Literary Representations of Japan: At the Intersection of David Mitchell and Haruki Murakami's Worlds Eugenia Prasol, 2023-09-12

This book will focus on analyzing the different aspects of Japan's representation in the novels of Haruki Murakami and David Mitchell It is proven that Murakami creates and recreates Japan without implementing any orientalist features or exotic imagery In the works of both authors the intent to depict a new world of Japan stripped of traditional stereotypical traits becomes clear The difference between Murakami and Mitchell's representation of Japan lies in the difference between Japan as seen by the Japanese and Japan as seen by modern Westerners but both are correct images of Japan It is a recreation of the global image of Japan In that sense the texts of Murakami and Mitchell are complementary representations of Japan through East West cultural dialogue Studying the representations of Japan and Japanese national character helps to understand the role of Murakami and Mitchell in the formation of a new image of Japan the de-stereotyping of anachronistic ideas about Japanese national exclusivity enriching by doing so the world literature with new visions of the country and its culture The purpose of the comparative analysis of English and Japanese literary works performed in this work is to reveal both deep analogies and differences in the representation of the image of Japan actualizing the national specificity of the texts This research advances the understanding of how both general and specific components of literary representations of Japan and Japaneseness are manifested in the East West cultural dialogue

Ethics in Twenty-First Century British Novels Peter Childs, James Green, 2013-08-15 A fresh set of concerns face the twenty first century British novelist In this study of the four key novelists Zadie Smith Nadeem Aslam Hari Kunzru and David Mitchell the the changes in narrative approaches and critical directions of a new post 1989 fiction are explored Close readings of the writers are informed by a range of contemporary theorists critics and commentators to reveal the emphases of twenty first century fiction Terror fear consumerism multinationalism and corporatism the terms circulating in culture and social networks are evident in Smith s faith in ethical living Aslam s consideration of multiculturalism the novels Kunzru builds around the politics of identity and in the importance Mitchell places on the interconnectedness of human life By putting the emergence of a new British literary dynamic in the context of ethical as well as global contexts this study analyzes the transformed fictional perceptions of a world no longer defined by the stand off of super powers Genre Bending Jeremy Rosen, 2025-12-09 Detective horror fantasy romance science fiction spy thrillers westerns zombie novels In recent decades acclaimed and ambitious writers of literary fiction have increasingly gravitated to popular fiction genres In this comprehensive account Jeremy Rosen describes literary fiction s embrace of genre fiction s conceits as genre bending and argues that while literary writers adopt genres for a wide variety of purposes what they share is a revitalized attitude toward genre a recognition that while genres can be used in formulaic ways they can also be adapted and transformed endlessly Rosen reads across the outpouring of fiction of the last several decades by writers like Margaret Atwood Michael Chabon Jennifer Egan Louise Erdrich Kazuo Ishiguro Chang rae Lee David Mitchell Cormac McCarthy Ian McEwan Haruki Murakami and Colson Whitehead He finds that literary writers embrace of popular genres is the product of several seemingly contradictory forces including their attempt to extend a modernist inspired project of formal experiment to pursue high cultural prestige and to preserve the distinctiveness of the literary which they perceive to be under threat while also embracing the role of providing pleasure to readers Examining what today s most critically acclaimed and widely read literary writers have done with the genres of genre fiction Genre Bending reveals the values practices and forms as well as the tensions that constitute literary fiction today The Digital Humanities and Literary Studies Martin Paul Eve, 2022 A short introduction and overview of developing intersections between digital methods and literary studies that offers the best starting place for those who wish to learn more about the possibilities but also the limitations of the digital humanities in the literary space Reading Theories in Contemporary Fiction Lisa McNally, 2013-04-25 Even after the upheavals wrought by Theory literary criticism has generally ignored the act and experience of reading itself proceeding as though something so fundamental to our experience of texts could be taken for granted Reading Theories in Contemporary Fiction draws on deconstruction and the thought of Jacques Derrida to explore the ways in which contemporary fiction engages with reading its power the elusive nature of its experience and the failures of understanding inherent in it Along the way the book proceeds through close readings of such authors as J M Coetzee David Mitchell Toni Morrison and Philip Roth

Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non foundational non cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature trauma studies and literary theory

Literature after Postmodernism I. Huber, 2014-06-10 Literature after Postmodernism explores the use of literary fantastic storylines in contemporary novels which begin to think beyond postmodernism They develop an aesthetic perspective that aims at creation and communication instead of subversion and can thus be considered no longer deconstructive but reconstructive
