Sufism Carl W. Ernst, 2017-04-04 The classic introduction to the philosophies practices and history of Sufism the mystical tradition of Islam The Sufis are as diverse as the countries in which they ve flourished from Morocco to India to China and as varied as their distinctive forms of art music poetry and dance They are said to represent the mystical heart of Islam yet the term Sufism is notoriously difficult to define as it means different things to different people both within and outside the tradition With that fact in mind Carl Ernst explores the broadest range of Sufi philosophies and practices to provide one of the most complete and comprehensive introductions to Sufism available in English He traces the history of the movement from the earliest days of Islam to the present day along the way examining its relationship to the larger world of Islam and its encounters with both fundamentalism and secularism in the modern world dealing with the so called Formative Period this book focuses on the extant writings of early mystics rather than on the later f compilations These early mystics articulated what would become a hallmark of Islamic mysticism a system built around the psychological tension between the self nafs and the heart qalb and how to overcome it Through their writings already at this early phase the versatility fluidity and maturity of Islamic mysticism become apparent This exploration thus reveals that mysticism in Islam emerged earlier than customarily acknowledged long before Islamic mysticism became generically known as fism The central figure of this book is al ak m al Tirmidh whose teaching and inner world focus on themes such as polarity the training of the self the opening of the heart the Friends of God al awliy dreams and visions divine language mystical exegesis and more This book thus offers a fuller picture than hitherto presented of the versatility of themes processes images practices terminology and thought models during this early period The volume will be a key resource for scholars and students interested in the study of religion f studies Late Antiquity and Medieval Islam Sufism Arthur John Arberry,1970

Sufi poet Jalal al Din Rumi 1207-1273 and the practical teachings of the German Dominican Meister Eckhart c.1260-1327. Rumi has remained an influential figure in Islamic mystical discourse since the thirteenth century while also extending his impact to the Western spiritual arena. However, his ideas have frequently been interpreted within the framework of other mystical, philosophical, or religious systems. Through its novel approach, this book aims to reformulate Rumi's practical mysticism by employing four methodological principles: a) mysticism is a coherent structure with mutual interconnection between its parts; b) the imposition of alien structures to interpret any particular mysticism damages its inward coherency; c) practical mysticism consists of two main parts, namely practices and stages; and d) the proper use of comparative methodology enables a deeper understanding of each juxtaposed system. Eckhart's speculative mysticism, which differs from and enjoys similarities with the love-based mysticism of Rumi, provides a mirror that highlights the special features of Rumi's practical mysticism. Such comparison also allows a deeper comprehension of Eckhart's practical thought. Offering a critical examination of practical mysticism, this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Islamic studies, comparative mysticism, and the intellectual history of Islam.

Sufism Alexander D. Knysh, 2017. How and why Sufism came to be. What's in a name? How definitions of Sufism have become a site of polemical partis pris. The Nature of Sufism Milad Milani, 2021-09-28. This book explores how Sufis approach their faith as Muslims upholding an Islamic worldview but going about making sense of their religion through the world in which they exist, often in unexpected ways. Using a phenomenological approach, the book examines Sufism as lived experience within the Muslim lifeworld, focusing on the Muslim experience of Islamic history. It draws on selected case studies ranging from classic Sufism to Sufism in the contemporary era, mainly taken from biographical and hagiographical data, manuscript texts, and treatises. In this way, it provides a revisionist approach to theories and methods on Sufism and more broadly the category of mysticism.
