The Oxford Handbook of the Politics of Development Carol Lancaster, Nicolas van de Walle, 2018-05-01 In many discussions of nations development we often focus on their economic and social development Is it becoming wealthier Is its society modernizing Is it becoming more technologically sophisticated Are social outcomes improving for the broad mass of the public The process of development policy implementation however is always and inevitably political Put simply regime type matters when it comes to deciding on a course of development to follow Further political institutions matter When a government's institutional capacity is low the chances of success severely decline regardless of the merits of the development plan In The Oxford Handbook of the Politics of Development two of America's leading political scientists on the issue Carol Lancaster and Nicolas van de Walle have assembled an international cast of leading scholars to craft a broad state of the art work on this vitally important topic This volume is divided into five sections major theories of the politics of development organized historically e.g. modernization theory dependency theory the Washington consensus of policies without politics etc key domestic factors and variables key international factors and variables political systems and structures and geographical perspectives inclusive of regional dynamics A comprehensive and cross regional examination on key issues of political development this Handbook not only provides an authoritative synthesis of past scholarship but also sets the agenda for future research in this discipline

The Politics of Heritage in Africa Derek R. Peterson, Kodzo Gavua, Ciraj Rassool, 2015-03-02 Heritage work has had a uniquely wide currency in Africa's politics Secure within the pages of books encoded in legal statutes encased in glass display cases and enacted in the panoply of court ritual the artefacts produced by the heritage domain have become a resource for government administration a library for traditionalists and a marketable source of value for cultural entrepreneurs The Politics of Heritage in Africa draws together disparate fields of study history archaeology linguistics the performing arts and cinema to show how the lifeways of the past were made into capital a store of authentic knowledge that political and cultural entrepreneurs could draw from This book shows African heritage to be a mode of political organisation a means by which the relics of the past are shored up reconstructed and revalued as commodities as tradition as morality or as patrimony The Politics of Historical Memory and Commemoration in Africa Cassandra Mark-Thiesen, Moritz Mihatsch, Michelle Sikes, 2021-12-06 Essays in Memory of Jan Georg Deutsch The volume observes some of the principles that drove Prof Jan Georg Deutsch's research highlighting present day politics for the way they shape historical remembrance learning from people on the ground through fieldwork and oral history and bringing various parts of the African continent into discussion with one another From Cape Town to Charlottesville many societies are grappling with historical consciousness and the production of public memory In particular how and why societies remember and forget what should serve as symbols of collective memory and whether there exists space for multiple memory cultures are questions being vigorously debated once again These discussions present particular challenges not only to official memory bound to ideological constructions of nationhood but also to the teaching of history and its links to social justice movements The volume re-centres Africa and African history in memory studies with each chapter drawing parallels to comparable cases in Africa and the world An underlying assumption is that what can be learned from the politics of historical memory in Africa will have relevance for contemporary politics globally and for understanding how memories can be mobilised for political ends Readings in African Popular Culture Karin Barber, 1997 This is an extraordinarily rich collection full of informative detail and excellent interpretative analysis There is not a single piece that fails to fascinate Leeds African Studies Bulletin an impressive collection of inspiring and thought provoking essays Media Development This is a book that should find its way into many syllabuses and onto the bookshelves of Africanist scholars in many disciplines Its publication marks a key turning point in scholarship on the cultures of contemporary Africa Africa Today This book surveys the popular culture of contemporary Africa including popular literature oral narrative and poetry dance drama music and visual art with special emphasis on the verbal arts The essays cover six main areas views of the field oral tradition revisited social history social criticism and interpretation women in popular culture little genres of everyday life the local and the global South African AIDS Activism and Global Health Politics M.
