boundaries of history the role of information in the economy the personal and local nature of national and international events the origins and dissemination of economic ideas and most importantly what actually happened in 1837 This riveting transatlantic cultural history based on archival research on two continents reveals how people transformed their experiences of financial crisis into the Panic of 1837 a single event that would serve as a turning point in American history and an early inspiration for business cycle theory To Make America Ida Altman, James Horn, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991
