and students in the humanities liberal arts cultural studies and South Asian studies

S.V.Brahaspati,2023-11-04 The Formation of the Colonial State in India Hayden J. Bellenoit,2017-02-17 In the period between the 1770s and 1840s through the process of colonial state formation the early colonial state in India was able to harness and extract vast amounts of agrarian wealth in north India However little is known of the histories of the Indian scribes and the role they played in shaping the early patterns of British colonial rule This book offers a new way of interpreting the colonial state s origins in north India It examines how the formation of early agrarian revenue settlements exacerbated an extant late Mughal taxation tradition and how the success of British power was shaped by this extant paper oriented revenue culture It goes on to examine how the service and cultural histories of various Hindu scribal communities fit within broader changes in political administration taxation patterns of governance and a shared Indo Islamic administrative culture The author argues that British power after the late eighteenth century came as much through bureaucratic mastery paper and taxes as it did through military force and commercial ruthlessness The book draws upon private family papers interviews and Persian sources to demonstrate how the fortunes of scribes changed between empires and the important role they played at the height of the British Raj by 1900 Offering a detailed account of how agrarian wealth provided the bedrock of the colonial state s later patterns of administration this book is a unique and refreshing contribution to studies in South Asian History Governance and Imperialism Education: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Francis
